

History Will Be Written 2021

New Year's Day

Yesterday, New Year's Eve
A day as any other day
Today, New Year's Day
A day as any other day

Let's be happy!

A Dead Day

January the second
I feel empty
Listen to a radio station from Los Angeles
And have written

All shit
Or do I start to become a genius
Who cares - I do not
I have not to decide this, I have only to write

I'm tired of the "American Shit"
I hope that next week will yield some decisions
It would be good to finish some "discussions"
To concentrate on the essential topics, matters, questions, problems.....again

Oh Joe,
I hope that you have not to deal with fucking ruthless Mitch
I'll keep my fingers crossed
Sometimes, sometimes.....sometimes stories have a good end.....

Still Positive

Still positive, my mother
But she still walks around
Still no symptoms
All stays stable

Soon they will extend the measures till the end of January
No one doubts about this
It's all about patience
Easy to say in a rich country who cares

Short Writing

Only a short writing today
All eyes on Tuesday and Wednesday
I think that it makes no sense to develop the story further on ahead of this days
Therefore it's a moment of stopover

Later football,
Missed the Rose Bowl and Sugar Bowl!
Bad luck!
Had been interesting games!

Smoking Gun?

A smoking gun
The president's phone call?
Well, the Browns in the lead
Interesting game!

It would be good to see a strong reaction from the Dems
Should one hope for a reaction of the GOP? - Of course, sarcasm!

Later L.A. plays
Will become a long night

Four years the GOP stayed silent
Four years no strong signals from the Dems
Four years of too tame media
In the last seventeen days you have not to.....

I called him a fascist in 2016,
A liar, a betrayer, a manipulator, a criminal, bankrupt.....
Not in the last seventeen days,
If you wake up now, it's a little too late - or?

Sure, the phone call is insane
The Browns won
But hey, this president is nuts, is a fucking mobster, already in his New York years
Soon L.A. begins

But help me with one
The president tries to flip Georgia
And then?
Biden would have still more electoral votes.....?

Okay, he's a crazy racist
And Georgia is a "nigger state"
Kemp is a fucking racist
Gerrymandering and voter suppression his specialty

The Dems have to speak out clearly now
And not only Sanders, AOC or the rest of "The Squad"
Pelosi, Schumer and especially Biden and Harris
L.A. starts to play, and they have a superb start!

Thanks to the Washington Post
To provide the complete phone call on their webpage
What a babbling from the president
Hey, I have to watch football - first points for Arizona

Soon uploading time – Arizona in the lead.....

N.B.: Fumble and touchdown L.A.! - Extra point?

Time Management

I think that I had a good time management today
Wrote something
Was shopping
But did also other things

If I will be able to develop this.....
But the next two days will be different
Time-shift!
Let's see how fast results will be available

Lockdown Extended

Lockdown in Germany extended, till the end of the month
With even more strict measures
But that's okay
Germany had hesitated too long for a moment, but now on the right track again

Too Late

The polling stations in Georgia will close at 1 am local time in Germany
Therefore, I will end the chapter "Georgia On My Mind" not before tomorrow
I have to see tomorrow morning what the stage of affairs in Georgia is
And then we will have the event in Washington tomorrow

Busy days awaiting us.....

Not Sure

Not sure how to continue writing
Have to see what will happen tonight
The reaction of the GOP will be important for me
Whether they try to continue with the charade, they have begun hours earlier

A strong a clear and distinct answer has to follow
The worst would be to accept this president any longer
That the VP would not announce Joe Biden as winner right now
Wish you all the best, more I cannot do, sitting in front of the TV

*****

*****

Satisfied

Satisfied with my writing today
Happy about the developments in Washington today
Tomorrow?
What was that again with the weather and the moods?

Two

Two thrilling quarters
Indianapolis vs. Buffalo
Later Seattle and Los Angeles
Both from the West Coast?

Wow

Wow, what a first game!
Not much more you can wish
Now to the West Coast
Have I to be hopeful that L.A. wins?

Well, Seattle.....
Would be already happy to be in Los Angeles again
Seattle and Portland are waiting
Of course, not to forget San Francisco

But what about San Diego?
About Chicago, New Orleans.....
The New England States.....
Let's watch the game!

First Half

First half
Still Seattle and Los Angeles have all the chances to win
But it seems that Los Angeles has the better chances
Like the experts predicted before the game started

Nevertheless
It's football
Everything can happen very fast
Quarter three and four are waiting

Second Game

Second game is over
L.A. has won
Nevertheless, I would like also to be in Seattle one day
Third game?

2:15 am in Germany now
Peter in Germany will go to bed now
The old man needs some sleep
But I think that Peter in the USA will enjoy a third interesting game

Observing Variable Stars?

The day was blue with sunshine so far
But now it starts to get cloudy
I would like observing my variable stars
Since a longer time again now

And then
The next football evening and night today
Had lunch with my sister and brother-in-law, and of course my father
Some writing

So, let's see how it will develop
Till it's dark, sun is setting right now
Observing? TV? Writing?
Let's see.....

Good Observing

9:45 pm

Have observed my variable stars

Missed the first football game

Saw the last minutes

Had a hot shower

Very cold outside

Made thirty-three observations

Maybe a short writing now - and of course the second game!

Your

Some suffer, the pandemic

Some say they feel lonely now

Some say they get depressed now

Some say they think about suicide now

But what

If you were already

Lonely and depressed

Thought about suicide?

Then not so much has changed

The world is quieter now

The air is cleaner now

The world has become more lovable

Well, Last Girl on Earth

Walking through the empty streets

Feeling free finally

Some called it the end of the world, the Armageddon

Others a cleaning process

A virus to get rid of the most disastrous virus on earth

Touching the deep green grass, sucking in the cold fresh air

To let it all end

Oh, haven't I said it already?

12 Monkeys?

Would I have a virus.....

But I would have to be sure about, that the virus would be absolutely deadly.....

Nice dreams

Unfortunately only nice dreams

Not lonely and some kind of happiness

Not so often thinking about.....

Let's spin around
Let it flow
Wavering like drunken
Floating in the clean blue air

Why I could not be an American writer?
Bloodstains on the keyboard and screen
After the loud bang
And She would carry me into the water thereafter

Yeah, always smiling
Always smiling, what else
What else would be necessary
Necessary to hate your fucking old face?

Drinking peppermint tea from Morocco
No Old Fashioned at my side
This is not the way it functions!
Why I should open the desk's drawer?

Say Yes

Enjoy the beauty of the world
And the beauty thereover
Dive deep to the ocean's deepest point
Fly high into the endless sky

Forget the flesh around you
Close your eyes to see
Thoughts captured in your brain
Longing for breaking out

Like in a Japanese manga
Suddenly it bursts forth
Suddenly you're a fairy, or yet still the monster, only visible for everybody
Sometimes the cute little girl with the long blond hair and the red ribbon therein is the monster

Would I be beautiful
Would I be a woman
I would change clothes every hour
And every week a new hairdo

I would have damn many caskets
Overflowing with vulgar rhinestones
I would be laden with faked jewelry
And would show everybody my tits and my ass

But dreams only
You cannot have everything
And be honest

It would make things not easier
Your life would be no longer so fucking easy
Pissing at the tree in the park
Three days no shaving and no shower

I wish I was a girl
A cute little girl
With long blond hair
And a red ribbon therein

Getting High

Sometimes I simply wish to get high
Cheap drugs, Cheap Thrills?
But I would like it too much
And coming down again would be the horror

Music is my drug
But music functions differently
It does not kill your brain
And destroys your body

Or what is the meaning of drugs
Than to demolish your fucking life
To manifest the feeling of nausea that the human world causes in you
One finger bent

So, let's listen to the music
The music flatters your mind
The music conquers your mind
The music arouses your mind

I wish I was dead
And this would be hell
Happy I would be
Would there yet still the possibility then, that a lovable human world would exist

I wish I was dead
I wish I was dead
I wish I was dead
And this would be hell

Championship

Is it important who wins the championship?
Two officers from the Capitol Police suspended, seventeen(!) others under investigation!
One touchdown each team so far -
What's important in this world?

We are no empathic creatures
The world would look different if
We all are narcissists
As we all are racists as well

There was a time when this maybe was important to survive
As we all lived in caves or so
But since some thousands of years at least
It would have been better would we have overcome this "heritage"

But look in the mirror and ask yourself:
Am I better?
Of course I am!
I'm a white intellectual European man!

Alabama with the next touchdown
Maybe I should go to bed
3:02 am in Germany
Maybe I should listen to this one song till eternity, maybe.....

The Next Day

Another day, another song
Not much has changed otherwise
Times of change, real change
What does this should mean?

Revolutions, crossing a bridge, nearly beaten to death?
I close my eyes and see them marching in their shiny uniforms
A man stands in front of a tank
An endless line waits to be shot death

Democracy as a try to tame the human insanity
But what if the human outrage would know no limits
Moments of tender quietness alter into moments of limitless violence
Let me drown!

Let me drown in endless rage
Fulfilling the human male destiny
Do you hear all those cries
Fulfilling the world

And do you feel these feeling of sexual arousal
By hearing it
Hunt the prey, tear it down
Ram your claws into the prey's chest and rip the chest apart

The smell of warm blood
The taste of a still beating heart
Being the Master of Deaths
Even better than stir up the masses

Gosh, I would be the perfect dictator
I would let the world drown in blood as never ever before
Gosh, I would be the perfect Caesar
Why there's no devil whose contract I could sign

It's hard to live with disappointment
It's not satisfying to kill a dozen or two or three Torturing them to death even
This not makes you to the Master of Death

Some murdered millions
I would kill them all
And as the last heroic act me
If already insane, then utterly

So, dream your little dreams
Loving red diamonds and pink pearls
Sparkling like a Christmas tree
In my red dress dyed by human blood

Spinning round till falling down dizzy
Needing the arousal
In the endless depths of my mind
Softly touching and embracing the lonely monster, deep down inside me

Yeah, unleash it
Oh, I would like it
Do you see me smiling,
While I'm bathing in your blood and guts?

Oh, don't panic
As a civilized man
Disgusted by myself
Spin around, you will never fall!

What To Do

What to do while listening to the debate
I rigged up my new desk
Which arrived during the afternoon
At least so far as it has functioned alone

It's a relatively huge and heavy desk
I need the help of my father tomorrow
To help me with the final steps
Tomorrow will be the first day after the second impeachment

It will be a good day

So Important

This was so important
And not less than ten GOP votes!
Once the Democrats acted bold and consistent
If they continue in this way.....

Well, still a week till inauguration
But even McConnell excludes no longer to impeach the president in the Senate?
This is such a progress
Of course, a lot is hypocritical

But the point is to destroy the president's "heritage"
To make him to a persona non grata
But what I do not understand is What in German TV would happen immediately

Why I see no new polls
Yes, seventy-four million Americans have - have! - elected him
But how many would do it today?
Why this not happens in US TV?

Will this be the end of this president?
It would be relieving
I'm sick of writing about him
I hope that with the end of January we can concentrate on the essential matters

But for now, one had to be happy
Not thought that the Democrats can be that resolute
Should you be hopeful now
Climate change, structural racism, the pandemic, no good health care.....

It's a day to be happy!

Fourth Time

The fourth time now
In the middle of the night
Ambulance and emergency doctors
My father in hospital again

But this time it's the back
They will do an additional MRI tomorrow to get more information
In total five persons in two cars came to help him
I had some strange thoughts while I had to step aside, to let them do their work

How much this would cost you in the States
I had only to hand them my fathers health insurance card
It will cost nothing, not a single cent
No, no private insurance, the normal governmental health insurance - living in a modern society

The desk is built
The room looks much better now
I'm very tired

I have visited my father two hours ago
Tomorrow morning I will bring him some additional things
Not sure about writing today
I'm so damn tired

No Writing Today

I feel totally exhausted
My whole body aches
My brain whirls
No writing today

I will write the chapter "Day After" tomorrow
I tried to sleep for an hour or two
But it not really functions
No writing today

I have to go to bed early
Maybe I can find some rest
I would need some distraction
Definitively no writing today

Friday

No new results from my father so far
My mother has had no problems with the virus - good again
Have written "Day After" as a short bridge - will do this also with the next part
It seems as I could observe my variable stars later again

I would do this
This would do me good
Icy but quiet
Should eat something

Well

Well, no stars, very cloudy and misty now
Have written all for today
Somewhat tired and headache
Tomorrow important writing

Still no clinical report
Why they need so long
After having the MRI
Well, now during the weekend.....

Okay, try to relax somewhat now
Like the new rooms
I have not to get up early tomorrow
No need for cooking lunch for my father and me

I tend to eat later the day.....

First half is over.....
Good drive at the end, but Green Bay?
Go L.A.!

L.A. Blue

Well, what's to say
Green Bay was better?
Of course, they were
Some good action from L.A., but not enough to "mess" with Green Bay

I froze also Thought about to be back in Los Angeles
I'm afraid that not in 2021
But February 2022 is a fixed date for me

But maybe others is more important at the moment

Mistakes

The old man is sometimes somewhat confused - or what?
Inauguration at twentieth, on a Wednesday, not on a Tuesday, counting days.....?
I do not correct any writing normally, after uploaded
But this time I did two corrections

Tuesday in Wednesday
One day in two days
I do not feel that bad at the moment
Started to eat more fruit and salad again, lost a little weight

I hope that on Wednesday a new time begins
That I can concentrate on developing a story again
That not every day haunts you
Until you're exhausted

Tomorrow, that was correct!, the next corona meeting in Germany
I have some new ideas
I hope that the twentieth will become a kind of watershed
For the States as well as for my writing

Let's see.....

One More Week

It was to hope for
That my father can come back home on Friday
But he has to stay a week longer
It's for treatment with medication

Everything stable now
But still the underlying source of the problem is not found
But he feels better now
Would be good would he be home soon again

Combining Words

Combining words
Creating meaning
Combining words in an unusual or even wrong way
Sometimes creates deeper meaning

Meaning in rationality
Rationality in meaning
Irrationality can create deeper meaning
Deeper meaning in irrationality

Words can create a sound
Sometimes the harmony of words is more important than the strict meaning
Words should be read loud
Silent words are endangered becoming dying words

I would like it, to read all my words out aloud
Now more than ever
But I have to write
Now more than ever

But I have to try to speak again as soon as possible
But I'm definitively no performer
I have to ponder about it
Have a slight idea

I still envy all those who can sing
I envy all those who can recite
I envy all those who can invest days and weeks or even months in a work
I have to hurry, I feel driven

New Ideas

I have started to plan two short story-arcs, from today till February the seventh - Super Bowl. Because I've mentioned football several times now, I thought that this would be a good date, to try to come to a certain point, a for me crucial aspect. From there on the story could develop, to whatever the story will develop.

I hope that politics in Washington can become more a background now, Mitch McConnell? We will see what will develop in Washington till February. Let's begin with the work till Super Bowl.

Problems

Just at this moment my provider has problems, I cannot upload
My webpage is offline
Was confused at the end of the game
Have no time anymore to concentrate on the game

But I have to wait till all is okay again
I will continue writing now
And hope that it will last not too long
The next game will begin soon

Online Again

Online Again
The next game has begun
I'm under pressure now
A field goal will be not enough!

Many Problems

At the end of the first game I ran into problems with my webpage
I called the hot line
The company that run my webpage had internal problems
I had to wait

The idea was, that the first game should be over short before midnight local time
Time to upload
It would run short, but possible to upload the first game, the second tomorrow
But then I discovered the problems with the webpage

For some time I hoped Always looked if the webpage was online again
Watched the game
Wrote and tried to read correction - it did not function!

I have made some changes today
Buccaneers vs. Green Bay
This evening should have been a kind of test run for the Super Bowl
I have to make it better then

So, I corrected some mistakes
What happened at the end of the second game is another story
I have to find a better rhythm till the Super Bowl
But, the Super Bowl will begin after midnight local time

It's a different situation therefore
The two short plot lines till the Super Bowl should be in my focus now
But today will be a day in between
A day to arrange some matters

Feeling Good

I feel good at the moment
It seems as my father can come back on Saturday
It seems as my mother settles into the retirement home
It seems that

I think that February will become a crucial month
For the USA as well as for Germany
And I have the luxury to sit at home
At least sometimes you should think on the people working in hospitals or the care sector

Empires

Empires emerged and vanished during history
The downfall of the American Empire
Unthinkable
I wouldn't be that convinced

Nothing gold can stay
You're singing
The with gold paved streets
Nothing

Living in historic times
Anything seemed possible nowadays
And even now reality constantly surprised you
Why not by witnessing the downfall of the American Empire

Betrayal

Not that the world had ever been a world of truth
Maybe in previous days even more phony than today
In a world where everyone could communicate with everyone
In a world where everyone betrayed everyone

Dive deep inside
This world of lies
Dissolve therein
Enjoy the truth

Name me an artist
Name me a writer
Name me something special
'Cause deeply repelled by this human world

Not that the world had ever been a world of truth
But nowadays the border between truth and lies became more and more ambiguous
The world of lies more real than reality nowadays Dive deep into this new sweet world, let's dissolve

leaving

leaving the world born by my dreams, hopes and fears higher and higher till too small to can be seen from the ground anymore

closing my eyes feeling the world brought to me by music in an endless repeat feeling the darkness deep down, the emptiness what when gone once for all take a deep breath

soak up the music blood-red garnet, crimson dream

A No Good

A no good feeling appeared
Hope could change into desperation only too fast
History balanced on a razor-thin blade
Old memories faded inevitably

A fight with oneself
A fight only to lose
I knew how you should be
Only the mirror showed another person

Pythia
What would you say
Today
What would you say

Nothing nice I would expect
A world agonizing
A body disintegrating
A mind trying to resist

Rotting stinking flesh
The old memories long gone
Is it worth it

From Ground On

From ground on
With a fundamental fault
From the beginning on in the wrong direction
But always further on

And yet
Wasn't it obvious that all this was so wrong
Look away
Close your eyes

A mellifluous voice
Dulciloquent moments
Bestowing calm
In your little cockleshell on an endless stormy ocean

Alone in a room
In the dark
A flickering candle flame
Shadows on the wall

The feeling of security
Surrounded by solid walls
Keeping away the scary outside
Till the candle dies

The American Beacon

No, the States are definitely no beacon for the world
A cautionary example maybe
Like my country
A hope and in the same moment a threat they are

What if history will be different this time
What a triumph this could be
What if history will repeat itself
What a devastating moment that would be

America could become shiny like the fiery beacon
Could send out a hope bestowing signal to the world
America could become the daunting example to the world
Could destroy the hope for a better for ever

Time still moves incessantly
You have still only to wait
Time is still the holy Savior
You have still only to wait

Sin

My head seemed to burst as I woke up, the taste of blood in my mouth - was only not sure whether it was mine or not. I tried to orientate, looked at the dead bodies around me, they did not look good, somebody had done a good job. Whoever it had been, he had been obviously not only interested in to kill them, he had slaughtered them - I heard sirens. Wouldn't be that good would I be still at the scenery, when the police would arrive, this fucking corrupt bastards. I grabbed my stuff to fuck off, was not interested in, to kill some police officers as well. Could remember again who killed this other guys.

It was like in Sin City - had watched the movie some days ago - in color only. Nice stylistic element, but the reality looked not like this Sin City, the real Sin City was in color - and most probably even more fucking as the artificial Sin City. They had shown the sequel subsequent to the first movie - a fucking big mistake. Such it became even more clear how bad the sequel was, the first movie had been good. Eva Green showed her big tits - where was the fucking rest? Fucking American prudery, in her first movie - much younger - she had shown her pussy lips, had sucked a cock and had real(?) fuck scenes with two guys at the same time - of course, no American movie, an European movie, made by an old and horny director, whose good times were long gone. Well, Dominique Sanda and Robert De Niro, but that was another story.....

Also another story was the question, if the Gilmore Girl was hotter as a whore or as a school girl, I could never make up my mind - most probably both was as hot as the other, both in its exceptional way. I tried, apart from that, to remember why I had killed those guys, maybe not that much important - I would have had my reasons, I did not kill without a reason.

"Sin City" – of course not the sequel! Lines like that lies would create power, the thoughts about the connection between lies and (political and economic) power and the function of the masses - yes, the first movie was not bad. At the end, when Bruce Willis killed himself.....

The Normal Daily Life

My father came back from the hospital yesterday
He looks much better now
Had a quarrel with my sister yesterday
The normal daily life

Tomorrow I will see my sister again
The Washington insanity will find its continuation
I'm not in the best mood
The normal daily life

Ponder how it will be
Should all will be "normal" again
Well, not so soon for me
Enjoy the normal daily life

Impossibility

The impossibility of human relationships
Some say that humans would need relations to other humans Necessarily
But why then this inability to relate

Not with, but also not without you
Oh Lizzy, sing your songs
Are we all are only emotional cripps
Last Girl on Earth

Bestow me with calmness
No perceptions anymore
Only the dazing sound
Flattering the ears

Show me the way
Cannot find it without your help
I stray till I'm here
Would need your pleasant help

You reach out
But I cannot grab
I'm not capable to
Not now, not in this moment

Would wish could become invisible
No one ever would note me again
It would be heaven on earth
While looking at the world in disgust

A pastel fluffy world
Would I be a girl I would only wear pink
Would need hours every day to style
High heels and Bambi eyes like Carmen

One

One tone in the eternity
So much more than anything else
Lips forming a letter
And the tone and the letter merge

Oh, come and see
The beauty of the world
The beauty of the world of tones and letters
Creates true eternity

The disappointment of inability
No tear will ever change this
No stage of despair
Oh, come and see

I'll go the way
But why when knowing the bitter end
Surrounded by water only would be a dream

Despair

Be happy, still alive
Capable to despair
Mon coeur
Je suis désespéré

I play at the river
The water so clear, innocent
Mon coeur
Je suis désespéré

The water whispers
Diving in
Mon coeur
Je suis désespéré

The water girds me
The water bestows me warmth
Mon coeur
Je suis désespéré

The cold water carries me away
To a beautiful place
Mon coeur
Je suis désespéré

A feeling of liberation
Dissolving in the liquid eternity
Mon coeur
Je suis désespéré

Annoyed

I'm annoyed
For the second time in a short time
My Internet service provider
Has internal problems

I cannot upload today's writing
The last time I had not to wait too long
But for years I had no problems at all
Now for the second time in a short time

Hope it will not last long

Severe Problems

My Internet service provider
Has severe problems
Not only I
Since nearly a whole day now!

I will try later to upload something
Can anyone view my page
The statistic says that I would have visitors
Very strange.....

At the moment I can only wait
And see what will happen
But it's nerving
Still an hour till the today's upload

Let's hope the best.....

Online Again?

At the moment online again
But the internet service provider still announces problems
With webpages established before 2017 like mine
But at least at the moment my webpage seems to be online again

I hope that this will last
Not interested in, to waste time to control the status of my webpage constantly
But today it seems to be good
Super Bowl is near!

Online Again

All problems solved
Now everything should function again
For longer hopefully
Have made some decisions

I will make some changes after Super Bowl
Nothing grave
I can change my writing again, with this new president
There will be also a time I have to work again - .....?

I will change the daily writing somewhat
Daily writing, but not necessarily "Living In Historic Times"
I hope that I will have a bar day later again
And a jazz day as well

I will prepare this on Sunday
Super Bowl is during the night to Monday for me
Will become a long night
And I expect a very interesting game

No Visitors

I was puzzled
The whole day on Thursday (local time) my webpage could not be visited
But I had visitors all the time
At the end more than the days before?

But now the statistics became updated
They were obviously also affected by the problems of my internet service provider
Now I have zero visitor on Thursday
That makes much more sense!

Super Bowl vs. My Writing

Over a time span of two or three hours I have always visitors
Not necessarily every hour people visit my webpage
And I have some time spans with always the most of my visitors Around midnight - evening in the US - always many

But not today, Monday
During the time span from midnight till 4 am not one visitor
Super Bowl was from 0:30 am till around 4:30 am German time
Is this the explanation?

The people were more interested in to watch the Super Bowl
Then to read my writing?
Okay, I watched the Super Bowl also
But I also wrote.....

Okay, my writing has no chance in challenging the Super Bowl

A New Time Begins?

No, not in the United States
But maybe with my writing
The task is, to find a good rhythm during the next days
I have to incorporate the possibility to work again

Not in the next three or four weeks most probably
But maybe then
Then my writing rhythm will automatically change again
I should be prepared

Let's see.....

Till March

Lockdown extended till March the seventh
The next three and a half weeks
I have to use this time
But I think I can do so

It's Cold Outside

It's Cold outside
Very cold
But since over a month now
I can see the stars again

I observe
Standing in the snow, it's really cold
But what makes it more difficult
It's hazy, no good conditions

But it's good to continue my observations
At the moment I'm in the house to warm up
A few observations are left
And then those that I have to make at the morning sky

Not much writing today
Others more important today
More writing tomorrow
And on Sunday I will continue with Peter in the USA

Headache

Was exhausting, the observations yesterday
I have a severe headache today
Because of that
I'm not sure

But it was good to do so
I have to become more active again
But it's difficult to write with such a headache
Today's writing will be short therefore

But this affects "Cozy Days In London" most
The second part of "Living In Historic Times" will begin (really) on Sunday
After the impeachment trial is over
This writing is more a bridge, an interlude

I think that tomorrow it will be better again
Why a joke this defense is
Their funny videos with the dramatic music
But I will write later about it

"to despair of sb./sth."

A perfect illustration?
The Democrats!
Thought you would have learned something
But that was a big mistake!

The final words of the House Impeachment Managers
Why you not simply stop talking
We have heard your words often enough
Why wasting two hours till the Republicans will lough about you?

Gosh, you had it!
To trow away such a bombshell moment?
This will be a lesson for the former president!
You don't hear him laughing out loud in Florida?

I do!

Feeling

I think that I find my way to a better rhythm
Tomorrow (maybe) only "History Will Be Written"
Somewhat tired today
But that's okay

No longer the whole day CNN
Less and less
The political normality back in the States again
Well, not really

At the moment I would say, I've the feeling that Cruz, Graham.....have passed their peak
Not to talk about the former president
But you have to be cautious with such statements

A fast and comprehensive stimulus package would be important now
Other legislation as well
To pressure the GOP on and on
But at the moment I have a good feeling, while looking at the United States

Business As Usual?

The richest country on earth ever
Is not capable to offer their inhabitants a solid electric supply
At least in Texas - Lone Star State
And Cruz is the same pathetic asshole as always

Human rights violations in China?
Well, it's an important market.....
Uyghurs, do they have economic relevance?
They are Muslims? - Then we're not in charge!

Enough reasons also today
To listen to sad music
To be disappointed
To try to escape, escape the bitterness

Spin round
Till getting dizzy
Falling down on the ground
Losing oneself in a deep dark wonderland

A perfect moment for drugs
To kill thy life
Maybe Terry wasn't that wrong
And insanity would be the ultimate escape

Wish I could transform
Into a deformed monster
Into a gorgeous mythical creature
To escape an ugly body

Time is ticking away
Tell me how long I still have
Say till tomorrow
I wouldn't be much shocked about it

Tenderness Grasps Me

Tenderness grasps me
When I feel your fingertips on me
Illusions conquer my mind
When I feel alone

A black mustang rushes past
And I feel so ashamed
A bald eagle in the sky
And my desires are killing me

For whom the stars are shining
Not for me
The dark in between
Is reserved for one like me

The darkness, the blackness
Try to smile
The coldness, the quietness
Try to pretend at least some happiness

Unsettling Illusions

I ask you for nothing
'Cause no one else is here
No one who could see me
No one who could hear me

A scream, heard by no one
Is still a scream
Forget the fucking babble
About quantum physics

The future is not changeable
If the future has happened
Has become history
No return back in time possible

And even if
The suffering has come to past
Too late to change it
Change always only possible in the present

Let my ears ache
Until they cry
Till they can feel nothing anymore
The tones are already in my mind

In my thoughts everything is possible
Everything
An endless snowy landscape
And I count every single snowflake

Wings spread out
Surfing on sound waves
Forgetting what I've become
In my thoughts I can be anything and everyone

Up in the sky
Deep below the sea
Especially there
Especially there

Illusions and desires
Breathing underwater
Never forced to see the world outside again
Illusions and desires

Tomorrow?
I'm fine with that,
Had no special plans for the day anyway.
Unsettling illusions.....

Headache

I have observed my variable stars yesterday
In the evening sky
And in the morning sky today
I have a massive headache at the moment

Not sure, because of the effort
I eat no sweets at the moment but gained weight anyway
Was very lazy the last week or so
Have to become more active again

Slept today a lot - 7:12 pm
Should eat something now
Should have a shower then
I have to become much more active!

Today

Today I feel exhausted
Worst day for quite some time
10:04 pm
No writing today

Makes no sense today, writing
Tomorrow I have to do some things differently
Feel dizzy
Was a totally wasted fucking day

Tuesday

Much better again today
Today some writing again
Tomorrow I will continue with "Living In Historic Times"
Much better again today

Better And Better

Have started to eat more and more fruits again
Instead of sweets
Much better
The weather is also much better again

Much more sunshine
And the days are getting longer
But it's too early to say
That this would be the beginning of a good development

I Feel Sad

The first goal for the weekend will be
To bring "Cozy Days In London" to an end
It has to be
But I feel sad, very sad about it, have tears in my eyes

Old Fashioned Fantasy

A short glimpse back, that was the last moment I saw her face. I gazed after her for a long time, since a longer time I couldn't see her now, swallowed by the mass of people on the street, yet still I could see her elegant way to walk, dressed in her long white coat made of Kashmir, the hem of her breathtaking white dress, the alluring white silk stockings, the splendid red heels, her long curled black hair, the little goofy hat.

Of course, it had been obvious from the beginning on, that it would be only for a certain time - she came from another world, one day she would disappear into this other world again, a world beyond my reach yesterday, today and also tomorrow. But I had to be happy, very happy, that I had been bestowed with her presence at least for a limited span of time - it was very hard to lose her now, but how hard it would have been, never to feel her?

I would go to a bar later, would need something hard, not to forget her, it would have been a crime to forget her, to forget the moments she had touched me. I would go to the bar when I would have got tired of the constant shoves, the constant curses of the people who saw me only as an obstacle on the sidewalk, but not now.....

"You're writing a story?"

"Yes.....and by the way, another Old Fashioned, please."

"Is the story about you?"

"No, absolutely not. It's pure fantasy."

The Worst Enemy Of The United States Of America

"It's worse when a country like ours has enemies like China, Iran or Islamic fundamentalists, but the worst is, should your worst enemies are parts of your own people, when American Christian fundamentalists threaten your freedom more than every Islamic terrorist, when officials in a state like Georgia act like we would still live in the 50s, when it would be still okay to lynch a "nigger" from time to time, that it would be still forbidden that "whites" and "blacks" could enter into the bond of marriage. I thought that we would have at least such things left behind us."

I emptied the rest of my drink all at once, and the glass had been not that much empty.

"Give me another one, I have to drink fast today."

Today our former president, the worst motherfucker in the White House ever, would give a speech - his brainwashed votaries, his believers, would like it. Jim Jones in Jonestown, interesting how much the pictures were equal. I only hoped that this mass suicide would happen soon - not everyone had committed suicide, some had been simply murdered. It was interesting to see this GOP on its way to collective suicide, and no one stood up and no one had the courage to face the holy imposter, of course not the spineless Mitch, but also not "I have a big mouth, but still not interested in the poor" Mitt. The whole thing would end in a disaster, but this was no reason to be happy, this disaster would have the potential to damage the USA to its core, its essential foundations.

"Give me another one, I need more, it's by far not enough."

Liberal people around the world felt repelled by this United States, and I could understand them. I felt disgusted by seeing this Fuehrer cult - Heil, my wanker from New York!

"Give me another one - fuck, I need more!"

Would he share the "fate" of racists, fascists, mass murderers, bloody dictators.....like Hitler, the Czar, Mussolini, Pol Pot, Saddam Hussein, Ceausescu or others? But even if, for all those who had to suffer till then, who had to die till then, for all those it would be too late anyway. I had no idea how I had managed it, but as I puked my guts out in the restroom I felt definitely better.

11:38 pm

Still no press conference
No details about the new measures
Today it takes a very long time
But what's said so far seems not very convincing for me

But let's wait
I have not to think about that restaurants will open the next weeks
And the states have to implement the measures
Let's see.....

Not So Much

Had not so much time for writing today
Had to watch a lot of German TV
Tried to understand the new corona measures from yesterday
Was distracted most of the day

Have not finished today's writing
Will do it tomorrow
It's nearly impossible to say what will be in a week, two weeks, three weeks.....
But there are indications that it very easily can end in a disaster

Take a deep breath and.....

Baden-Württemberg

Now it's official
The state of Baden-Württemberg, my home state, will do it different from the rest of Germany
The 7-day incidence for reopening - 50 - will not apply to the whole state
But to every single independent city (Stadtkreis) and county (Landkreis) independently

Keep in mind
Germany is smaller in size than California (but has somewhat more than twice the inhabitants)
Germany is divided in sixteen states (Bundesländer)
Three of them are cities - Berlin, Bremen, and Hamburg

The size of Baden-Württemberg is nearly thirty-six square kilometers (third largest in Germany!)
San Bernardino County fifty-two square kilometers
Baden-Württemberg is divided in Thirty-five counties (Landkreise) and nine independent cities (Stadtkreise)
And every county and independent city - forty-four in number - will act for its own

The independent city of Heilbronn is enclosed by the county of Heilbronn
Heilbronn has somewhat more than a hundred thousand inhabitants
The incidence in Heilbronn city today: 30.0
The incidence in the county of Heilbronn today: 51.7
Therefore, Heilbronn can begin to reopen on Monday again, a hundred thousand people
But the county around not, nearly three hundred and fifty thousand people
Does this make any sense?

Sometimes one can learn even from the United States of America -
Think big!
If this will be the reality from Monday on, then it will be a chaos
Of course the people can drive from the county to the city for instance Restaurants can reopen from twenty-second on again - thanks, that not on Monday
Nearly all experts say, that this will cause a third wave in Germany.....

My Congratulations!

My congratulations, Joe Biden and Democrats! - And now the minimum wage!

The Royal Tragedy

What an interview, shocking, dramatic, debunking, an Oprah Gail Winfrey interview!

Debunking, yes debunking, but what had been debunked? Racism in the UK, in London, maybe even in the Buckingham Palace? What a shocking new insight, could one believe that in the glorious Commonwealth with all its nice colonies it had ever given something like racism, the thinking that the "White Race" would be superior - yes, the Germans have committed a holocaust, the Holocaust, but the proud British heroes in Africa, India and all the other places where they welcomed happily the British conquerors?

Would it be a blasphemy to ask, how much money Oprah makes with this interview? I've heard something about 7.2 million dollars or so only for the American rights? Wow, she was so shocked to hear about the talking about the skin color of the baby - good that she grew up in the United States where skin color is no topic, that she had never been confronted with such a topic before.

And Meghan Markle? Gosh, she has lost so much, no money from the British royalty anymore? Rachel Meghan Markle, born in L.A., in California, the USA.....good that she had never to experience racism in her former life. And now she even has to invent her "brand" new - I feel with her.

Harry - sorry! Prince Harry.....it's getting boring!

Is this previous writing cynic - I hope so!

Oprah Winfrey? We have not to talk about who had the harder youth, she or I.

Meghan Markle? Born in Los Angeles as an African American? You have not to be born in Compton for that.

Prince Harry? Losing your mother?

What's my problem with all of this?

I have to think on all the George Floyds, Breonna Taylors, all those with no name. Yesterday - March 7, 1965 - a coincidence? Roughly three months before I'm born, other names conquer my mind. Other incidents, destinies, seem more worth reporting, but could you make millions therewith, could you build a "brand" on it?

Oprah, Meghan and Harry, others are more on my mind. It's a pervert little joke to me, to see this puffed up comedy.

Tomorrow

Tomorrow morning a meeting at my workplace. A representative from the DEHOGA (the organization of hotels and restaurants in Germany) meets with the management, the head chief and a few others, they invited me.

Theoretically we could reopen from twenty-second on, at least at the moment, if the situation were stable - the situation is not stable. Only dining outside, it's not so warm in Germany, the season known for rain and sometimes even snow again, a very difficult situation. Experts say that we head into the third wave. The numbers are rising every day a bit, in the county, in the state, in the nation. The typical development one would expect at the bringing of an exponential growth.

If the numbers develop further on in this way, then it could be that we still could reopen, but with the knowledge that it will be only for a few days, then strict restrictions would come into force, or all restaurants had even to close again. One has to consider, that you cannot decide on the twenty-first to reopen a restaurant a day later.

For months nobody cooked in this kitchen. You have to clean everything first, you have to buy new food, you have to prepare a new menu - four days at least, maybe five. The same applies for the service. This is a lot of effort when having the risk that you can close again after a week or so. Let's see what the discussion tomorrow will be. At the beginning of April we would have maybe enough vaccine to vaccinate substantial portions of the citizens. Maybe enough tests to test very often. Would it be a disaster to wait these three weeks?

But as an owner of a restaurant this is a fucking situation. You could maybe reopen, then you have to reopen. It would be difficult not to reopen, if you can reopen. But what a pressure to reopen when everything points thereto, that the situation will be worse again within the next two to three weeks? These were no good decisions in Berlin, but our governor (Ministerpräsident) made a stupid decision by interpreting the results in the way he did. Next Sunday we elect a new governor in Baden-Württemberg.....

Working again

The meeting today lasted from 9 am till 5 pm
Ate something, will not write that much today
Tomorrow my workday will start at 10 am
Cleaning up, seeing what's all there, writing a new menu

Then I will have some days with no work again
Next week?
We will see
On Monday, twenty-second, we will reopen

How long?
Good question!
Some days of preparations
Let's see

A third wave
Most probably
Whose to blame
Some fucking governors

Hey, it's like in the USA!

A Tale About Racism

Is it on me to write about racism? It depends on the perspective, I would say. A story with an African American protagonist, or an immigrant from Africa in Europe, suffering from racism, would be disgusting. A story with a white protagonist, living in Europe or the States, never has experienced what racism means, that would be adequate. Would it be disgusting to write critically about Meghan Markle? Why, because she's an African American woman?

Do I have to believe Meghan Markle? Do I have to accept Piers Morgan's comments? No, two times no!

Can I criticize Meghan Markle? Can I doubt her words? - Of course, she's not beyond reproach! This interview was planned and arranged from the first till the last second.

Have I to "love" Piers Morgan? Can I think that he's an idiot and bigmouth? Sure, why Gordon Ramsay comes me to mind?

The point is, it's too easy to me, too much black and white, not to question Meghan Markle's motives for this interview - and Oprah's by the way just as - but to damn Piers Morgan totally. Okay, it's not really easy to say something positive about Morgan, but to glorify Meghan Markle seem also too much to me.

Maybe we should talk about, that this whole royalism is outdated, based - not at least - on an aggressive colonialism with all its ugly manifestations. Has Meghan Markle a problem therewith, I really don't know, I have done no research, but as far as I see it, she does not question royalism as such.

I question royalism as such and its racist traditions, and I hate assholes like Piers Morgan. Meghan Markle, The Duchess of Sussex, is part of the royalty, even now.

Congrats!

Congrats Dems!
And now the minimum wage, infrastructure.....
2022 awaits you
At least if you continue this way

Working

Worked from 10 am till 4 pm today
It's 9:23 pm now
Have problems to concentrate on writing
The numbers are rising faster

Tomorrow I will visit my mother
I work on Saturday again
But only to write a new menu
A menu for what?

It's a stupid situation
Caused by stupid politicians
Combined with a failure in regard to vaccinating and testing
Wow, whom I shall elect on Sunday?

How about an engaged speech by a politician
That we should have the strength to continue our efforts for three or four weeks more
That we would have a large celebration after the pandemic
Germany would celebrate at least three days

But hey, this would mean to become inspiring
To become creative
To become passionate
To become empathetic

Welcome third wave
It's the same shit as in November with Christmas and New Year
Why not offering a corona TV, especially for kids
I mean this earnest

I'm not in the mood to write
"Living In Historic Times" was planned for tomorrow anyway
But why not thinking about a story about reality, "Tomorrow's History – Today's Deeds"
Or something else for "History Will Be Written"

But I'm not in the mood.....

Killing Time

I did the best the last hours to kill time
And I was successful!
It's 11:39 now
Too late to write something for today!

Tomorrow I will continue with "Living In Historic Times"
I hope that the next few days will bring at least some clarity
This situation is stupid
In one way it makes absolutely no sense to plan the reopening, but you have to

Let's see
I try to get some sleep tonight
I will vote on Sunday
On Monday?

Friday On My Mind

Visited my mother in the retirement home today
Well, it's better so, but it's not nice
It appears to me that she got settled into the retirement home now
I've the feeling that that wouldn't be mine

A story written long ago
The sea cow
The little house at the sea
The knowing that you could swim out every day

Tomorrow I will work again
What for?
The numbers rose significantly from Thursday to Friday
This all makes no sense anymore

No widespread vaccination from April the first on Maybe two weeks later
I have to come down
Have to see what tomorrow will yield

From what's said it would be impossible to reopen
Soon the incidence will be over fifty again
In two or three days at the latest
But often enough they change their statements

A unequivocal statement would be important now
As soon as possible
And it can only be
No reopening of restaurants

I'm tired
My head aches
No time for writing
It's a crucial time

Have made breaded pork chop for my father and me for lunch.....

Another Day

Another day with no real writing
Too many thoughts occupy my mind
It seems as Joe Biden would do an excellent job in the States
I never doubted about, that also we can learn something from the States

As yesterday
It's still a stupid situation
On the other hand, the virus should end all discussions very fast
But of course, this is naive thinking

Germany, Europe, as the looser among the rich countries?
After the pandemic Germany will be able to start very fast again, as in 2008
Short-time working benefit for workers and the - now arriving - support for companies
We Germans could act more relaxed

The artists are the people who suffer the most
And of course, the financially weakest
But nobody doubts that the restaurants will be crowded after the pandemic
More than before

A few weeks after a year
It's disappointing
So much more would be possible
Care workers get no better wages, the Caritas, the Roman Catholic Church as employer, blocks it

If these are the signals we send.....
Welcome to the future!
Many warm words.....
Business as usual!

Better

Better today - Friday
We have written a new menu today
For what?
The numbers rose drastically from yesterday to today

It's over normally
The experts are predicting incidences of around 350(!) at Easter
Hey, let's open restaurants!
It's all so fucking stupid!

Welcome to Germany.....

Election Sunday

First,
Elections are held always on Sundays in Germany
Because on Sundays it's for most of the people easier to vote
I walked with my father to the polling station

We needed no five minutes, had only to show our polling cards
It's not difficult to elect in Germany
Most people voted by using voting by mail this year
Not one discussion about that - why there should be a discussion about that?

What's interesting?
Well, it could be that we could have two options for a chancellor at the end of the year
Two options without the CDU / CSU, the conservatives
These are interesting speculations

The green party (Die Grünen) and the socialists (SPD) and the liberals (FDP)
The green party (Die Grünen) and the socialists (SPD) and the (far) left (Die Linke)
The second is less likely
But many other constellations are possible - that's interesting democracy

Of course, also options with the Conservatives (CDU / CSU)
But till the end of the year much can happen
And in Baden-Württemberg we keep our "father of the state"
Winfried Kretschmann, The Green Party

The Green Party has to nominate Annalena Baerbock as their chancellor candidate
Not Robert Habeck
It would be good to have not only men to choose from
This has to become a normality

The numbers rose dramatically over the last few days
Not only a few states with a 7-day incidence over two or even three hundred
One with over 500 (!)
This all makes no sense

Today no real writing
Tomorrow more
I have a story to write
Then we will see

Normality Could Come Again

Feel better
Normality could come again
Would travel to Portugal this year again
Again to the States next February

Ponder about "Living In Historic Times"
Should Peter have an "affair"
But Peter sits alone at home
So much could be possible

What do you expect from life
Well, have more than most on this world
Peter sits alone at home
But others have to die

The Future Of The Nation

Germany, a nation on the brink?
Well, that's maybe somewhat too harsh
But it's difficult to explain
What happens in Germany since October last year

Okay, Germany has still low numbers compared with other European nations
In fact better as nations like Norway, Denmark or Finland
Not to talk about Sweden, Sweden is a disaster
The death rate in Germany significantly better as in the United States again

So, all not so bad in Germany?
Well, all indicates that the situation will change dramatically in the next two or three weeks
I'm tired of, that scientists predict the coming all the time perfectly
But that policy not listens to them

Wouldn't it be the task of politic
To talk to the people in an honest way
I'm no fan of Winston Churchill
But what would he say

That we have to sacrifice something in this situation
That it's a situation of pain
That our first task is now, to support and help and protect the other
By wearing a mask for instance, but also by giving another person warmth

But hey, let's be egoistic
I have only a slight risk
Others die
I wanna have fun again

Would it be a big loss
A world without humans
I cannot see it
It's sad how we waste all our possibilities

No Reopening

Got a phone call
The restaurant will not reopen
In whatever way the county will decide
Because it's still not clear if restaurants can open next Monday or not

But the numbers rise faster every day
It makes no sense to prepare everything to open for a few days
Not to talk about that it would be only outdoor dining Very nice in Germany during this season of the year

So, I will stay at home further on for an undefined time
The problems are rising numbers, the mutation, my father still not vaccinated
Let's be happy, we're still alive!
It's an unbelievable fail of policy

Tomorrow will be another day
Time to write
Time to close my eyes
Soon I should get Ms. Grant's new album

New songs to drown in
New songs to stray into
New songs to get hopelessly lost
New songs to escape to the great sunshine

Come on, come on, come on baby.....
Chemtrails

Because I always need some time with a new album
Yes, country, Joni and all the other aspects.....
White Dress, fucking white gown.....
Still dream about the door into the rose garden.....

Look at some of my tattoos lavender sunshine
ultraviolence

The stars will be visible tonight
Will observe them
Drove my father to the retirement home
To visit my mother, his wife

*****

Well, it starts to get cloudy
Can be that the sky is overcast in half an hour
Can be that the sky is bright in half an hour again
It's around half moon anyway

*****

Became better
Started with observing
But now clouds again
Will wait a time to see if it gets better again

*****

It functioned
Uploaded my observations so far
AAVSO
Then the clouds had disappeared

Now I have observed the rest of the stars at the evening sky
Later the stars at the morning sky
Now I have some time till uploading this writing
Then a short sleep and the rest of the observations

What could I do till midnight
Till uploading of the writing
More chemtrails maybe
Maybe some TV - who knows.....

Chemtrails

Because I always need some time with a new album

No

As I stood up again
It as very cloudy again
I waited for a time
But no observations in the morning sky

Chemtrails

So different and so well known
Tones you've heard before - Venice Bitch
But what's mostly wonderful
May Jailer is back, only older.....

Faster Than Normal

Normally I need longer
Sometimes much longer
But not this time
Looking at the sky and seeing the planes and their contrails

No Chemtrails Today

No Chemtrails today
But Houndstooth Radio, L.A.
Nice diverse music
(Some of) my music

Please, America

Not everything is shit in America
By far not
But no one in the world understands your lust for weapons and violence
If not now, if not with this president.....

Next time in L.A.
What I have to think in a 7-Eleven, buying me a coffee
Or sitting on the patio, Gus's Drive-In
That maybe a guy unbags a gun and starts to shoot
This makes it not very cozy to stay in the United States.....

Thursday

Distracted today
Had a phone call yesterday, with the general manager
Whatever
Too much in my head

The next album in June? - Or was it July?
Whatever
Mrs. Grant, give me some time with your latest
You write too many songs

Well, a few hundred unpublished
I'm a little bit stressed
Should have a look at the moon
Whatever

Wow TAZ!

Wow TAZ, "die tageszeitung"
With every album your critiques, reviews, become nicer
Nowadays you love Lana Del Rey
I know why I read you since decades

Not A Postmodern Masterpiece

I wrote about a certain album years ago
And asked the question
Whether this album is a postmodern masterpiece or not
And I answered the question

Chemtrails?
No postmodern masterpiece -
Or maybe all the more?
Who knows.....

Georgia's History

Oh Georgia, your peaches are rotten
From the Blue Ridge Mountains till the Atlantic
Surrounded by North and South Carolina, Florida, Alabama and Tennessee
You're the heart of racism

Once you had three governors at once
Today one fucking bloody racist
June 1967, two years after my birth, June 1965
The Supreme Court forced you to allow "intermarriage"

Reverend Doctor Martin Luther King Jr.
Is a son of your state
Hundreds - mostly sons - had been lynched by you
Not many had been more "efficient"

Once Democratic soil
Then Republican soil
Then sometimes swinging
2020.....2024.....2028.....?

Stacey Abrams
LaTosha Brown
Sometimes pressure
Results in an outburst

***

Still in peaceful dreams I see
The mountains and the sea, smell the Scent of magnolias sweet and fresh
Oh, Georgia

Just an old sweet song
I hear, sitting on the balcony, like a
Pastoral scene of the gallant South
Oh, Georgia

As moonlight through the pines
Shines on the
Strange fruit hangin' from the poplar trees
Oh, Georgia

Oh Georgia, no peace I find
Looking at pictures from plantations
Then the sudden smell of burnin' flesh
Oh Georgia, no peace I find

(Georgia On My Mind; Hoagy Carmichael / Stuart Gorell)
(Strange Fruit; Lewis Allan)

The Racist In You

For the third time, in the self-service area of my bank,
After the closing hour or as today on Sunday,
Someone was there without a mask,
A Turkish man always

Is this a racist comment?
Today it became physical
He pushed me and grabbed me
No distance, of course without a mask

It's of course not allowed to enter the self-service area without wearing a mask
Have I to tolerate this?
Reality is never simple
We're heading towards the third wave, most probably much more devastating as the second
Who cares.....

A Fucking World Awaits You

They kill children just 'cause of political reasons, in Myanmar
What a pride I feel!
Now the six doctors speak out that hundreds of thousands Americans had not to die
I wrote this shit since a year!

Is truth up for negotiation?
Is Aung San Suu Kyi an angel?
Is it so difficult to see, and to damn, greed?
Is it so difficult to point with your finger on the men?

I dissolve in pain
I lust for the void
My personal heaven would be hell
To find salvation beyond this world

As A White German Man
I could hate Jews
I could hate Niggers
I could hate women

As a White German Man
Born after the time
To hate Jews
Could I feel love?

Today the trial begins
I fear that it can end only in big disappointment
Unless you're a White Men
An Asian American man reveals his scars

*Look up here, I'm in heaven
I've got scars that can't be seen
I've got drama, can't be stolen
Everybody knows me now
(David Bowie; Lazarus)*

Where's the art of Asian Americans
Where's the art of Latinos
Is rap and some sitcoms and some comedy the (whole) art of African Americans?
Do this uncivilized Indians even know what art is?

Is Amanda Gorman "black" art
The white uncle was impressed
The nation was charmed
For whom she spoke?

She was so fucking impressive
And I feel so small
This white German dilettante
But at least he tries.....

A cut
And some blood
Tonight the stars will shine, the sun shines
What a wonderful day to die

***

I sometimes lose myself
In the devastating reality
Nearly no longer capable to dream
Even as the ears are starting to pain

A drug useless if no result
The fear that one day even the hardest drug will be no longer enough
The fear that one day the true and bitter reality will be no longer avoidable
Then the endless black nothing promises final salvation

***

Jumping from a plane
Flying many miles high
How long one can fall
As the ground comes nearer and nearer?

What a feeling it could be Seeing everything thereunder
Becomes larger and larger
Till the moment you crush?

Once I thought about
And wrote about
Sitting in a bathtub
And the water gets redder and redder

A wonderful lightness starts to comfort you
All gravity ends
Weightless in endless blackness
Like a shiny star in time and space

How many had to die yesterday
How many will have to die today
How many will have to die tomorrow
This world is a slaughterhouse, and we are the bloody slaughterers

***

Losing yourself
No halt anymore
To despair of despair
Heaven is yours!

Blank despair
Utter despair
Black despair
Surrender to despair!

Desperation carries you away
Desperation bestows you freedom
Desperation offers you peace
No desperation would reveal you as being a monster!

Let us being monsters
Laughing about the cries of the dying
What a wonderful melody
To dance the danse macabre

Let Me Be Like A God

Let me be like a god
To crush the world
To end the pain
Let me be like an angel

Megalomania
To kill the pain
Felt Adolf Hitler a lot of pain?
Or was he simply a pervert psycho?

So many questions should be asked
So many answers would be needed
But it's to fear that they wouldn't be funny
Come on, give me a kiss, honey!

I stand in a shrine of light
Invulnerable, immortal
And a world full of pestilences around it
And I'm the worst of it

How often I've regretted now
That there's no devil
Would like to sign the contract
So, we have to be our own devils

Would there be a devil, he would be proud of us
Not much more he could do
Could not pretend us more
As there would be a heaven and a hell - gods and angels

No heaven, no hell
No gods, no angels
No devil
Only us, but that's enough

Only one world
Shaped by us as perfect hell
Could it be also heaven?, the Little Child asks
What a silly thought!, God answers

The night falls in Silence begins
Nightly creatures awake
No sleep I will find

No Easy Day

No, not for me
My father will become vaccinated next week
This would be fantastic
But it's a very hard day

It's a hard day, watching TV
But what means it to them
Who has to answer questions today
Who became witness of something, like that killing

Who wakes up in night now
Asking herself
Why I didn't make more
Why I was not more demanding

Seeing a man dying
In your neighborhood
At daylight
On the street

Not because he was shot
Gang violence
Maybe drugs
But because a police officer kneeled on his neck

It's hard for me to get a clear mind
Sitting in Germany
Should he become free
Is there any example from a White man who became treated like that?

I have to stop for today
I cannot write and listen to the TV at once
But I have to hear the testimonies
But especially I wanna hear the defense attorney

Genevieve

Genevieve Hansen
Your testimony was strong and moving
As well as all the others
I liked your answers

I saw a finger, you showed the defense attorney
This defense is so ridiculous
So offending
Three bystanders called the police!?!

Yes, I know (some of the) (American) rules of court
But this is no Hollywood blockbuster
This is fucking reality
This man was no actor, he really died and will be dead forever

No one saw this mainly black mob on the sidewalk, the defense talks about
But the video shows you a black man dying
But the video shows you a white man, and it appears to me that he liked what he's doing
All alone the possibility is devastating!

"I don't know if you've seen anyone get killed but it's upsetting."

"Absolutely. That's why it's a good thing we have video."

Looking forward to further statements from Genevieve Hansen, and other eyewitnesses
Of course, from a certain point on this will become a very technical (medical) trial.....

Footnote:

Do I be a little bit biased because Genevieve Hansen looks a little bit alike a certain Mrs. G.? Never ever!

The Other Man

Following the trial so far - lunchbreak

I ask myself

Shouldn't they question this other guy

The one together with George Floyd

The one who tried to pay with the questionable note before in the morning

The one who argued in the car

Could it be,

That George Floyd was only the "good-natured" guy at the wrong place?

If, then this would make a worse matter only even worse

Teenagers

It's hard to hear them

Talking about "George"

Feeling the pain inside them

Questioning themselves

Why I have not acted differently?

What should I have done differently?

The feeling of powerlessness

Seeing the face of an apparently content white police officer while a man dies under his knee

I would have freaked out, would I had to witness this

Fear

An African American man tries to hide that he records (white) police officers

Because he fears to run into trouble by doing so

What does this tell you about the state of this nation

It's frightening to hear that!

Forgotten - Summertime!

Summertime, the cotton.....
We have summertime in Germany now
UTC+2 hours now
Uploading time still midnight local time, so one hour later as before

An Old Man

An old man testifies
An African American man
He always says, answering the question of the female lawyer
"Yes, ma'am" or "No, ma'am"

I felt like Gone with the Wind
Did he feel ashamed to say that he was the man in the shorts and tee?
I had the feeling that he did
Another "black" man stopped recording because a white police officer fixated him

I think that these stories tell you so much more than everything else
The black mob that the defense saw on the pavement
The black mob that threatened the white police officer
Disturbed him while killing a black man

And even it would have been a kind of accident, that he collapsed, his heart maybe
Kneeling for minutes on the neck of a motionless man
Even as the ambulance arrived
No second interested in the man, no longer moving, no longer shouting, no longer begging

No longer breathing

Counterfeit Money

More and more I've the feeling that the man in the red pants is a key element
That George Floyd is in that sense only a side figure
But we should not forget
Why this trial happens

It's not about the man in the red pants
It's not about counterfeit money
It's not about a possible misbehavior of George Floyd
It's about a knee on a neck

Visited

I visited my mother in the retirement home today
My knee hurts since two days or so
Now back at home
Listening to the voice in TV
Feel not really good

Thoughts About Elections

Smerconish
And his comments on the new Georgia election laws
I would have only one question for him
Apart from the fucking lie about voter fraud

Why elections become all the time such a mess in the United States of America?

Waiting for hours in lines - not in Germany!
Why not opening more polling stations?
Problems with voter registration?
Every eligible voter in Germany gets an invitation, with the possibility to apply for voting by mail -
It all can be so easy, Mr. Smerconish!

A Father's Birthday

Today is my father's birthday
In around two months mine
He's thirty years older than I
Thoughts in my head

Plan to travel to Portugal again, at the end of the year
Two weeks as the last time
Asked him if he wants to come with me
He said yes

Two weeks with my father in Portugal
He loves fishing
He loves fish and everything from the sea
Cannot remember that I would have spent such a long time together with my father

Well, vacation in my youth maybe
But the whole family
Not only together with him
Look forward, could be a good thing

*

Another strange day
Everything very unsettled at the moment
The day after tomorrow the next meeting on the job
All burdensome

Know some very nice restaurants in Matosinhos
And some nice other places
And of course, Porto
Would be a nice thought

April 19

I heard President Biden's words
We get lost in details in Germany
Never thought that the situation in Germany could as bad as in the USA
Now it's more the question:

When will the situation in Germany be worse than in the USA?
Never thought that I could consider this question
Portugal had an incidence of nearly nine hundred at the end of January
Today under thirty!

Looks not good for the German national identity
Not like the Germans wanna to be seen in the World
But German politicians are not willing to pass regulation
That would compel real restrictions from Germans

So, I wanna get elected or reelected
So, not demand too much
So, not be consistent
So, let's see whom the Green Party and the CDU / CSU will nominate

At the end of the year we will have a new chancellor
No longer Angela
Very rarely the one I voted for won
Well,.....

Meeting

A meeting at my workplace
This morning
The developments make no sense to me
I will see what alternatives I have

I will start with some applications from tomorrow on
Let's see what they will yield
I have nothing to lose
It can only yield a better alternative

And because the restaurant will not open so fast
I have time to see what will happen there
Time to take some time to reflect about some topics
It could be all so easy

Hard To Watch

Hard to watch, looking in the face of a person who takes his last breath
Too much dying at the moment again
Too much unnecessary dying
Bad that we cannot behave better

*

My head aches, what idiots we are
The Americans with their gun laws
The Germans with their speed limit
The Brazilians with their corona policy

It's the underlying structure
That causes pain
How easy one can manipulate humans
How crazy humans can act - I'm German

*

The Chauvin case
Do slower speed makes accidents less severe
Do more guns make a society more save
The corona pandemic

Why not listening to the fucking scientists at least once?

Already fifty years ago they have warned of the human caused climate change
Hey, human caused climate change is here, what a surprise!
We're such fucking assholes
One is for sure, the universe would not miss us!

*

I do not feel good
I'm awfully tired
Cannot think
It's all so disappointing

I should try to sleep longer tonight
Or maybe not so long
I need an impulse
I need a spark

*I'm getting desperate
Desperate for a revolution
Some kind of spark
Some kind of connection
In these dangerous days
Come a little bit closer
I need to understand
(Garbage; Even Though Our Love is Doomed)*

Well Doing CNN

Okay, the death of Prince Philip is something for the news
But for hours?
Wasn't the something about a certain trial?
Or a new shooting again?

Fucking job CNN!
Hope for you that Meghan will have a new interview soon!
It's always important to set priorities!
Thank you, for seeing yours!

Good to have live streams on YouTube.....

It Ain't Acceptable

Do not call it acceptable
Nor normal
Neither okay so far
It's simply unacceptable, devastating, a shame

At least as long as assumed
That it could be different
Not, it's what it is

Could it be better
Why then it isn't Development
Hard to tell

The USA On The Brink?

Every day new questions about police violence
Where are the videos showing white people
Asian Americans, Latinos
I see many white police officers

And the Chauvin case
Not makes it better
And the mass shootings either
Nevertheless, I would like to open my closed eyes to see the ocean

The Ferris wheel
The beach
The pier
The merry-go-round

*

Why all this police actions are always that chaotic?
Is it not possible for the USA to educate their police personal properly?
I thought about to rent a car the next time in L.A.
To drive over the hills into the desert

But hey, I'm white
And I know that they tell you
Hands on the steering wheel and telling the officer that you're a tourist
That this is a rented car

But to be honest
Would I drive a car in L.A., especially by night
And the police would pull me over
I would get panic

And I'm a fucking white from Europe

*

The world sees it and not understands it -
Or is it simply that "niggers" are outlaws?
I've the feeling that it's a combination of both Inability in combination with racism

But that makes it only worse

*

This all is very disturbing
I've the feeling that I will be never again there
And even if
It will be never the same again

The cup of fine tea on my way to the Inglewood Park Cemetery
The patio and food truck 3rd Street
My life-long membership of the internet café in Koreatown
The pedestrian area in Santa Monica

My morning routine
L.A. Times, triple Americano and Caesars Salad with bananas and strawberries on top Union Station - the wonderful hall
Café Crêpe

It will be never the same again - if at all

I'm Simply Baffled

I'm simply baffled
I cannot stop following the Chauvin case
What does the defense makes
What a fucking job they are doing

If this man comes free
This will end in an explosion
I cannot expect
That the American society would be able to bear this
That the African American community could bear this

*

Sure, one juror would be enough
But we have to talk about what signal this would send to the African American community
Would send throughout the world
Maybe the idea of jurors is not the best?

It's hard for me to follow this trial
As an African American in the United States
I'm a white German, living in Germany
It's hard at the moment to imagine my feelings the next time in the USA

*

I do not feel good
I'm concerned
If this was a movie you would know
The climax is near

Next week most probably
It depends on how fast the jury is
The next police officer charged with a crime now
Could this become a game changer in a positive way

Everything on the stake now
As in November
One time the outcome was the best you could hope for the moment
The second time?

That's It!

I cannot believe it -
That had been the defense?
I'm baffled -
If this man comes free I would be shocked!

Monday the closing arguments
I'm totally speechless
I'm done
I feel empty

A German George Floyd?

A nineteen-year-old migrant dies after getting arrested by the police
In Germany
Many similarities to the George Floyd case
But also differences

But also in Germany, the police could be more cooperative, more open
Dyspnea also in Germany - reasons unexplained
It will be interesting to see
In what a way this will develop, in Germany

No Lazy Day

A fucking useless day
I find no way to write
I feel paralyzed
My mind is empty

9:38 pm
Have deleted all I tried to write
It makes no sense today
Have to get a grip on myself

My father will get his first injection on Wednesday
A very important step
Numbers in Germany are rising
Politicians are talking

*

11:33 pm
It had been difficult to kill the time today
Exhausting
But soon the day is gone

I'm totally distracted
Two times I've forgotten to bid on an item today
Both have been sold to a low price
But it doesn't nerve me

I feel dead
Soon I can go to bed
Tomorrow my car will get new MOT
I have to drive the car in the morning to the car shop

I lose weight
I sleep good, dream a lot
When I had been able to fall asleep
In the morning I feel recovered, after a few hours of sleep

But today had been a disaster
I'm confused
I fear the next week
I've the feeling that in the USA as well as in Germany no good developments happen

I hope that some decisions will be made
I hope that I feel better tomorrow
It's 11:43 pm now
It will be better to stop

First Decision Of The Week

Annalena Baerbock, candidate for the chancellorship of the Green Party
A good beginning of the week
The disaster of the conservative CDU/CSU?
Söder will become their candidate, he's a scruples power politician

Scholz, Baerbock and Söder
Could become an interesting time
Who will become our new chancellor?
I'm not that good at predicting elections

I know that the Scandinavian countries (apart from Sweden)
New Zealand
Some Asian countries
Are very lucky with their young female presidents, PMs.....

I would like it
Would a woman follow a woman
The woman from the conservatives goes
The woman from the Green Party comes

Seems not as this would be a bad change
Söder is an opportunist
Scholz seems to be without any chance
I would like it

But at the moment our major problem is the pandemic
And neither the CDU/CSU nor the SPD acts very masterful
They act like paralyzed since October/November
No longer as the months before

A good beginning of the week
Later the closing arguments
Feel somewhat better today
But still disorientated in a way

Had To Concentrate

Had to concentrate on the Chauvin case
Could not concentrate on writing
Only some (not finished) writing
Let's see what tomorrow will yield

But it was more important to watch the trial today
It was very emotional
My verdict
Guilty in any respect

*

And now?

My first hope would be that the jury would not need too long
I think it would become very difficult if it needed more than some days
During this week would be fantastic

Maybe also during next week
But then it would become very difficult
At least for me - what a stupid thought!
Is there a time limit?

Maybe I will have a look later
Now take a deep breath
11:28 pm
Was a moving day today

*

I assume that I will not find sleep fast
If any
It feels like the world has changed within the last year or so
Or is it only being awarer of some matters?

I've the feeling that some changes happened
The last days, weeks maybe
I've only no real possibility at the moment to implement them
I feel hounded, disorientated

Insecure
Puzzled
Like in a certain kind of movie
When your body starts to transform

Maybe it would be better to go to bed
Still the question stands: Laschet or Söder
Not my party
Would like it, to see them in opposition at the end of the year

Laschet

Well, Laschet is the conservative candidate for chancellor
As said, I'm no good prophet for political matters
Maybe I'm no good prophet at all
Maybe I should become a prophet with my own cult

Job Application

I applied for a new job
That would be crazy
That would change my whole life
But I fear that I have no real chances

The stars so far away.....

There's Something Is Wrong

Not good today either
Had some problems with the PC
Use the laptop now
I feel exhausted

I've made a mistake with the last days writing
I have to delete some of the writing
I have to continue differently
But not today

What if it functions
The job application
I need a shower
It seems to be a clear night

I think I should observe
Tomorrow I have to rewrite the last days
Sunday till Wednesday
This will be my task tomorrow

I feel disorientated

After The Shower

In a way better
But something isn't okay
Still not sure if observing will make sense
9:43 pm

Looks good
But some light clouds
But they are very difficult to spot at night
It's very dangerous to observe under such circumstances

Definitely no further writing
"Living In Historic Times"
Have to rethink the writing
Should start with a shower tomorrow

It will be no problem to "summarize" the last days
The Chauvin case should specify the pace of the writing
The outcome has to determine the writing
Not getting too fictional

Will Observe

I've decided to observe
Will do me good
A bank of clouds at the horizon
Can become the end of observing

But at the moment a stable situation
I should try it therefore
I will not write anything anyway
Right at the moment I see that the jury has found a verdict

Anyway, no writing today
Tomorrow I have to see what I have to change
I feel stressed
The stars will help

Verdict

11:05 pm
Have done my observations so far
Now I have to wait a few hours till I can continue
The verdict every minute

*

Now it happens
Yes
Yes
Yes

I had my doubts
But this is so important
I've tears in my eyes
Now I can continue with writing tomorrow

This defense had been so ridiculous
It would have been a scandal would he could have leave as a free man
All three charges
That's so important!

Now policy has to act
I hope that this will not lead to a disappointment
That policy will not draw consequences
It's not on me to comment this further on

It's time to listen to

Dangerous

A new incident
In Ohio
I've seen the video
I saw a woman with a knife attacking another wife

Yes, also this incident has to be investigated
But the danger is that some see no difference between this incident and George Floyd
Many different cases at the moment
This is a very important time

Vaccinated

My father is back from his first vaccination
A major step
Now we have to see if he will have some side effects
The next vaccination in around four weeks

Back Again

I think that I found my way back again
It had been an emotional day
Would have been better to write it "on time"
But better as nothing

I feel relieved now
The verdict
The vaccination
The job application

I've the feeling that I can start anew
Tomorrow
I feel light, still somewhat tired, but light
I close my eyes and hover like a feather in the wind

Better

Tired
Some hours very much
Sometimes somewhat better
Problems with concentration

Much could happen
Less will happen
Will happen anything at all
Stupid thoughts

Hope that it will get better with the time
At the moment it's not so much a problem
Will I have to work again one day or other
I've the feeling that this status could last forever

I should begin with something new

Better?

Tried to be in bed as long and often as possible today
Was no bad decision
Still tired
But feels somewhat better

Tired but not exhausted
Today shopping, tomorrow I should mow the lawn
But some hours in the bed at afternoon
Shouldn't be no bad idea either

Better

After the lawn mowing I had to lay down for a while
Had cooked lunch
But after standing up again I did not feel that down, as the days before
That was positive

But still tired
Still problems with concentration
Definitively I feel not well
But better

I hope that the next days the upwards trend will continue
Tomorrow I have to concentrate on "Living In Historic Times"
Living in the United States
Fine as a white

Many thoughts are occupying my mind.....

Not Much Better

Not much better
But not worse
I hope that I can stabilize over the next week
I've headache

The sun shines
Clear blue sky
Near full moon or so
I need sleep

Much Better Today

Feel better
Did some gardening together with my father
Feel more "awake"
Not so down

But still this tiredness
Some headache
But definitely an upwards trend
Hope this continues

7:39 pm
Should become a clear night
Would observe my variable stars
Well, the moon interferes, but nevertheless, it's nice to observe

Every day more confusing news from the States
The next incident - ten shots?
Soon details about the camera footage?
Now a shot in the head?

Take a deep breath, let's see what the next hours will yield, the next days, weeks.....

I Feel Better

I feel better
But that makes it not better
My stomach not likes me
All is in question

Would be good to get feedback
The job application
Cannot imagine that it could be successful
But feedback would be good

Fifty-six soon
Nine years till retirement - planned with sixty-five
My father is over eighty now
And still fit

I've no idea about the next years
Waiting till they are gone
Then beginning with something new Hoping that it would be not too late

Doing something crazy
Maybe I should
Doing nothing anymore
Maybe I should

So far gone, but still so far away
Days moving by
I've the feeling doing much wrong
I feel insecure

*

Around the world
What happens in India at the moment
Have we forgotten Brazil
Cuomo, everything okay again?

I need a time-out
I'm not satisfied
I need the ocean
I have to hear the waves

*

I'm annoyed
I'm stressed
I'm disappointed
I should decide nothing today

Much better condition
But I've the felling that I should have some days off
Stupid time that makes many more difficult
I should try to stay cool

*

I feel like dropped out of time
Even more than normally
I feel disorientated
Maybe I should stop pondering

Looks good for tonight
Yesterday it became hazy
With the moonlight this is bad for observing
Maybe it's better later

I've headache
It feels as everything would slip away
It would be a relief to know to be the last of the humans
It would make dying very easy

Can this story have a happy ending
The story of the human beings
It seems nearly absurd to think so
Or one had to assume that this would be a silly Hollywood movie

Whatever
That's for today
I have to stop
I've lost orientation totally

Questions

What to do with your life
This only life you have
To reach a goal, to create something
To bequeath something

As long as the AAVSO database will exist
My name will not be forgotten
Several stars I have observed over a long time now, constantly
And maybe I will have some more years

For many only my observations exist (in the AAVSO database)
Should one be interested in carbon stars or SRC / LC stars than this person will find my name soon
Should this give me calm
You can find my name on the webpage of the Robert-Mayer-Sternwarte in Heilbronn

History of the observatory
I'm a part of the history of the observatory
Should this gives me calm
What to do with your life

*

What if having problems with this humans
Seeing what happens in the world
Only to talk about the pandemic
"Leaders" like Bolsonaro, Johnson, or Modi

The behavior of anti-vaxxers
All this conspiracy theories, lies
Life can be so easy
We Germans knew it all the time: The fucking Jews are guilty of everything!

Calmness as the goal for life
But what's with consumption
The economy has to grow
I'm fucking sick of all this shit

*

Back to normal
The normal was shit
And we humans

Kubicki

You're such an arrogant dumbass
Fuck you!
People like you kill people
Sorry FDP, the GDP grew only by 0.8% in the first three months of 2021

Inmidst of a global pandemic

For the year 2021 still 3.1% are projected
The German companies even have not to test their workers
The FDP, you Mr. Kubicki, opposes this totally Testing their employees would be so bad for them

*

Germany, we're always the best!

Naked

Define an aim
Or maybe not only one
I've heard the war was over if you really choose - something like that?
Ride? - So, I just ride.....

01/01/2022 less than 176lb
If only somewhat consistent, this should be possible
But then it starts to become more difficult
COVID-19 makes it difficult to plan

At the end of the year in Portugal
Together with my father
February 2022 in the USA, L.A. most probably again
But this is still vague - who knows what the situation will be

Whatever, these two travels are planned
I have to wait what will be possible in what a way
Still some time till I have to book something
But I have to travel again

Job application - number one wish
The job I have - if the job application fails, then I have to have a meeting, imposing some demands
Maybe I will need a new job then
Then I should be aware of, that much would be possible

Writing
Has to get better
I'm not really sure
I wanna become famous

I'm nearly fifty-six now
My father is eighty-five now
Would I become famous with sixty-five
Twenty years of fame would be okay

The next nine years I have to work on becoming famous
Till my retirement
Till I move to Portugal or maybe the States
Till I can see one of the oceans every day, till I can concentrate on writing

The way I work on my new observation program is good
A few stars I will no longer observe
A few stars will be new
But most of them will stay

I have started two new collections
But I continue with them, I've collected so far
Twenty or so more years of observing
Twenty or so more years of collecting

*

It's time to set some deadlines
01/01/2022 for instance
06/13/2030 of course
This "Jesus thing"

You have to be your own Jesus
Who else should deliver you from your useless doing
I have to be stricter with my time management
Calmness should be an aim

Calmness not equals weakness
Calmness equals strength?
I have to bring in some automatism
If, then - If not, then

*

No clothes left
Feel some energy emerging
One and a half months left to ponder about some topics

I have to set deadlines

05/01/2021

Still this tiredness
Still my stomach not loves me really
But my mind bears ideas again
I have to use the rest of 2021 to prepare for 2022

I wanna die, I wanna fly
I wanna dive into the ocean
Nine years
Fifty-six are gone

The 20s
My decade to figure out my skills
The 30s
My decade to use them

I'm not the best observer
Every so often I make mistakes - inaccuracies
But many of my stars are difficult to observe
Often I reach an excellent accuracy

My curves a somewhat "edgy"
Maybe my writing can become edgy?
But a decade long or more, than they look gorgeous
I'm starting with the second half of the first decade of my writing.....

An Accidental Accident

"Come in, sweetheart. - I have to say that you're looking even like this very hot."

"Thanks, Peter - I can call you Peter?"

"Of course, sweetheart."

"Give me a few minutes in the bathroom, Peter. Then you will know how hot I can be."

She walked to the bathroom, and I had a boner already. Yeah, this service agency one could only recommend. And now I awaited her while laying on the bed, dressed like I had wished, made up like I had wished. The rest fitted in any case - young, petite, soft tits, long blond hair, she looked perfect, could not await to see her in red lingerie, red heels, made up like a whore, like a fucking teen whore. The door opened, I had dimmed the light, she appeared like an imaginary idealized icon.

"Come to me, sweetheart, I call you Tiffany."

"Is this the name of your daughter?"

"Do you think we should play father and daughter?"

"If you like."

"Well, in my age it would be more likely that you would be my granddaughter."

"I can be also your granddaughter, if you like."

"Lay aside away your small bag, you don't need it, you look so fucking slutty also without it."

"I don't need it, only what's inside."

"Handcuffs or so? I could imagine that I would like it, to handcuff you, sweetheart."

"You wanna see what's inside? It's for pleasure."

"Please no dildo or so, I have everything you need. And now come to me, I've paid a fucking lot of money to fuck you and have fun with you, but not for talking with you."

"Sorry, Peter. It will bestow me a lot of pleasure."

With these words she unbagged a.....

"Wow, wow, wow, baby. Put away this toy, this is nothing for young chicks like you."

"Why? It's okay for a young chick like me to get fucked by an old fart like you, fulfill your fucking pervert "wishes", but it's not okay for me to have a gun, I like it."

"Hey baby, you cannot vote, officially you cannot drink alcohol, but you're allowed to have sex. And can you tell me why it should be allowed that a seventeen-year-old boy can fuck you, but not an experienced man like me? That's stupid, isn't it? And now put away the gun and come to me. If you like, we can talk."

"Sure, we can talk, many pervert swines like you talked with me since I'm thirteen!"

"You're the fucking bitch, or? You offered me your pussy and I bought it, it's time to give you a lesson....."

She pulled the trigger.

*

"How often I have to say it, officer?"

"As often I wanna hear it. Maybe it would be better to tell me something I could believe?"

"I had really no idea that she was, in fact, fifteen. I had ordered a young-looking whore - hey, some are looking pretty young."

"Some are pretty young."

"Come on, you never have seen one of this Japanese porn starlets? They are looking like ten or twelve but are not even teenagers anymore."

"Why you're not telling us where you "ordered" your whore?"

"Someone gave me a number, he said that it would be totally legal, but the bitches would look fucking young."

"But you cannot find the number anymore?"

"No, but I don't think that this is a crime."

"But leaving and letting her die in any case."

"I was in panic, and I thought that she would be dead. I would have made an emergency call after leaving the hotel."

"Sure, sadly you couldn't."

"Can you tell me why there were police officers in the hotel that fast?"

"You don't implicate that it had been a trap or so? I mean, the girl is dead."

"I'm only surprised that they were so fast."

"The "front desk lady" heard the shot, she immediately alarmed the police. A police patrol was very near the hotel, so they arrived nearly immediately. That's all - why you tried to piss off, Mr. Maurer?"

"Hey, I've a reputation to lose, I'm not unknown in public. I was not interested in the negative publicity."

"That you like underage girls?"

"I'd no idea about, that she was, in fact, an underage whore!"

"No, but you like them at least young looking.....?"

"What's not illegal....."

"No, as not illegal as it is to waste some thoughts about, why young girls make porn movies or offer themselves."

"Well, not every girl in the city can become a big Hollywood star. Cheep money, easier than to have a nine-to-five job - I work every week much more than forty hours."

"It's not so relevant for you that a fifteen-year-old young woman is dead now?"

"I not killed her, she killed herself. If you cannot bear the city, you should not stay in the city. Maybe she should have been a little bit more patient, the city gives everybody who tries hard enough a chance. As said, it's a hard city, but also a place to fulfill your dreams. It's on you to catch the butterfly."

Day Two

Feel better
Still tired
Still headache
But many images and words in my mind

The next week
Will I get feedback
Job application
A job interview would be cool

Take a deep breath
The line points upwards
The beginning of a new month
Much more I will know at the end of it

Day Four

Was tired as I stood up
Could not sleep
"Watched" CNN
Zapped around

But I've the feeling to be on the right way
Still no feedback
Job application
I have to be patient

With me

Throat

A bitter taste in the mouth,
A lump in the throat,
Confusing thoughts in the mind,
Take a deep breath and let loose.....

Fallin'
The beautiful bridge -
That with the rusty towers, or
That with the beautiful lights?

Flyin'
Like the free bird in the sky -
A kestrel hunting the prey, or
A condor hovering miles high?

Crashin'
Like a stone not able to fly -
The water, or
The concrete floor?

Dyin'
The Isle of Elysium, or
The Garden of Eden, or
The Darkness of Nirvana?

Livin'
No isle can abolish all the memories.
No garden can obliterate all the memories.
The darkness can extinguish all the memories.

A candle in the endlessness of darkness,
A flickering light,
A candle that has to be extinguished, to Create the perfect darkness.

Take a deep breath and learn to fly.....

Fist

A fist in the air
Resistance
Not accepting Rebellion

The bad word is: Riot!

Riot
Can mean a lot
But not inside, internal Outside, external

The good phrase is: Take a stand!

Show your colors
Mine are dark
Deep inside they're bright
But not outside

The good thought is: Break loose!

Self-confidence
Knowing one's strength
Proudness
Knowing one's value

The bad reality: How to win the war?

Come back to California
Sit in the sand, the Ferris wheel at your side
See the sun setting
Close your eyes and take a deep breath

*

Uprisin'
It's on you
No one can help you
You have to do it by your own

No one who knows you now
No one who could hold you now
No golden chariots
No Cleopatra

Dyin'
Sorry, but it's a reason
Don't you wanna?
Well,.....

No Longer

Well, I'm smiling
Like a sudden sense of liberty - True Faith
A moment of calm
While waiting for the morning sun

Trust
And wait for the good end
Day by day
Till the last note has died away

2:11 am
I can no longer sleep at night
Because the night-time is almost ours? - Oh Can You See RATM
The voice of Nirvana?

Sick and tired
Dazed and Confused
I've no idea anymore of anything
Better off?

Feeling

I've the feeling
That this was a good day
Exhausted during a longer time
But at the end I could write something

Tomorrow I will visit my mother
This tiredness is still a problem
Let's see
Day six was not bad over all

Old

Writing
Is important for me
But I've feeling that
It will be much more important in future years

Sitting
And looking at the ocean
It will give me a task
An aim

Hoping
Getting old
But that's not the question
Looking at the ocean while writing

Dog-tired

Have observed my stars last night
Functioned good, satisfying
Did thirty-six observations
Have sorted out the next three stars today

I have to shorten my observation program somewhat
And I would know so many stars I would like to observe as well
Still no feedback from the job application
Thirty stars would be enough

I've cooked a lot today
Lunch of course
Marinated pot roast, sauerbraten
Boiled beef, two kinds (knuckle meat and belly), a broth of course

The sauerbraten is for tomorrow
My father will be at the dentist on Monday
And will have a few days some problems with eating
We will see

After all of this I had to rest
And always I get more tired when I try to rest
It's difficult not to fall asleep
Sitting at the PC

I should have a shower.....

Strange

Strange, feel much better today
Day nine
Still some tiredness
Even some headache

But I feel in a way relieved
Sunny and warm today
I've opened everything
I had been so exhausted yesterday

I've some hope that till the end of the month it could be good again
But I have to see
At least some progress

Ten

Tiredness
Headache
Still

But on Sunday something has happened

It feels different
Not good
But in a way better
Maybe a good sign

Needed very long to fall asleep
Slept for some hours during the afternoon
Now the day is nearly over
But I see an upwards trend

Phone Call

Had a phone call in the morning
My doctor
About vaccination
Two vaccines are for everyone now

Most probably Johnson & Johnson
I'm (nearly) fifty-six
Recommended for people over sixty
But also for younger people approved

Some difficulties had accrued
Nearly all younger women
And I have to say, would I be a woman around thirty
I would not do it

Maybe next week
Or the week thereafter
Because only one vaccination is needed
I would be even faster fully vaccinated than my father!

A strange feeling
After all these months
Would be no problem than to travel to Portugal at the end of the year
Feels good!

Something came up.....

After two months
After the first parcel got lost
I received the parcel today
My parcel from the UK

I've started a new collection
Only some old catalogs were available
With only limited information about my special interest Till.....

Till I discovered randomly that a collector has published a catalog of this special topic
Three volumes, over four kilograms
But in the UK
I ordered them

The first lost
The second I got today
After two months
Had to pay a high custom fee - the UK no longer a member of the EU

High custom fees for books
Very clever
But now I have them
Now I can work on my collection on a very different level

I have to rearrange it
Of course, I've started therewith immediately
Should I write something today
"Living In Historic Times"?

Nope, today is collection-day
I will need at least a week or so till I have rearranged all
But it's very fascinating
Liz Cheney, Israel, "Peter's fate".....?

It all has time till tomorrow
The day today I will spend with my new collection
Tomorrow I will continue writing
I feel better with every day

Yesterday the vaccination call
Today the catalog
Tomorrow the job application?
Well, would be cool, but.....

Thursday

Holiday today in Germany
Feel better and better
Still some tiredness
Slight headache

But at least some punch again
Would be cool would this continue
I will do my best
Let's see

An Excellent Decision

It was an excellent decision
To begin with "The German-American Friendship"
I have two pairs now
This gives me a lot of flexibility

"The German-American Friendship" - is to express my thoughts regarding the daily developments
"Living In Historic Times" - is to set all into an extended literary framework
"History Will Be Written" and "Tomorrow's History - Today's Deeds"
Is to give me space for all the rest

It seems as that this assignment is very useful

Friday

No long writing today
Slept not much this night
Seems as I could observe my stars later
Would be nice to do so

The next days the weather will be bad
As the last days
Tired, slight headache
Lost a bit of weight

At the end of this week
Much better as at the end of last week
One or two more weeks that way
And it would be much better again

The numbers still high in my region
No reopening of restaurants near
At least if the decline of the numbers
Not speeds up

All in all, the last days had been positive
I've the feeling that it stabilizes
I've the feeling of progress
Let's see

Clouds

It became cloudy again
No observations
But that's okay
Lay down for a while

Was good
I need some sleep
I will bid on an item now
Then the upload

Early to bed today
Maybe I can find sleep
Would be good to sleep some hours more this night
But I've a good feeling

Nice

Did some hours of gardening today
Improved the place where my bonsai are standing
Looks much nicer now
Not ready finally, but much better

Let's do some writing as well
Slept somewhat better that night
Tomorrow, Sunday, should be a day of writing
I should try to continue with "Tomorrow's History - Today's Deeds"

Muddled

A somewhat muddled day
Had some other plans
But all in all, at least some productive moments
For around three or four hours exhausted

Nevertheless
Better as last Sunday
The next two or three weeks will be important
More and more I feel a long missed feeling

Motivation
More and more I feel motivated
To do something

I still cannot preserve this feeling for twenty-four hours
But longer and longer
More and more often
Maybe.....

All In All

All in all a good day
A not bad morning
Now at the end of the day some headache
But not much tired

In the afternoon I had been tired
Hope that this week some will happen
Job application?
Vaccination?

Let's see.....

Tuesday

Nothing special has happened so far this week
But I feel definitively better as two days ago
Had a shower
Still some tiredness and headache

The next days will become interesting
The numbers fall, in the county slower than in the German average
But the time seems to come nearer
To start with some normality again

Not sure, but I've the feeling that much will be different
In a year from now
And I do not mean the pandemic
I mean my person

Upwards Trend

I think now it's definitive
There's an upwards trend
Got feedback
Regarding the job application

I'm no longer in the race
Was on the short list
I've written an email
That we have to have a conversation at my workplace

I do not exclude to stay
Otherwise I would not have to have a conversation there
But I do definitively not exclude to leave
If nothing positive will be put on the table

I feel better
Still the pandemic limits me
In not only one regard
But I feel the old.....

*Not all those who wander are lost
It's just wanderlust

"Free City of Jerusalem"

Last night I had a dream - or was it a fixed idea, a delusion? Both, the Israelis and the Palestinians did something that shocked the other side, and the world.

The Palestinians said, that they would give up Gaza, all Palestinians should live from now on in one area. Their demand, an own nation.

Right at the same moment the Israelis said, that they would stop all settlements projects, all existing settlements would get abandoned, all Israelis should live in Israel, the Palestinians should get an own nation for their own.

To find a solution for an exact boundary line was easy now, only Jerusalem became a problem. But they found a solution also for this. Jerusalem became not a part of Israel, but of Palestine neither! Jerusalem became a free city, the "Free City of Jerusalem", somewhat like Washington DC, or the "Free City of Gdańsk" - I woke up!

Always I thought, what a stupid idea, when looking at the map Gaza made no sense for me. Two countries and a divided Jerusalem, like the divided Berlin, what a nonsense! The settlement policy of Israel a bloody nonsense, made no sense and costed blood. Every so often I thought, it could be so easy, but then I became "realistic" again - Iran, Russia, Saudi Arabia.....Sunnis, Shias.....Jews, Christians.....China, Europe, the USA.....stupid dreams and thoughts, but wouldn't have it not some charm?

Waited

Waited for a phone call today
Talk at the workplace next Wednesday
Some writing
Shopping and some more

Tomorrow some gardening
The place for the bonsai is finished now
"Living In Historic Times" tomorrow
Some headache, but not truly tired

All in all, I feel better with every day
CNN reports that there will be a ceasefire soon
Is my writing from today really that stupid?
Why being interested in those who senselessly died

Drowned in the Mediterranean for instance today

No Longer?

Not much tired today
Positive thinking?
Would be nice, if
Let's see

A Good Day?

Cooked - asparagus
Gardening - mowed the lawn
First time Zoom - two hours astronomy, AAVSO, till recently
Nothing written so far

Tomorrow some socializing
Felt only slightly tired today
But now I've headache
Think I should not try to write anything

It's planned to open the restaurant again
Next month on fifth
Will depend on the numbers
I start to plan for the time then

But next week the conversation
Let's see what this will yield
Not so optimistic about
Nine years till retirement and becoming famous

See a lot I could do
I will have some demands next week
Then we will see
At the moment positivity predominates, take a deep breath and.....

Seems As

Seems as it would be a clear night
Since a somewhat longer time now
Would be nice
Even if the moon will interfere

Have written some today
More tired as the last days
But look forward to observe
Even if this means to miss the last day of sumo

Bad, very interesting situation
But to see the stars would be a very fine end of this day
And a nice beginning of the next
Maybe I can find it on YouTube

Still a positive feeling
Wednesday, the conversation will be important
I should see clearer after that
But now the final preparation for observation

Short

Short writing today only
Observed several hours
Had to stop for a while
Till some stars had a better position

Could even see some sumo
The end of the last day
Ice hockey of course at the moment
A lazy day today

Tomorrow I will continue
The next day Wednesday
Will see what the conversation will yield
Then we can look ahead

Tuesday

More tired today
Slept in the afternoon
"Cooked" a bit
Tomorrow the meeting at my workplace

Then we will see clearer
I hope so
A cozy evening
To bed early?

All in all, I see the developments positive
No phone call unfortunately so far
Because of a vaccination
Well, Germany has still not enough vaccine

But it does not develop so bad
In the USA the vaccination pace slows down, problems with the willingness to get vaccinated
This seems to be better in Germany
And Germany starts to outperform the USA

Let's see.....

Talks

It's good to talk
New information
But sometimes new information only leads to even more uncertainty
Quite a lot of thoughts in my mind

I need the rest of the day to sort out my thoughts
I think I should make two phone calls tomorrow
One related to cooking, one related to sale
Will not continue with "Living In Historic Times" or "Tomorrow's History - Today's Deeds" today

Tomorrow will be enough time for it
Listened to nice music while driving to and from the workplace
The new album by Morcheeba
Soon a new one by Garbage and another by E. W. Grant again

All this nice music
Much is nice at the moment
Feel dizzy
Maybe I should fall asleep

Not slept at all the night
Too much in mind
Half asleep sometimes
Intense dreaming

Why not falling asleep
And sliding into a different world
And never coming back
It could be all so easy

Blackest Blue

Well, to interpret a song
The Lyrics
You shouldn't do that
Even if the artist says something about it

But
*The waves awoke emotive emotions
Whilst resisting this urge to Breathe as I'm swimming down
Free when I'm sinking down*

But
When you're singing
*Don't look up, don't look down
I might drown into you*
What you wanna tell me then

Back to the roots
Not only my first thought
This mellifluous voice
Like a Siren waiting for you

The wonderful slow rhythms
Like waves at the ocean-side
A calm absolutely flawless flat surface
The deadly drifts are awaiting you underneath

*

I will be in you one day, again
No return
I will dissolve in you
All this senseless dying

My heart hurts
My mind cannot understand
I will be in you one day, again
Will be dissolved

Not Today

Not today
No writing today
Was on the road for some time
Did very meaningful things on the Internet for hours

Killed time
But my mind worked nevertheless
No decisions, no phone calls
But I feel that I can only win

In a few years I will be famous
Will live at the small or large ocean
Nine years till then
Who's interested in the way I earn my money till I'm famous in the end

Seriously
I've done a lot today
Some gardening tomorrow
Then I will write

I've many opportunities
I can lean back and see what happens
To start with some action will be no mistake
Just to see alternatives

I feel perfect this evening
Losing weight has not functioned as hoped
But it would be easier would I work
Maybe soon again

I've the feeling like all bases would be loaded
Like I would wait for the next pitch
Give me a curveball if you like
I have not to hit

I can wait for the next
Or the following
I can wait
One ball I will hit

Okay, these are not the exact rules
But these are my rules
It's my game
'Cause it's my life

I feel so fucking light tonight!

Even Though

Waves carrying you away
The sound of music
The sound of waves
A storm of particles tatters your head

The blue slow rhythm
Don't be afraid
Come in
The voice is singing

Sings about loneliness
Sings about me
The guitar hurts
Feels only too well known

With closed eyes I'm sitting
Drinking a very fine leave tea and self-made cookies
On my way to the cemetery
Inglewood

I not wanna lie in ground
I wanna dissolve in the ocean
Girdled by water
Like at the beginning!

What the fuck I'm pondering about unnecessary things
Concentrate on the important!
Writing, living at the ocean, dying
Not now possible, but soon!

Fifty-six years I waited
Shit on the remaining nine
Nine years remaining
To practice

I have to be fit in 2030
Have to be able to write meaningful things then
Have to improve, my American English skills
The small ocean maybe, Portugal, am I to learn Portuguese?

At least if it seems more likely
The small one and not the large one
Writing in Portuguese
Eu tenho o blues, deixe-me morrer

Sounds not bad
The more elegant language Portuguese in any case is
I feel still tired
Have my tired moments every day

But more and more I feel straight again
Maybe even aggressive
Cannot keep it the whole day
But longer and longer

See the old man sitting
With his tea or coffee
At the ocean-side
Typing words, his old laptop

Freedom is the greatest good
Nothing else matters
Sucking in the ocean's breeze
Nothing else matters

An inner unrest
A state of agitation
A very thrilling feeling
Why do I see always this fucking old man when looking in the mirror?

The body decays
The mind flourishes
The mind is blooming into something new
And the old fucking body rots away

Well, the song is over.....Pink Floyd?
Still listen the blues
The day almost over
Hopefully not this fucking pitiful life

PS: Thanks to Don's Tunes!

Friday

No, today is Saturday
But from next Friday on
I will work again
Normality comes back?

Have to see how to structure everything then
Cooking for my father
Uploading

We will see
Nine years
A certain day matters no longer
Everything will be good

Friday

No, today is Sunday
But next Friday is the next fix point
Better and better
It seems as I could observe my stars tonight

I look forward doing so
The next four days I have to prepare
Then I have to rearrange many
We will see

Still tired
But it's no longer this exhausted tiredness
I have to yawn a lot
I have not slept much the last nights - if at all

Have lay down for two hours
Watched "Endeavor"
The first episode obviously
Saw it not for the first time

Next Sunday I have to watch the episode broadcast late at night
I've the feeling that it will do me good to have a new rhythm
Well, maybe a bar day soon again?
Well, maybe an evening at the jazz club soon again?

Unfortunately, still a lot can go wrong
But I've the feeling that it might will function
Sixty-five
Sitting at the ocean-side and writing

So Much More

Listen to "Acid Jazz & Grooves Radio" - YouTube
Searched around
There's so much music in the world
I haven't heard, will never hear

Did forty-two estimates last night
When I've made so many estimates the last time?
And it had been straightforward and calming
There would be so many stars one could estimate

Some "deep sky" later
For some hours after uploading?
I feel this unrest
It's a good unrest

It's like groovy music
Vibrating
Funk would fit as well
Funk Radio

*

"Best Funky Jazz" now
Not much listen to it at the moment
Funky.....
Jazzy.....

*

Listen to both at the same time?
Okay, maybe a bit crazy
But,.....
I feel this fucking cool unrest again!

North America

Had a look at North America last night
The North America Nebula in the constellation of Cygnus (Swan)
Fairly good night
Was good to see, not so the fainter Pelican Nebula nearby

Some planetary nebulae
Some globular clusters
Some open clusters
No galaxies

Should do it later again, more planned
The weather will change again from tomorrow on Wait for Friday and what the day will yield
Prepared for everything

Not in the mood for writing
Wonderful sunny day outside
I feel much, much better than two or three weeks ago
It would be fucking cool would be my sixty-fifth birthday in two weeks!

Wednesday

A mixed day
Some hours very groggy
But often very good
A day with ups and downs

Tomorrow Thursday
My last pandemic day
I will start at 10 am on Friday
With a meeting!

Let's see
Maybe I have decided at the end of the day, that I will look after a new job again
At the moment I would stay
At least for the next months

To see how the pandemic will develop
To have some time to concentrate on some necessary changes
Maybe the job can surprise me
At the moment I cannot see me there for longer

At the moment I feel good in the morning
I feel good in the evening
In the afternoon I've some problems
From Friday on I will have a new rhythm

Uploading at midnight should stay
Writing at night after work
Or writing in the morning before work
Let's see what shifts I have to work

Of course, I have no hours for next week
I will get them on Friday
Then I will know how to work on Saturday and Sunday
I have to see how I will arrange the cooking for my father

I do not like eating (much) before I go to work
I like to eat after having worked
These are not the meal times of my father
We have to organize this next week

And now
Nine years
Hope that I will see the small ocean at the end of the year again, together with my father
And next year maybe the large ocean in February again

Baby, let's get it on!

Tomorrow Friday

Tomorrow my first workday since months now
Start at 10 am, so it will be not that long
Will have time then to plan the next week
Let's see what will be

The first half of the year is over
The second I have to use to reach some goals
But first the first day tomorrow
Very hot today

All around storms, severe thunderstorms with hail
We have oppressive heat
The storms will come later
At night and tomorrow

First Workday

First workday since months
Was okay, more or less
No roster for next week
Tomorrow start at 10 am, then we will see

Okay, it's somewhat difficult to say what will happen the next days
As a result, still no scheduling is possible
Let's see what tomorrow will yield
Some new aspects suit me not.....?

Nevertheless, I feel not bad
It's not the worst to work again
Maybe a different workplace
Maybe I will come to terms with it

My aims for the second half of the year?
Losing weight, evidently and sustainably
Improving my writing
Planning the next steps to become famous, implementing them as far as possible

Improving my observation program, improving the quality of my observations
Improving the quality of my collections
Thinking about Matosinhos and the West Coast
Is it really the right thing to be lonely?

Nothing about working? - Yeah, no longer an important topic, the way I make my money.

Second Workday

The second day is over
Not so bad
Still no duty roster
Tomorrow I will begin somewhat later

I plan to do some writing after midnight today
Therefore some relaxing now
Will see what I will do till midnight
Had a very fine salad so far, and a caramel tea now

First Time

First time again, after a longer time now,
That I wrote something after midnight
And it feels good,
Even if somewhat tired

Not bad to work again
I feel motivated
I have plans
I will not start to work that late unfortunately, so I cannot write till dawn

The last days had been exhausting
But in a much better way as the last months
Change my eating habits
Will lose (some) weight very fast now

Let's see
The sky's the limit
Mr. Petty
Southern Accents

Third Workday

Have a work schedule for next week
Will have the possibility to cook lunch for my father at most of the days
Writing at night
Will see how good I can implement a new rhythm

Wednesday and Thursday no workdays
Looks not that bad
Maybe I should be on the road on Wednesday and Thursday for a while
Let's see

Fourth

Not satisfying in the end
But still no disaster
Tomorrow the last for this "work week"
Then two days time to reflect

Heavy rain today
The streets partially flooded
Was not harmless to drive home
But now I'm home, green tea this evening, fruit, and some of my father's homemade cake

11:21 PM

Came back late
Yesterday, I drowned in music at night
Wrote nothing
Only listened

I wrote nothing before driving to work
Nothing to upload today
But that's okay
The next two days I have enough time to write

Was not bad, the first workweek
But I doubt more and more that this work place will have a future
No prospect
But it's still not certain in what way the pandemic will develop

Maybe no bad idea not to hurry
I have the lux to have time
Nine years
Nine years

Now a shower
After the political talk in TV - Markus Lanz
Maybe some music later?
Well, then it will become the next long night.....

Wednesday

Was a very interesting day today
The first time off work after the second lockdown
Started somewhat lame in the morning
But then it was better and better

Drove around for a longer time
Listened to music in the car

Such a long time outside the house I had been not for months
It was very nice

Wrote nothing today
But I feel much better now
The workdays had been somewhat hard
But I made a swift recovery today

Tomorrow a second day off work
Cooking Lunch, laundry, butcher, the rest of shopping, baker
Phone call doctor, starting to check job alternatives, coffee drinking maybe
And of course, continuing "Living In Historic Times" and "Tomorrow's History - Today's Deeds"

Had been a good day today
A little tiredness, a little headache
But the last days had been very active days
And I feel much better now

Look forward to tomorrow
Look forward to next year
I've the feeling - well, the mutation and all this Doubt about that I will be in the States in February 2022

But I like the development
Hey, still nine years time
Longer than I write now
Not even half-time

In 2030 I will be famous
Nothing else matters
Like the weather
Scared to win, scared to lose - California

I'm no longer scared for anything
Rain or sunshine
And should I die with sixty-four
Who cares, definitively not me!

*

I've the feeling that the next months
The rest of the years
Will be a crucial time
A crucial time in the meaning, that I have to pass it

2022 will become my year
I've started in February 2015
In February 2022 the first round will end
In February 2022 the second - final - round will begin

11:48 PM - I'll catch you on the flipside, Peter!

9:29 PM

Thursday - 9:29 PM
Have written nothing so far
But it was again a perfect day so far
I feel nearly like before the pandemic

I've nearly forgotten the pandemic
Still no date for a vaccination!
But I feel much better
Especially mentally

I will begin with "Tomorrow's History - Today's Deeds"
Later "Living In Historic Times"
I doubt that "Living In Historic Times" will be written till midnight
It will be for tomorrow's upload

There's a time to be born
There's a time to die
And in between there's your life
So

There's a time to live your life

3:00 AM

Finished the next part of "Living In Historic Times"
Cuomo just starts
Breaking News
Adam Schiff later on air

I thought to go to bed now
Some sleep would be nice
Had been a long day
Tomorrow I have to work

Wow, should this has the potential to become a real scandal
Maybe even with legal consequences
I fear I have to wait to listen to Adam Schiff
Will become a short night

*

3:45 AM now
Listened to Adam Schiff
But now I should find some sleep
It will be interesting to see how all will develop within the next twenty-four hours

11:23 PM

11:23 PM Friday
Became late today
Have to start working early tomorrow
No writing at night

Should be not too late at home tomorrow
At least I should have time to write something
Now a shower and some news
Then I should go to bed

Saturday

Earlier at home
But I needed some time to recover
But I've written something
Let's see if I need such a long time to recover tomorrow again

All in all, I'm satisfied so far
The Delta variant?
Well, this pandemic will accompany us somewhat longer
But I've still nine years time

Nothing has to happen at the moment
Well, I should not die
But even if, it would be not that relevant for me at the end
I have the fucking lux that I can wait!

June The Thirteenth

11:23 PM
Came home recently
A shower, made a tea
I will observe my variable stars tonight

Thought to come home much earlier
Worked twelve and a half hours today
Thought that I would have time to write something
Bad luck

Tomorrow?
We will see
Now I will upload this
Later the stars

A special day?
Happy Birthday!
Was never interested in birthdays
Ms. Grant will have her birthday soon

Was an idiotic day today
Excellent on one hand, batshit crazy on the other hand
I lose weight very fast at the moment
I feel fitter with every day

But now I will concentrate on observing my variable stars

Out Of Step

I got out of step
It's Monday 1:05 PM
I will not work on Thursday and Friday this week
But the next days.....?

No writing at night
Observed my variable stars
Worked twelve and a half hours, then three hours observing, one hour processing the data
A short sleep, but I feel not bad

Will not start writing now
Will come home late
No upload for today
Well,.....

Will use the rest of the time till I have to leave with relaxing
This night I will write again
The situation at my workplace
Well,.....unclear

The time of the pandemic
Will accompany us for some longer
Not only because of the new variant
Patience

I will sit at the ocean in nine years
Hearing the waves and smelling the salty ocean water
If it functions
And I will look back at this time and

Don't know
But hey, I will be famous then
Maybe the crazy German who walks down the streets in Matosinhos
Maybe even at the West Coast, who knows

Better?

I feel better and better
I'm eighteen again, mentally
And my body recovers at least more and more
But is definitively no eighteen anymore

The numbers in the county of Heilbronn are rising again
They are still falling in Germany
Heilbronn is now the third-worst county in Germany
Some more days this development and the restaurant can close again

What's the best strategy now
I'm not sure
I have to use my days off also to ponder about that Let's see what the numbers are telling you then

All in all, I'm back again
Still some tiredness
But I do a lot now
Some headache as well

Some writing at night
Let's see
I close my eyes and hear the waves
And water engirds me

No Writing

Thought that I would write something at night tonight
But I saw a new job offer
It found my interest and I started to think about it
Somewhat longer distance, but it sounds very interesting

Maybe I call them tomorrow
Driving somewhat longer and listening to music
I like it
This occupies my mind now, not clear-headed for writing now

I feel the fire again
I have to be more aggressive again
I have to treat me harder again
I'm fifty-six now, but no oldie!

Sometimes other matters are more important than writing
Like the variable stars last night
And this job offer this night
I've still many years time to write

I feel fucking relaxed at the moment
On top of the world
Nine fucking years
If I die with sixty-four, than I'm pissed off!

New Developments

Made a phone call in the morning
Now I have to prepare some documents
A job interview on Friday
I have to start to check alternatives

I will write something for tomorrow's upload later
All develops
No workplace without questions
Now I have to prepare the documents

0:33 AM

Have sent the documents
Now we will see what happens
Friday 10 AM
Job interview

Now I will write something
I feel relaxed
I do something
I'm active again

Thursday

Cooked lunch - a nice summer salad with roasted liver dumplings
Did the shopping
Then I drove to the restaurant
Where I will have the job interview tomorrow

Two different routes are possible
One is slightly longer
I needed thirty-five minutes for both routes
There and back one CD

Now I will rest for a moment
Very hot outside
Later I will drive to the truck stop
For the first time since months

I will have my laptop with me
Maybe I will write something
Had some fruit
Life can be nice

New Story

Begun a new story
Have no idea about the plot
But I used this image recently
To talk about my feeling regarding my current workplace

I do not dare to look in the rearview mirror
Because I fear that I would see that I've made a horrible decision
Would see that it had been no animal
Would see the dead body

I have no idea about the rest
But I think it's time to begin something new Tomorrow the job interview
I hope to have time to continue with "Living In Historic Times" tomorrow

Job Interview

Was the longest job interview I ever had Three hours
Only ended because my counterpart had to go to a funeral
Developed very strange

We said goodbye with many topics that had been raised
F&B Manager?
In a way, but still in the kitchen sometimes?
We decided to give us a few days to rethink it

I will get feedback during the next days
Then I will give my summary
In any case, it was a very fascinating conversation
It was good to become active again

I plan some writing at night for tomorrow's upload
Surprising development
But now I have to wait for the feedback
Not sure what to write now

My possible employer said that he would need a few days
To give me feedback about our conversation
And to make a distinct offer
I think I should write something

Tell Me Something About My Life

A situation again that could change a lot
But I have to wait at the moment
It's a lesson in that I could change a lot
I only have to allow it

Lost nine kilos very fast
I'm hungry
Hungry for life
My life

Let's see what the job interview will yield
If nothing
I have to search for alternatives
But now I have to wait

*

I lust for 2030
It arouses me to imagine that it could be
The ocean, the large one or the small one
And I would sit there and would write

What the fuck is interesting about my current writing
Finger exercises
Not more
I could stop for nine years, to write a masterpiece then

It's confusing
Nothing has any meaning anymore
Not the next nine years
I could dream them through

It's relieving
It's calming
I would like it
Say eighty-five like my father now

Sitting there and writing
The people passing by smiling
This crazy old man from Germany
The last twenty years he sat every day at the beach and wrote something

It would be so cool
And I'm so anxious Could it really be
That I could be so blessed

To be honest
I cannot believe in it
It makes me crazy
I start to panic

*

Should this new job opportunity yield something or other
I should do it
If not
I should move on

I feel good at the moment
A fragile situation in any case
My life
But at least I feel alive again at the moment

Tell me more about my life
Gosh, how much I would like to read this writing in ten or twenty years again
I'm afraid of
I'm thrilled

All at once

A Bit Of Reality

First time since months in the truck stop
Caesar's Salad, café au lait, currant spritzer
Some days ago I was already here
But it was later and the place crowded, I not sat down

No feedback from my job interview
But that's no problem
I'm in no hurry
I've the fucking lux.....

The sun shines, some clouds
But very unsettled weather
Maybe it will rain soon again
But at the moment it's nice

The Delta variant has a variant now
Waiting till it's too late
Still not vaccinated
Yeah, Germany, "Vorsprung durch Technik"!

3:30 PM
A calming day?
Would be nice to observe my stars
But the weather is not good at the moment

Some writing today?
Maybe later
"Living In Historic Times" would be nice
Maybe I find a plot?

But now I should enjoy the sun
Should relax
Should enjoy another café au lait
Writing can wait

Thursday

Still no feedback
Maybe not the worst sign?
Whatever
It gives me strength

Many storms over Germany
But also today it hit us only slightly
At night more
The weekend should be hot again

I feel it more and more
Would be interesting, would this job opportunity yield something
But it's only nine years
Do you remember 1999, twenty-one years ago!

The first time in my life that I have distinct aims
No drifting anymore
Nine years
Nine years time to become a fucking good author

Kiss my ass and follow me, darling!

Friday - 1:03 PM

No real upload today
Not written on night
I would have two hours now
But not the mood

Pondered through night
Many thoughts still
Will continue "Living In Historic Times" this night
Time is on my side

I've the feeling
More and more
That I could only win
But it's only a feeling

Tomorrow

Tomorrow - Wednesday - I will get my first vaccination
Have called my doctor yesterday to ask if he can tell me how long I have still to wait
I got an appointment for Wednesday
But AstraZeneca, not Johnson & Johnson

So, I need two vaccinations now
But it's better as nothing
A few weeks and the Delta variant will dominate in Germany as well
But it seems that not many are interested in it

Not the political Berlin obviously Heilbronn, the worst county in whole Germany now!
Who cares?
We open up our restaurants further on, and plan our summer holiday.....

Hey, hadn't we this situation not already almost a year ago?
Talking about Christmas celebrations and New Year's celebrations.....
But why learning something?
Well, let's have fun and be surprised when the next lock-down will be there!

First

First vaccination early in the morning
1:51 PM now
Feel nothing
No pain in the arm, no headache, nothing

I'm tired
But that's okay
The weather, the hard job
The sun shines, high temperatures - ten minutes later it rains, muggy weather

Very often storms in the evening
It hit us not extremely so far
But other regions
This is very exhausting weather

Truck stop
The usual
A mix of a bit of sun and heavy clouds at the moment
Some drizzle

But warnings that partially very heavy rainfall is possible
But at least no thunderstorms
I will check my job alternatives seriously from tomorrow on
On the other hand

No doubt that the Delta variant will dominate in Germany very soon
The numbers will rise, in any case
Heilbronn, still not able to lower their numbers
Soon a closed, or at least very restricted, restaurant again?

The next days will tell more
At least I've a first vaccination
Not finally good
But at least some protection

Writing today?
I try to relax somewhat at the moment
Should I bring "Give Me A Plot" to an end
Or should it be the beginning of a much longer story, a series of short stories?

I'm undecided
If possible, I could write 24/7
So many stories could be written
But now I should relax somewhat

9:13 PM

Now I've some headache
I feel tired
The vaccination?
The weather?

I rested for around two hours
I've bought something now - ebay
But now I will continue with resting
Till 11 PM

One vaccination helps not much
Regarding the new Delta variant
Difficult weeks in front of me, I fear
But as long as I have not to go to the hospital?

ICU
Long COVID
I will have such a fucking cool retirement
Only becoming seriously ill could destroy my plans

I should close my eyes again, let see how I will feel in roughly two hours

11 PM

Now I feel the side effects
Some headache, some pain in both arms
I feel dizzy
But most of all, I'm freezing terribly

Whatever I do, I'm not able for becoming warm, not to talk about to sweat
I sweat normally
I hate freezing
After uploading, back into the bed again

I hope to feel better tomorrow
If the freezing continues, I should go to the doctor again
But first a long night
At least I've my first shot

4:14 PM, Thursday

Slightly better
Still freezing
Not so extreme anymore
But the headache is bad

The last twenty-four hours I lay in bed
Stood up now
Had a long and hot shower
I try to eat something

I will lay down soon again
Will set the alarm clock at 11 PM
Let's see how I feel then
All not very dramatic at the moment, but not nice anyway

The third day with problems
After the vaccination
From the fifth day on it would be more severe
Should I have still this problems tomorrow morning, then I will go to the doctor again

Weekend unfortunately
Would have long shifts
Let's see how I feel tomorrow
The doctor has to decide

Of course no writing today
Sitting here, in front of the screen, I feel exhausted
Better to search for some sleep
Weird dreams

11:10 PM

Not better
My limbs hurt
Headache
Freezing

I'm exhausted
I feel dizzy
Not good
Let's see what tomorrow will yield

Earlier upload today
Better to go to bed again
11:32 PM
At least "continued" with one part

11:35 AM - Friday

Was at the doctor in the morning
Not better
I've three drugs to take now
Later I will go to work

I will take a rest now
The last two days I stayed in bed
Of course no upload today
Let's see if the drugs will have an effect

Earlier

Went home earlier
Froze more and more
Dizzy
You cannot work in a kitchen when feeling dizzy

Functioned not so good as hoped
But I had a conversation with the tenant of the restaurant
That I will leave in any case
That I will look for a new job

Of course no upload today
Tomorrow I would have a long day
Ten hours
Not sure that I can handle that

Most probably no upload tomorrow as well
I hope that I'm through it by Monday
Then I could start with everything on Monday again
Let's see

I feel relieved that I've decided now
Now I can look ahead
Always valid, as Mr. Petty sang: The future is (was) wide open.....
Not always the most optimistic songwriter – or?

9:56 PM - Saturday

Earlier at home
Worked "only" nine hours
I'm exhausted
Slight headache

I take painkillers
I feel hot and freeze
First a hot and long shower would be good
I should eat something, have eaten nothing so far, drank not enough

*

11:08
Hot and long shower
Have eaten a salad
Feel even more tired now

My workday tomorrow starts at 9 AM
Will be a short night
Will find no sleep anyway
Feel better to know that I will leave

Of course no upload today
Tomorrow I should be home somewhat earlier
Maybe I find time to write anything
Apart from that, we will see

Sunday

Came home earlier
Still not in "best shape", but also not so much work
The next storm is on its way
It rains, it's windy, and I hear the thunder

But at least at the moment it seems
As always so far
The storm will not hit us directly
Would be not bad

I tried to relax somewhat
6:47 PM now
I feel tired, but not much headache
Still no new image for the webpage

Would have some time to write something
Let's see
But I've still no rhythm
This week I've not to work on Thursday and Friday

Maybe today no real upload again
Monday?
From Tuesday on all should be okay again
That's the plan

Upload

Well, have written something in fact
But it's enough for today
No writing at night
I have to try to sleep

So, for today I've something to upload
But not for tomorrow
But it's getting better
Soon I can continue as normally

Finished

I've decided that "Don't Look In The Rearview Mirror!" is finished now
But
That "Give Me A Plot!" should become a collection of short stories
Linda and Peter

But not immediately
Not sure what the next part will be
But maybe - I know what the next part will be
I had a nice little imagination not long ago

In Los Angeles in February 2022 again?
Most probably not
For not only one reason
I thought about it

"The Desert Behind The Mountains"

Oh, What A Day!

Was at my family doctor this morning
Had a dispute with him
It seems that at least two things went wrong
I'm somewhat confused

In any case, he should have given me a sick note on Friday
He says, that he had offered it
I have asked, if it wouldn't be better
But after the prescription of the drugs he obviously has forgotten it

He's always rushing
Okay, I have not demanded it
Was a mistake
But to say that he had offered it, is a mere lie!

Then he argued, I cannot have gotten AstraZeneca Sorry?!?
After some confusion, argumentation with his staff, after I asked again -
AstraZeneca

This raises the question
Was it a mistake to give me AstraZeneca
Was a different vaccine planned, Johnson & Johnson was planned at the beginning
Well, I have not refused to get AstraZeneca

This and some more questionable statements
Can you tell me definitively whether your headache today is connected to the vaccination?
Of course not, but it could be and there are "some" indications?
Have I to make the treatment?

He gave me a sick note for the next two weeks
I do not know what you have - well, there was this vaccination and since then.....?
I cannot see that your health problems today are typical for vaccination side effects
Well, headache, freezing, pain in the arms, feeling dizzy.....?

I thought that I've read that this are some of the most typical side effects
And that it's not good if they stay for longer
At least one have to be careful then
But hey, I've a new family doctor now

Tomorrow 9:20 AM
I hope this consultation will be more productive
Now I should sleep somewhat
Maybe a short writing later?

5:44 PM

Tuesday

Was nicer at the doctor today
Productive
Tomorrow again
Blood sampling, ECG

It will be to decide on Friday, if I will work on the weekend again
Less freezing
Less headache
Tired

I cannot relax
Every day at the doctor
Maybe tomorrow after the doctor visit
It rains, maybe early to bed

Decided

Decided not to wait till normal upload time
Should try to sleep as long as possible
10:42 PM
Tomorrow will be another day

Third Day

Wednesday
Third day in a row at the doctor in the morning
Blood sampling and ECG
Tomorrow morning no doctor

But on Friday again
Then I will discuss my current conditions with my new family doctor
Still some headache
But the feeling cold is much better now

The sun is shining
I've the feeling that I could nearly start to sweat
Truck stop
I had to drive a bit

I would say that I could cook on Saturday again
Tomorrow I will work on a new job again
Emailed the place I had the job interview
They had a last job interview this week, I should get feedback within the week

A good sign?
Well, no refusal
It's Wednesday, the feedback should come soon
I feel fitter again

The constant headache is disruptive
But apart from that, I feel better now
Somewhat tired
But I had this already before the vaccination

So, tomorrow I can sleep longer
Slept for some hours very sound last night
Would be nice to do it again
The observing of my variables had been very nice

Suicide

Will I be happy, will I die
Will I be sad
Buried under a high building
Being a child

Never saw anything than war
The daily search for some dirty water
Something to eat
Life as a devastating lie

Will I be happy, will I be sad
Bestowed with the ability to decide
Where and when How blessed

Thursday

Have finished a new part for "Living In Historic Times"

6:23 PM

Feel better

Had a good sleep this night

Now I will try to relax somewhat

Tomorrow I should concentrate on finding a new job

Whatever

Nine years - maybe I can become a famous writer earlier?

Getting Older

As I was young

Thirty-five

In the year 2000 I will be

I thought

It was so abstract

2021

Fifty-six

But I've not the lust for

Being young again

Quite on the contrary

I would lust for being older!

Why eighteen again

This so insecure man

Full of fears

And today?

Gosh

Why there's no devil

So that I could sign

Eighty at least

Fifteen years

That would be way enough

I could write quite a lot

What a silly old man I've become

Friday

At the doctor
In the morning
Tomorrow I will work again
Why not?

Work on my applications
Made a phone call to get some information
Visited some webpages
Now I have to write a general letter of application

Tomorrow I will have not much time
Not for the applications
Not for writing
A long workday, ten hours at least

Sunday I will begin early
Should be at home early
Time for the first applications
Maybe some writing

Now I have to continue with hunting for a job
Maybe later some writing
It rains
I feel so much better than a week ago

Strange Mood

6:38 PM
I'm in a strange mood
Enough working on the new job for today
Sunday I will start

I've no mood to start writing
Maybe later
Or something for tomorrow
Maybe I should drive around somewhat

Let's see how tomorrow will function
Then Sunday
Then I hope I get my rhythm back
All in all, I feel strangely weightless

My feet don't even touch the ground
Yeah, Mrs. Grant
Would not be the worst to be the last one
Maybe I should drive around with Shirley?

Driven

Driven with Shirley
Truck stop
Listened to girls talk
And destroyed angels

Like the one on my breast
The one I like so much
I do not believe in angels
Today is a day in between

Sitting outside
Café au lait
It has stopped to rain
A little blue between the clouds

The earth is beautiful
Take a deep breath
I see the future, my future, positive
I only don't know why

*

Another café au lait
And a bezel
Their bezels are huge
When will it be, the next time, breakfast buffet

Germany, very low infections rates at the moment
Like last summer - soon the fourth wave?
Well, we can lean back and see
How many Boris will kill in the UK with his fucking policy

Lightweight
Hovering
Dissolving
I feel free

The feeling to be in the right movie
The one with the happy ending
And the end seems to be near
Well, all that stupid thoughts

No

No upload today
Came back recently
11:42 PM
Worked over eleven hours

Tomorrow I should be at home earlier, workday starts at 9 AM
Have to work on my job hunt
But should have time for at least some writing
But not today

Sunday

Worked only nine and a half hours today
Eaten something, hot shower
I've started with the job applications
This will be the major task for now

Maybe I will have time later to write something
At least at night for tomorrow
But now the first job applications
I do not feel that bad this evening

First

First job applications done
Food retail markets
Three different markets (all the same company)
Five different positions

The first step is done
Now I can continue
Will be interesting to see, whether I get feedback
But review sides are mostly not so fast

One More

One more job application
But now enough for today
No writing on the stories for this upload
Maybe some relaxation now

Quit

I've decided to quit my job
The period of notice could be up to six weeks
That's too long
I've asked for an agreement, would have been good for both sides

But they hesitate
But I have to become active again
Better to risk something
Then to be too passive

Let's see what the next four weeks will yield
I can quit to the 15th next month at the moment
So, I will do so tomorrow
I feel fucking young again

Quitted Tuesday, July the thirteenth

I've quitted today
Feels good
The next two days I will not work
Always motivating to begin something new

Well, there's some risk
But life is a risky business
Maybe I will die on COVID
Maybe I will sit at the ocean with eighty, writing the novel of the century

Life is so fucking strange

Today

The first day after I quitted the job today
Two more applications
One retailer, one restaurant
So far, so good

I feel tired
But it starts to work
At the moment I feel good
Let's see how it will develop

Still some weeks to find a job
I'm angry about yesterday's working
Made a phone call
Not this way or I demand unpaid leave for the rest of the time

Would cost me some money
But no vacation this year
I've some savings
Sometimes a hard split is better than to die slowly.....

Would give me time to concentrate on the search for a new job
Have set a deadline till tomorrow
To get a statement how we should organize the rest of our relationship
Breaking up slowly is a hard thing to do - yeah, Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Lane

Looking ahead is the right direction, sometime you can learn something from the Americans.....

Very Day

Was a very important day
Made three phone calls
Have three job interviews now
On on Tuesday, two on Thursday

Wrote an email in the morning, that I wish to have unpaid leave
Set a deadline, that I wish to have an answer during till the end of the day
No answer so far
We will see

A fourth restaurant that, I can not phone before tomorrow
Enough for now
One more job application to a retailer I've made
It's 8:07 PM now

Let's see
Maybe I will write something for today's upload
But I think later for tomorrow
Life is a crazy thing

Feedback

8:54 PM
Got feedback
Unpaid leave from tomorrow on
Now I can concentrate on finding a new job

I think I will write nothing for today's upload
Tomorrow I will have time for writing
And to look for a new job of course
A chapter has ended, a new one can begin now

Life is really a strange matter
The tree job interviews
All three restaurants are entirely different
Life is a crazy creature

First Day

First day of a new phase
Have a month now for re-orientation
The first step is done
Numerous job applications, at least three job interviews next week

Cooked lunch for my father and me
Will do this more often now, the next weeks
Feel tired
But that's okay

Something has ended
Something has begun
Today is the day in between
Today is the first day

Of what?
Not sure
Still cooking
Or food retailers

I can simply wait
In the end, I need one job I can live from All jobs I reacted to so far seem to offer a perspective
I simply can wait

I will lose money
Around a thousand Euros at least I would say
Will depend on the amount of paid vacation I have - it's still not officially announced
Most probably more

But money is only money
Cool to be able to say this
I do not work today
It calms me down

Sitting in the truck stop
The numbers in Germany are raising
Still much better as in most other countries
But we should have learned it now, it's only a matter of time from now on

Extreme flooding in some German regions
Many had to die
The number is still rising
We have campaigning, Angela Merkel's successor

I hope that this disaster will change the dynamic
The program of the CDU / CSU is a mere disaster
The Green Party weakens
And the SPD acts like they would take this campaign not really serious

Some sunshine
A very interesting month awaits me
My sister celebrates her birthday on Sunday
Hey, I've time now to join!

Not Today

Have written a part for "Tomorrow's History - Today's Deeds"
But I'm not satisfied
Well, I have to reach Kramer Junction
There the story will begin in fact then

I've no clear brain today
I need a long sleep this night, have not slept last night
Tomorrow it will be better
I've still to send some papers to a restaurant

Enough for today
Tomorrow I will prepare "trout meunière" for my father and me
Then I will concentrate on writing
Maybe some new job offers

Day Two

9:42 PM
This night I slept not much as well
I drove to the city where I have my first job interview on Tuesday
Was there for some time to get some feel for Tuesday

A château
A hotel and restaurant
Will be interesting, Tuesday
At Thursday very different places

Will not write much today
If any
Have to ponder about my opportunities
Prepare for next week

I feel exhausted
But that's okay
I'm exhausted
Lost weight

Will I be able to sleep this night
Tomorrow evening, my sister's birthday
Maybe I should drive around again
See no reason to sit at home, listen to the same on CNN again and again

*

Shower
Some grapes
Some hot tea
Feel somewhat refreshed

I'm unsure about
What will happen next week
Not that I fear that it could be a disaster
Quite on the contrary

And even if
I would have still three weeks time to find something
And even then I wouldn't be bankrupt
I've some savings

Three job interviews, catering trade is a very fast branch
Eight job applications to food retailers
Six I can follow on the review site
All are active, the date of "under way" changes from time to time

The first three - with five jobs - all sent at the same day
The most important, in progress 16th, the other two, in progress 14th
The last one did not change so far, but, in progress 13th
It would be interesting to see what all these applications would yield in the end

But I would say that this process
If I have not to meet with refusals in the next days
Would need at least two more weeks
Should I get no negative feedback after the job interviews.....

The restaurants will act much faster than the food retailers
I fear that the timing could become a problem for me
Maybe I will get a lot of negative feedback next week
Well, I would need one job at August the sixteenth

And as said, not even this
One or two months later would be no problem as such
Would cost me money
No vacation in Portugal this year, no USA in February 2022 I fear

The money I would have
Should I stop everything?
Should I have some sabbatical time
Though about it the last time as well, at the beginning of 2020

Well, be relaxed
Let's see what the next week will yield
Tomorrow some socializing
I could apply also at other retailers, thought about selling kitchens, much more would be possible

I have to stay cool
The last two days had been not bad
Not much written
But at the moment I have to ponder about other matters

My goal is, to be famous with sixty-five
The next days, weeks - maybe even month - are not decisive for it
I'm still a luck bastard
A fucking old white man with luxury problems

I have not to write about poverty
I have not to write about war
I have not to write about discrimination
Because of my skin color, beliefs, sex, sexual orientation.....

I've the feeling
I'm not bold enough
I try to play safe
Maybe this will cost me my development possibilities

Do I have to hate my job like Bukowski
Or would it be okay to have one that I like
What a fucking question
Bukowski searched not for a job he would have to hate

I have to drive around after uploading
I have to ponder
I live in Germany
Not much bad can happen with me

Little Space Left

What résumé I would draw as a conclusion
Would I be a really old man
Looking back at my life?
Well, it's a major part of my writing

I wasted it, I had many opportunities I did not use, I was not bold enough -
That I was always this always doubting and insecure boy

Drove

Drove around
1:37 AM
Truck stop
Café au lait

I take a deep breath
Feel much better now
As a few hours ago
Nighttime.....

I look positively ahead
What bad should happen
Well, there would be still my father and my sister who would help me
Would I crater

And wouldn't that be cool
Made a wrong decision
Ended up homeless on the street
But then someone discovered his talent as writer

Now he lives in a million-dollar estate
Up in the hills
All the celebrities invite him to their house parties
He's fucking cool now

But this is not the States
This is Germany
I will never end homeless on the streets
But has this to mean, that no one will ever discover my authorial skills?

Yeah, I feel better now
The nighttime is mine in fact
A high building collapsed
Way over a hundred drowned

But this is life?
Driving back home
I could have an accident
I could die

But this is life?
But not to live in poverty, in a war zone
Not to be named a nigger
Not to get raped

I feel excited in a way
The last five years or so have changed a lot
I've changed a lot
What potential would have nine more years

Well, I have all the reasons to expect a rosy future
What could be the worst
To be a failed wannabe author
Living in Portugal at the sea?

After 2 AM now
Saturday night
Or
Sunday morning

*

Another café au lait
Then I will drive back home
Will I be able to sleep
The Big Sleep

Sunday, Afternoon - The Kings

For a longer time I was confused by their song
Sunny Afternoon
Because I always heard
Sunday afternoon

And then there are the Acid House Kings
But this is a different story
Whatever
I feel better

The sun shines
Had a stew together with my father
Fits also to such weather
With vegetables and many herbs

Later my sister's birthday
Chinese food
Always a good choice
Under the trees

Most probably still no writing on the stories today
Maybe a clear night tonight
Would be nice to observe my stars again
The moon would not interfere too much

Now I should have a little siesta, an after lunch nap, a digestive nap
Call it as you like it
I'm an old man now
Have eaten a nice stew and have to prepare for the further eating later clear sky

From Monday on
An active week will begin
But today
Lazin' on a sunny - Sunday – afternoon

Clear Skies

10:08 PM
Clear Sky
I will observe my stars tonight
Look forward

Socializing has been nice
Tomorrow at 8 PM at my workplace for the last time
To fetch my clothes and knives
Then it's finally the time to look ahead

But now it darkens
I will sit out for a while
To start to observe then
Break for uploading just before midnight

An interesting week awaits me

Feelin' Good

Better
Have observed my stars at night
2:42 PM now
Later - 6:30 PM - I have to fetch my clothes and knives

My first job interview tomorrow morning
I feel motivated
Let's see what the day will yield on writing
Whatever, time is on my side

(was never a big "fan" of the Rolling Stones - well, there are some riffs.....)

Nice

Have fetched my clothes and knives
Feels good, this chapter is nearly closed now
Have to prepare for my job interview tomorrow
Have written something

Maybe some writing later
But now a salad
8:06 PM
Maybe some TV

First

First job interview today
Well, not only in the United States they search desperately staff
I will call the head chef on Sunday to make an appointment for some days of trial work
Would be good to get some insights

The next two job interviews on Thursday
The job application regarding the retailers, still in progress
I had expected this
The catering industry is a very fast business

It's late afternoon now
Later I should be out for a while Most probably not much writing today
I do not feel that bad

Truck Stop

Sitting in the truck stop
Drinking "beer and lemonade" - Radler
I don't drink that often beer
But it's a nice beverage for balmy summer evenings

Ponder about the job interview
Would be a job where I could develop my potential as a pastry cook
Would be no easy job
Well, it's working in a restaurant

Tomorrow I will drive to the place of the first job interview on Thursday
The other place I know already
It's in my hometown
Would be nice if the food retailers could be a little faster

Well, there was this matter with the wide open future

Writing

Satisfied with my writing today
Alicia Keys sings about New York
Well, like it more together with Jay-Z
Have never been attracted by New York

Los Angeles, would like it to be in Los Angeles again
Maybe San Francisco also
Would like to travel to Portland and Seattle
New Orleans, I should be in New Orleans one day, and Chicago of course

Short parts I've written today
But I like them
I've the feeling to develop
Arrived in Kramer Junction

The actual story will begin now, the image I had in mind
And then the story will be over
And then?
Linda again would be good

Living forever
See all the others dying
You will never die
You never lived

Life is an illusion, a very odd one

Lazy Wednesday

Cooked lunch
Before that, I shopped at the butcher
Then I drove to the place where I will have my first job interview tomorrow morning
After it, I did some more shopping

Was good to drive to the place of the first job interview
A street is blocked
I have to make a larger detour
Now I know it

On Friday evening, I've invited
Well, I make no money at the moment
A nice restaurant I've discovered in the town of the job interview on Tuesday
Has a nice menu

Today I'm lazy
6:49 PM now
Maybe some writing
Maybe not

I've to prepare the two job interviews later.....

Busy Day

Busy day today
A job interview in the morning
A job interview in the afternoon
Both nearly two hours long

In between I cooked lunch
9:16 PM now
Many thoughts conquer my mind
No calm for writing

Three job interviews this week
Three very different workplaces
First work for trial on Saturday, maybe also on Sunday
Next week the other two ones

I want to see all three workplaces
I'm obviously in a good position to get all of them offered
Would not know which I should choose
Oh, there are still the job applications at food retailers - all still in progress

I have to get some insights over the next days
Writing will not be number one
I've the feeling I should have a coffee at the truck stop
Would have to drive somewhat

Tomorrow I've some time
Later my invitation
Was a good decision to quit the job
Was an even better decision to demand unpaid vacation

Seems as that I could have a new job next week
Would enable some days of vacation
To concentrate on writing
To prepare for the new job, whatever place it would be

Live is strange
Time is on my side
The future is wide open
I would be totally pissed of, should I die before I get sixty-five

Truck Stop

A place I've been often lately
Not much people here at this time
10:22 PM

Good WLAN and sockets - still no matter of course in Germany, this high-tech nation

Was an interesting day today
Have to sort my thoughts
Maybe some writing during the night tonight
I feel still this tiredness

I would like to talk with someone about my feelings
I would like to live at the ocean
What would be the right decision
If it's nearly impossible to make a (totally) wrong decision?

*

Tomorrow I can relax
The first round is over
The second begins on Saturday
Strong developments

A restaurant in a château
Or a beer garden
Both could be a possibility for the next - last - nine years
Hey, maybe I should decide to become an author?

I cannot find any job ad for it unfortunately
I think that I would have some qualifications even for that Maybe not the best
But, maybe enough to make a living therewith?

Well, it's funny
Sitting here
Writing that
It was a long and claiming day

I think I will sleep long and good tonight
And maybe I should drive home now
After have written this Summer Wine - unfortunately not the original, or.....

A Good Friday

It's a good Friday, so far
Stood up in a good mood
Prepared a nice salad for me and my father
With fried eggplant, Greek cheese and more

Later dining in a nice restaurant
Tomorrow I will start working at 9 AM
Decided that I need the next day to continue pondering, on Sunday
So, I will not work on Sunday

I have to phone the restaurant in the château on Sunday
Regarding trial work there
Then also the place in my hometown
I should use the Sunday also to write something

Have written nothing this night
I decided to go to bed
The new job hogs my mind at the moment
I have to concentrate on this topic

I should come to a decision during next week, more or less
The food retailers are very slow
The "restaurant business" is a very fast business
Would be nice, would give me two weeks of vacation

I've still some time before I have to leave
A nice dinner waits
But I've the feeling that I should give me some time
I have not to hustle

Still nine years to become famous
A week more or less will not count
Let's be lazy
Lazing on a sunny Friday afternoon.....

A Very Fine Dinner

Well, had been a very fine dinner
Restaurant Hirsch, Neckarbischofsheim
Now I have to concentrate on my cooking tomorrow
No writing today

I will try to write something tomorrow in my long lunch break
Would work in "split shift" maybe
Will try it tomorrow
Let's see what will be possible

Still some time till upload
10:35 PM
But no writing today
Let's see what I can write tomorrow

The next days could become very interesting

Trial Work

Today in Haßmersheim
Directly at the Neckar
On the other side of the river, in Neckarzimmern,
I can see the castle where I've learned to cook, forty years ago, Burg Hornberg

It's a place with potential
Where I'm today
But some unclear aspects
Let's see how the evening will be

In any case, it seems as that I could work here
One could name it a "Gartenwirtschaft", a kind of beer garden
But with daily offers, even higher priced dishes are possible
All in all, it's still and definitively an option

Now I sit under branches of grape vines
White wine
It's a nice place
A good deal of reservations in the evening

I try whether I could spend my time here
Spend it with writing
It should be easily possible
Today I will not continue with writing

Tomorrow I will be at home
Have to make some phone calls
But the rest of the time I could write
Should continue with the stories

Now I should eat something
A salad
I should still lose some weight
To try the salad and the dressing here

So far so good, interesting days ahead

Nice Salad

The salad had been good
Seems as it would not rain in the evening
There is some chance therefor
But the weather can change very fast nowadays

I'm very interested what will happen later
Sitting under grape vines
Warm but shady
I could imagine to work here

The restaurant in the château will be the most important now
As a counterpart
And well, there's this matter with the food retailers.....
You have to decide at a certain point

Well, I've the privilege that I can decide between alternatives
Many don't have this opportunity
Sitting under grape vine
On a sunny summer day

9:32 PM

Back home again
It has started to rain
Thunder and lightning
Have eaten some fruit

Was no bad day today
Could be a possible workplace
Now I have to see the other possibilities
No writing today

Now a shower
Then a salad
Well, with some meet
I've the feeling that I will sleep good at night

I've the feeling it will become a good day tomorrow

Already

Already 8:40 PM
Have written nothing so far
But planned next week
As far as possible

The first trial work on Wednesday
The second one on Friday and Saturday
Most probably jazz club and bar on Thursday
Therefore, not much left

But Monday and Tuesday I will have time for me
I hope that I can sum the so far up on Sunday
The food retailers are the crux
But now a salad first

I've still time for some writing
I think I will start with the desert
Now the story as such will begin
And will come to an end

Tomorrow I can concentrate on "Living In Historic Times"
Then I'm up-to-date again
Will see if I can find time for writing when working
At the moment I like the workplace, where I was on Saturday

Let's see what the next days will yield

A Good Day Today

Was a good day today
Some writing
Some work on a new job
Maybe also tomorrow a good day?

Monday Morning

No morning anymore
Made beast of duck for lunch
Tomorrow liver of beef
Thought about to spend some time outside

But it started to rain a bit
Thunder in the background
Heavy rain, storms, even hail they predicted for the evening
Maybe it's better to stay at home

"Living In Historic Times" the goal for today
But now I will spend some time with one of my collections
Let's see how the weather will develop
I'm in a good mood

I'm Getting Old

I'm getting old
I'm tired of looking for a new job
Had a phone call today
Tomorrow cooking

Thursday the next phone call(s)
Then cooking again
I'm sick of it
Only interested in, to live the next nine years of my life

Till I get famous
Till I will live at the ocean
Well, famous most probably never
But, the ocean would be possible in any case

I need a new job
For the next nine years
Maybe not a fucking one
Maybe I should get old

I hope that I can end this process soon
Next Sunday, a time for the next résumé
I hope that I can wrap up something next week
Would have still a week vacation then

Let's see how long I will work tomorrow
It's around the corner
I should find some time for writing
I need an anchor

Oh fuck, I'm getting old!

Second Trial Work

Sitting in the truck stop
As usual
8:47 PM
Ready with my second trial work

Has been very satisfying
A bier garden
Well, a bier garden in Baden-Württemberg
Not in Bavaria

Our bier gardens are different
Very often more dishes, especially warm dishes
They are open in winter, with very different concepts
They do not cook bad, where I have been, homemade sauces for instance, good products

They offered me the job
Would I have to decide now, I would say: Yes, yes of course!
But it's never a bad idea, to digest such a decision first
But I've the feeling at the moment, that I should cancel the cooking in the chateau

Twice trial work, two possible jobs
Both workplaces no cooking in a restaurant anymore
And both seem to offer a lot
I had the idea to change things

The food retailers are still sleeping
They are interested in staff from kitchens?
Well, this is a very fast business
If you wanna them, you have to be fast

I gave them an advantage
But since weeks they process my applications now
Nothing substantial happens
That's too slow, much too slow

*

No writing today
Need the time to ponder
But tomorrow I will have time
Tomorrow maybe the time for the first decisions

*

Ordered some French fries
And another café au lait
I've the feeling that I'm one a good way
Change, change means that something is alive

Made an appointment for another job interview
Had a message on my answering machine
For next Tuesday
No normal restaurant also

It's also a farm with cattle
Exceptional cattle
They process nearly everything from their cattle also in their kitchen
A lot of beef on the menu

Of course also other meat, and for vegetarians and more
But also this would be a special place
Not the normal restaurant
I've the feeling that this is my way

*

Enough writing for today
9:43 PM now
Have eaten the French fries
I will sit for somewhat longer now, the café au lait, then I will drive home

I feel relaxed
Was a good decision to quit the job
Should have done it faster - maybe
But it was definitively no mistake to do it now

Thursday - Decisions

First decision of the day
I've cancelled the trial work in the château
No "classic" restaurants anymore
I would say, at the moment: bier garden

Another job interview on Tuesday
I will be at home the next days
Therefore, no writing today - most probably Jazz club day today

I think that I will sign a new contract next week
Would give me some days of vacation
Would give me time to order some matters
Would give me a lot of time to write

But not today
Maybe also a cocktail today
Maybe I will not be back home at midnight
Maybe a somewhat later upload today

So many opportunities, and I've even not quite begun to sound them out really

First

First time jazz club
First time cocktails
First time in Heilbronn
Since around a year

Another year passed by

Friday

Friday
10:21 PM

Have written nothing so far today
But it had been a good day today

Most probably it will be decided on Sunday
Would give me two weeks
Today had been a day of coming down
Look forward to next week

Still some time for at least some writing, I would have today

Calming Down

Calmer, I feel better
Maybe tomorrow, the last step?
Would be not bad
Looking ahead

Today I try to relax
It seems to be not bad
Still this underlying tiredness
But also many new ideas

Tomorrow a new month begins
The eighth of the year
Still five ahead
But seven behind

What will 2022 offer
The first half will be not that much different, I fear
But maybe the second half?
And then there will be still 2023, 2024, 2025,.....

I love and hate this fucking life!

Sunday's Decision

It's decided

In eighteen days I will start to begin to work in a bier garden
Well, as said, not the typical Bavarian bier garden
We're in Baden-Württemberg here, not in Bavaria

I've the feeling that it's a good decision
No longer working in the classic restaurants
Will have an interesting work schedule
They accommodated my wishes

Monday closing day - not normal for a bier garden
Tuesday will be my day off
Wednesday and Friday late shift
Thursday early shift

Tuesday bar day
Thursday jazz club day
Saturday and Sunday two long shifts
But thereafter two days time off work

Will be a very cool duty roster for me
Of course, as a rule only
It's still catering trade
But it will be one of the crucial points for me

I will have time to prepare during the next two weeks
Time to write and to get some things done
I'm satisfied how everything has developed
It was again a good decision to decide something

And now?

Today most probably no writing
I have to cancel the next job interview, as well as the other job offer
I'm not really sure if I'm getting old or not

Nine years
This could be a good decision
For a good basis
For the next nine years

And if not?

Time is still on my side
I'm still this lucky bastard
No new image today.....

A Virgin Named Mary

I bathed in the blood of a virgin named Mary
Which had, in fact, never been a virgin
But that not troubled me
Feeling her warm blood all over my skin

Some said that I would be a monster
Only because I acted like a monster
But acting like a monster does not mean necessarily to be one
Most monsters not acted like monsters

At least they did everything not to appear like monsters
Monsters that not appeared like monsters
Angels that appeared like monsters
Only because bathing in the warm blood of a faked virgin

Monday - Day One

Laundry shop at the morning
Made a nice lunch
But then the day became chaotic
I got out of step

I wanted to mow the lawn
But the grass was too wet from the rain during the night
So, no mowing
Other ideas

I thought to walk a bit
Then it became cloudy
Then it became better again
But I hesitated a moment

Excellent
A heavy rain shower suddenly
Two other things I wanted to do which weren't possible
I laid down

And as always, I was more tired afterwards than before
And I'm still
But okay
It's the first day after signing the contract

*

Made me a green tea
I think that I should have a walk
Would do me good
9:43 PM

11:04 PM

Walked to my next work place
There and back
Not really an hour
Now I have to wait and see

Maybe I can observe my stars tonight
Fantastic sky
But some clouds
And heavy clouds at the horizon

I have to see how they move
Maybe they are here very soon
But maybe.....
Let's have a look

*

Not definitive
It seems to worsen slowly
I have to wait a bit longer
Saw two nice falling stars, most probably early Perseids

*

Yes
It worsens constantly, but slow
The part where I have no stars to observe is very cloudy now
But the part where I observe my stars is still relatively stable

But this will change slowly but constantly
And I need at least three hours to observe my stars
Thirty-six variables, the last nights
So, it makes no real sense to start

The unstable weather will continue unfortunately
The rest of the week mostly rain
Well, that's the weather
I cannot change it

*

The walking had been good
Should do this more often now
An hour or so a day would be no mistake
I should think about to swim again, or using the bicycle

Tuesday - Day Two

The walking yesterday did me very well
No observing possible unfortunately
Had a good night
Feel good - 3:20 PM

It rained the most time, during the day so far
But somewhat better now
Decided to drive to the truck stop
It's too cold and too wet for the season

They suffer from heat and wildfires not that far from here
And we're sick of the rain and cold
Happy climate change
I feel not bad today

Confused With Linda

Have finished "Behind The Mountains" right now
Thought about the next step
To develop "Give Me A Plot" to a series of short stories
Wasn't sure anymore about the name of the woman in the story - Caroline, normally

Oh, also in "Give Me A Plot" the woman's name is Linda
As in "Behind The Mountains"
That was not planned
But it's like it is now

So, this two Lindas are not the same person
I will continue with the cop Linda now
And Peter of course
Maybe this is the beginning now of writing short stories

And I think that I've a title for the next story already: "A Woman Named Linda"

No Picture

Also today no new picture
Have no good idea
Maybe tomorrow
Cuomo in the news.....

Again

Walked to my new workplace
And back
Today again
My feet, my calves, are hurting

But that's okay
I've the feeling that this is a good idea
To do so
Well, it's only the second time

Tomorrow, the third day

Wednesday - Day Three

I'm satisfied so far
Have written nothing so far
But drove around for some time
Garbage

Gotta quit this town tonight
Still this underlying tiredness
But it changes
Not sure about, whether I should walk again later

The third day
I will have my first workday at the new job in two weeks
Still thirteen days till then
All I do is wait

Walking

Only a shorter walk today
A little more than half an hour
And slower
Maybe tomorrow more again

I feel better every day
Would be good if this will continue
I've the feeling that I've done some right
Well, let's see.....

Thursday - Day Four

Lawn mowing, but the rechargeable batteries (we have two of them!) are empty
The grass grows fast with all this rain
And the grass is often wet
Not good for mowing

I fear that the rechargeable batteries hadn't been totally charged
I wait an hour, only a small part is left
Bar day today
Not sure

I feel not bad
Become more and more active again
The first quarter of my spare time comes to an end
Very satisfied so far

Exhausted

Laid down, after I'd finished the mowing
Interestingly, I felt not more tired after it, exhausted
As so often since months
I've a little headache, a bit tired

Feels good
Not sure about a bar day
Feel not motivated to drink cocktails
Maybe I should stay at home, maybe more sleeping would do me good

Friday - Day Five

7:10 PM
Did not a lot so far
Had some headache during the day
But it's getting better now

I'm in a positive mood
Day five
Eleven are left
Will become interesting days

Next week it should start to become warmer
Less and less clouds
Would like to observe my stars
Would like to be more outside

But so far it works
Will become interesting to start with the new work
New experiences and impressions
But I've still eleven days for others

Separation Lines

The United States has - in an extreme, more than other countries - a problem with separation lines. LGBTXYZ++++????? - how many separation lines one needs? The United States is used to strong separation lines - you're either a Democrat or a Conservative, but in Germany I can support, elect or join the Green Party as well. And there's also the FDP, the AfD or Die Linke (all represented in the parliament). I could elect many more parties, fantastic how many, and if they will get more than five percentages at the end of the year, they will be represented in the parliament as well.

Running, once I saw - unintended - the London Marathon. I'm no expert, but it was even for me no surprise, that all the winners were from Africa, mostly from Kenya – Kenya, or? No problem, first black men, then white men, then black women, then white women, and then the overwhelming rest of runners all mixed up. I thought, why not only one running-in for all, why we had to separate them? Well, because women would have no chance to win? Well, even a white man has no real chance to win? Where's the problem?

I'm in a battle, one of the worst situations I could imagine, a situation I'm sure I could not bear, would it be important to me whether the person near to me is a man, a woman, transgender, white or black, European or Asian? Not to talk about the person on the other side?

Olympia, why contests for men and women? Because it would be unfair? Is the problem that we're always only interested in the winner, the gold medal, but not the competition as such? I stood on the sidewalk and was fascinated about all of those who ran on the street, in an early run a boy got problems very near to the finish, the winners were already in. Another boy helped him for the last yards, they walked over the finishing line together, the winners of the day?

Diversity is, to have more than two options, to have only two options is shit, it produces only extremism. To divide everything to an extreme not produces diversity, it only produces confusion. To have more than two political opportunities is a base for democracy, to divide a society totally is shit, a society should be one unity. The "Americans" like it to divide their nation to an extreme, everything seems to be extreme in the States - black, white, Asian, black and brown, why not cream? In some ways the United States should get more diverse, the Democrats should split, the GOP should split, the Green Party should stay, public vote would be necessary. But on the other hand, the Americans should stop to talk about races - races are not existing! Okay, I get it LGBT.....but where to stop? Is LGBTQIA+ enough? What should the "+" means?

A transgender woman, men's or women's competition? What would be fair - hey, we're talking about gold medals! More women as CEO's, and transgender persons? I look at a woman in a café, well, I look at her stocking-footed legs and shoes. I stand in the kitchen with a cookess - wow, this word in fact exists! - and I hope that she can cook. Is it that easy? Of course not!

The clever conclusion? Maybe I shouldn't have listened Hitchens and Dawkins while writing? Maybe it would be good for the United States - and not only for them - to have in some respects more diversity, but regarding other aspects it seems to me that they overdo it. Maybe we should simply be more relaxed? Why not all sport events for all? Women and men together, transgender..... - why not for blacks and whites separated? Hey, it's unfair for the white runners, also the whites have a "right" to win the London Marathon! Maybe we should simply decide that all political leaders have to be women from now on, or gay, or transgender, and not older than fifty? We have to get rid of this old white males - in the Western World! It's simply as that - more or less.....

Saturday - Day Six

Have written the above
Was intended for "The German....."
But it became somewhat long
Maybe I should concentrate more on one matter sometimes

But.....
Later a "webinar"
AAVSO
Then more writing

Somewhat tired
But not exhausted
Slight headache
Not so bad today

Webinar

Nearly two hours AAVSO webinar
Visual observing
Very interesting
Inspiring

And now maybe the night will be clear, after it had rained the whole day?
But the game as always
Heavy clouds at the horizon
I have to wait, see the developments

10:02 PM now
It seems as I would not continue with the stories
Not much time left
Would observe stars if possible

I'll try the stars!

Sunday - Day Seven

1:45 AM
Have observed my variable stars
Right after a presentation of the AAVSO
Visual Observing

Was cloudy
But I could observe all my thirty-six stars
Observations are uploaded as well
Now I look at the light curves

To see the latest developments
But also as a check, that I have done everything right
Some socializing later, lunch
But should find time to write

Yesterday had been a good day
Not much writing, but other I've done
Will not sleep that much
But all develops good

Monday - Day Eight

4:49 PM

Was a good day so far
Still over a week
Feel not tired, but my head aches

The tiredness seems to disappear more and more
Will be interesting after my first workweek
Monday, in two weeks
In two weeks, Monday and Tuesday, the first days off after the first workweek

But I've severe headache today
Somewhat surprising and disturbing
But apart from that, I feel good
Maybe they will disappear tomorrow

I feel motivated
The next nine years
Very crucial years
Nonetheless, still nine years

Finished

The next Peter-Linda story is finished
An idea appears
The title for the next story I have
But I would like to write at least another story first

It starts to function
Headache is better
But not away
Writing for today is done

Well, more or less
Depends on, whether something further will happen or not Have still to proof-read the just written
9:46 PM

Tuesday - Day Nine

Last day off before working starts again
Next week
Therefore, the last week begins today
Maybe cocktails today

Tuesday would be my bar day
But still only one shot so far
Changeable weather today
Maybe if it doesn't rain later

Not interested in sitting inside
At least till I'm fully vaccinated
But now time to start with some writing
The next days many appointments

Wednesday - Day Ten

Lunch in a restaurant
Was thought that we would pick up our mother from the retirement home
But it did not function
Was a pity

Next week I will have my first workday
I look forward to
I hope to be able to find a good rhythm
To start with next week

Next Tuesday bar day
If it doesn't rain
Next Thursday jazz club
I hope that it will not rain

Have eaten too much the last days
But I feel better
I've the feeling it could fit
That I find some stability during the next nine years

Could develop all the matters
Today my mind is filled with thoughts and emotions
7:36 PM already
Let's see what will happen

Not Satisfied

Not satisfied
With today
The first time since longer
Not satisfied

Thursday - Day Eleven

Better - 6:34 PM
Nice lunch
At my new workplace for a short conversation
I built up (put up?) a new small cabinet

I still look forward to next Wednesday
My first workday
Became hot now
We're at the edge of the extreme heat around the Mediterranean

The beer garden is highly frequented now
So, I will have a lot of work next week
But this is definitively better than to be bored by daily rain
I feel motivated

Friday - Day Twelve

No writing today
Most probably
Have done some nice things
And now it seems as it could become a clear night

Well, as always, some clouds at the horizon
I have to wait and see what will happen
I'm impatient
Next week

A day off today
Tomorrow dinner with my fathers
I've invited him
The new phase will begin on Monday

A new rhythm to write
We will see how it will function
I'm optimistic
But now I have to see if the sky is still clear

Saturday - Day Thirteen

Was a strange day yesterday
Today it's very hot
Dinner with my father later
Tomorrow morning we will harvest "plums"

I mean "Zwetschgen", no "Pflaumen"
They are definitively not the same
Zwetschgen are much better than Pflaumen!
I feel good today

Have observed my stars last night
To bed at 5 AM
Tomorrow my last day of vacation
My workweek starts on Monday

Okay, with two days off
But the rest of the week I will work
Have to develop a new rhythm to write
But now the dinner first

Should have some time to write something afterwards
I've the feeling that I've done things right
Positive
Thinking

I feel good

Excellent!

Dinner had been excellent
Saibling (char) in a wonderful sauce made from Pernod, wonderful vegetables and potatoes as well
But I'm somewhat out of course regarding my writing since yesterday
Too much conquers my mind at the moment

But I think from tomorrow on will be better again
From Monday on I can test my new rhythm
Further on at midnight, local time, the upload
But again writing at night (sometimes)

I look forward
But at the moment I've no rhythm at all
The old is gone
The new not there

But the fish was perfect, definitively not the last time I've eaten there - Hirsch Neckarbischoffsheim

Writing At Night

I think that I should write something after midnight
For tomorrow's upload
To start with nightly writing again
Maybe no dumb idea

Sunday - Day Fourteen

No "Zwetschggen" unfortunately
We thought that those up on the tree should be mellow
But also they need some more days
To get sweet and tasty finally

Well, Viennese Schnitzel for lunch, with a nice summer salad
Have written something after midnight
For today's upload
I think I will do the same today

Two days left
Some gardening by morning the next two days
Some writing as well
Some other matters

I will have some insights and impressions at the end of the month
About the new workplace
Whether it will play out
Like I think and hope

I've the feeling that all bases are loaded now
Not sure whether I'm the pitcher, batter, or catcher
But maybe this is unimportant
Maybe even to win

Show a good play and give your best, Peter

Monday - Second Last Day

First day of the workweek, new job
My first day off
Have written nothing at night
Maybe later

Tomorrow
My second day off
A busy day
A lot to do

In the morning, the next try
Harvesting the Zwetschggen
At noon, the second shot
Fully vaccinated then

No lunch
My father a snack
I will eat a snack later
I will prepare the next classic for dinner

Lentils
Of course, with "Spätzle" and "Wiener Würstchen"
Bar day?
Well, no good weather since Sunday

I have to wait two weeks
Till I have the full protection
I not wanna sit inside
Let's hope that tomorrow the weather will be better

Thursday jazz club?
The same topic
Hopefully the weather will be good
Would like to try the new rhythm

It would not be cool
Rain at my first work day
Would like it definitively much the more to have some work
At my first workday

Will be a large adjustment
From the restaurant to the beer garden
But still, I think it had been a good decision
In two weeks, at the latest, I know more

I think that I should play with stuff animals for some time, to distract oneself

Tuesday - Last Day - Second Shot

7:56 PM

I got my second shot over seven hours ago
I feel good so far
I'm somewhat tired

It rains outside
No motivation for a bar day
My first day at the new workplace tomorrow
It will rain also tomorrow

What to do with the rest of the day?
I think I should do nothing
Waiting till tomorrow
Writing after midnight?

11:15 PM

Had laid to rest for some time
My upper arm hurts a bit
That's all
Seems as it would function much better this time

But no writing for today
No continuation of the stories
I'm tired now
Should sleep long this night

Tomorrow morning we will harvest the Zwetschgen
They are much better now
But now we should not wait longer
And I should have some sleep this night

No "real" upload today
Maybe also not much for tomorrow
But I should start with my new rhythm for writing
But tonight I should give me some sleep

The First Day – The Beginning

The first day of a new period of my life
We will see
The last day ended somewhat chaotic
Had problems with uploading the few written

I will work longer than previously
But it's much nearer
We will see how it will function
0:25 AM, I should go to bed now

First Day - The Ending

Back home
Had a long and hot shower
Ate a fruit yogurt
And some Zwetschggen

I have done not felt that good during the afternoon
But now it's better again
Side effects of the second vaccination
But much lesser than the last time

Would have one and a half hours time to write something after midnight
Have to stand up at 8:30 AM
Seven hours sleep would be enough
But not today

I will go to bed after the upload
Still some headache
I'm somewhat tired
The side effects

I will not become famous tomorrow
I think I will have a nice rhythm
But this is the week of learning
On the job, regarding writing

Tomorrow most probable no real upload
Not regarding the stories
This should start from Friday on again
Of course, Monday and Tuesday, my days off, will be the major days for writing

I'm very satisfied so far
I've the feeling that this could work out
Would be cool
But now I look forward to find sleep in my bed

Tomorrow most probably at the jazz club
If the concert will be outside
My workday will begin at 9 AM and will end at 2 PM - a short workday
Maybe the opportunity to write something, at least more than today

So far so good, it will begin from tomorrow on

Great Decision

I've the feeling that it could be the great decision
To change jobs
To define some new focal points
Well, I'm always restrained

I decided against the jazz club today
Had still some headache after work, somewhat tired
Gave me the opportunity to sleep for a while and then to decide
Now I feel better, started to write

Will become a longer part this time
I will continue with "Living In Historic Times" after midnight
For tomorrow's upload
I feel not bad at the moment

A somewhat different way of cooking
But still, the quality standards surprisingly high
I know enough à la carte restaurants with lower
Could develop positively

Today again a cold day
Saturday and Sunday should be hot
My two long workdays
Monday I will know more

On Tuesday, bar day
On Thursday, jazz club
Well, the numbers in Heilbronn quickly rising - what a surprise!
Have plans for Monday evening

I think that I should have an evening of calm on Mondays
With a good cup of tea, music and candlelight
Try a sample of a very fantastic green tea at the moment
Japan Superior Fukamushi

If it tallies, then it could become a good time
The next nine years
Well, it's still cooking
Not working in a factory

Nevertheless: At the moment I feel better, better than I felt for a longer time now
So far, this first week gives me optimism
Now the second half
Really, a very fine tea!

Wow!

Wow!
The story "Living In Historic Times" developed very strange during today's writing
I would say: It's finished?
It came to an end, obviously - or

Maybe the one chapter more
But then?
It's like with "The Lady At The Ranch"
I have to think about it

I've the feeling
At the moment
That this is the end of hard-boiled
At least in this form

Peter – Linda?
This could be the place for my interest in.....hard-boiled?
Hard-boiled was the 30s, 40s, 50s
Now we're living in the 20s

A new attempt to write a novel?
But should be different
I have to ponder about it
It's enough for today

Friday, August 8th, 2:09 AM

Back Home

Friday, back home
The first day with more to do
Was not bad
Tomorrow will be Saturday

It will be hot
I will have my first long workday
We will see
I see it still very optimistic

I will know more in a day

No Interest

No interest in, to continue with "Lusts And Longings"
Started with "Grand Opening"
No idea in regard to "Living In Historic Times"
As always, I did not plan the writing

As always, I started with a first line
"Looks nice, the sign."
And then I wrote what came me to mind
Not thinking about it

And again I'm somewhat surprised
Not thought that I would write about cats
Especially not about Schrödinger's Cat
A completely hackneyed metaphor

But it happened
And what happens happens
Maybe I will revisit the topic tomorrow
Still no idea what to do with "Living In Historic Times"

No Perfect Day

Today was not all perfect at my workplace
Many more guests today
But that had not been the problem as such
The problem had been a no good organization in the second half

I think that tomorrow we will find time to talk about it
So, let us wait till tomorrow
Now still the question
What to do with "Living In Historic Times"

But maybe that's a question for Monday and Tuesday
My days off
Now I've eaten something, a flavored tea today, caramel
Let's see what I will write today after midnight

After a long and hot shower.....

Undecided

No idea regarding the next writing
1:18 AM
Had a long and hot shower
But

I'm not sure what has happened in the second half today
Was in any case not good
But was it grave
Well, tomorrow I will know more

But tomorrow
Not now
But now I ponder about the next writing
But this day disturbs my concentration

And I've the feeling that it will be crucial
The decision how to continue with "Living In Historic Times"
With Peter and Linda
It effects even "Tomorrow's History - Today's Deeds"

I should not do it after such a day
Maybe tomorrow everything will look different
Two days off then
Would be a good basis to plan the future writing

I should write nothing today
Why not going to bed early
Why not pondering about the next writing
Why not dreaming some weird dreams

I've the feeling that this sounds like a perfect plan

At Home On A Sunday, Late Evening

All looks fine again
Was the right way
To stay calm yesterday
To clear it today

No real upload today
Two days off now
Time to ponder
Time to write

We have written a menu for the first half of winter today
Rained, not many guests, but at least some
Have the feeling that this is a crucial time
Have the feeling that 2022 and 2023 will become crucial years

But the rest of the year first
I should use it to stabilize
My work life and my private life
My writing

Monday Routine

Developing the Monday routine
I have to develop routines
Still a positive mindset
Week two

Stood up relatively early
First to the laundry shop
Then cooking lunch and shopping
Some cleaning would be no bad idea now

Then it would be time for writing
Today at home, but maybe also at the truck stop or so
Some hours
But also time to relax somewhat

Later at the evening
My collections
Music
Candlelight

A fine tea of course

Tuesday Routine

Well, the Monday routine functioned not perfect at the end
But nearly
But not today, today it has not functioned at all
But it would be

Cooking lunch
Some writing afterwards
Later the bar
Simple as that

But not today
No writing so far - 9:17 PM
Will not go to the bar
Fully vaccinated next week, cold today, would be nicer inside, would need a test

Maybe it will be clear tonight
As always, clouds at the horizon
But the next days will be rainy days again
Let's see

Whatever, from Thursday on I will have a new rhythm
Regular writing will be ensured then
Today still some problems
Maybe also tomorrow

The second workweek begins tomorrow
Look forward to next Monday and Tuesday
The next days off
Then I should be able to implement all my new ideas

Clouds

No, it became cloudy
But it's too late now to write something for today's upload
I will write something after midnight
For tomorrow's upload

Nevertheless, it starts to work out

No Stars

No stars
But at least some candlelight
And the scent of the hot wax fulfills the air
Wrong day, but also nice

No writing after midnight
But a long sleep
Will do me better
I'm on the right track

Not Today

No download today
But tomorrow
From tomorrow on, the new rhythm will be in place
A new time of writing will begin

But today nothing
Will begin with work very early tomorrow
But will be also at home early tomorrow
But that will be tomorrow

Today nothing

A New Rhythm Of Writing

Wednesday night will be short
Because I work long on Wednesday
And I begin early on Thursday
Therefore, no writing on Wednesday night

Therefore, no upload regarding the stories on Thursday
Most probably something for "History Will Be Written" and "Tomorrow's History - Today's Deeds"
And Thursday is jazz club day anyway
At least if corona allows it

Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, writing at night for next day's upload
Therefore, on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday an upload regarding the stories
Monday and Tuesday, my days off
Time for writing during the day, later upload, Tuesday also bar day - well, corona.....

Tuesday night, after bar, writing
For Wednesday's upload
That's the plan
That's the summary:

Friday, Saturday, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday
An expanded upload, also the stories
Thursday
A shorter upload, no stories

One problem remains
My variable stars
I will have to decide sometimes
Observing them or writing

I will continue with observing the stars, of course
One Night every week would be a good rhythm
Especially on Sunday night and Monday night it will be no problem
But on the other days.....

Funnily, today the situation could happen
The weather forecast predicts a cloudy night
But looking out of the window I see a clear blue sky
We will see

So, today the short upload
If not clear, I will write something for tomorrow's upload after midnight
If clear, I will observe my variable stars
And therefore, tomorrow no large upload

Not the slightest cloud can be seen
The weather forecast says that it would be cloudy now - 7:18 PM
That the sky should be covered with clouds in an hour, sunset
That it should rain with 90% likelihood in three hours, at this time I would observe

This means:
At the moment I would say that I will observe, looking out of the window
Would mean, no large upload for tomorrow
The weather forecast says, no observations, in no case - then a larger upload tomorrow
We will see.....

Clouds

Well, they are there
Later as predicted
But nevertheless no chance to observe
Therefore, I will write something for tomorrow's upload

Finished

Finished the nightly writing - satisfied
Sad - listened to CNN while writing
It's hard to continue sometimes -
Why all this efforts?

How easy could life be as one of this cowardly swines.....

Nightly Writing

Good progress at the workplace
Today's nightly writing finished
Somewhat tired
But satisfied

The winter appears as very promising
The second week not over
But a lot has changed
My mood changes

Still this tiredness
But it no longer is so burdensome
I think I could handle it
The winter appears as very promising

2:50 AM

Finished today's nightly writing
Not much written today
But maybe important words
For me

All develops still nearly perfect at the new workplace
I will know more at the end of the year
The writing
I've the feeling that it will be different at the end of the year
I've the feeling that I will not be back in the States again in 2022
Sad
But
There will be a 2023

Week Two

The second week is over
A very productive week
No writing this night
Will have enough time tomorrow

It all develops very positively so far

Not Perfect

Still no perfect Monday
But I could implement my ideas better like I did it last Monday
Things are changing
I'm feeling like being under pressure in a way

A standstill, more or less, over the last one and a half years
A new dynamics, the last two weeks
Strange
All happens so unpredicted and fast at the moment

But I do not say that I not like it.....

Development

Again, not everything functioned perfect today
But it develops positively
The next four weeks will be important
There will be the switch from the summer season to the winter season at my new workplace

The beer garden transforms into a restaurant with menu and service ( á la carte)
I never have done this previously
I've a lot of work to do during the next four weeks
But it should be manageable

The next two weeks I can concentrate on the commodities management
Then two weeks of mise en place
The last week the conversion
A lot of change in my life at the moment

I like it

A Clear Night

A clear night
But I've decided to write something for the upload on Wednesday
It should be a clear night again, tomorrow
But it will be the short night, therefore also no observing on Wednesday

That's a bit of a gamble
One should normally observe, should it be possible
But the weather forecast says that the good weather will be stable till Thursday
Thursday would be a good night to observe

No jazz club this week
Next week again
Let's see if the risk will pay
It's a longer time ago that I've observed my variable stars for the last time

I've the feeling that life gets more intense

Sometimes It Works

Thursday
The night will be clear
I can start observing early
It gets dark early again

Thursday
Only a small upload is planned
I will finish observing the stars early
Will have time to write something for tomorrow's upload after midnight

It works at the moment
But will have some busy weeks till October
At least two weeks with a six-day week
But this should not affect writing too much

More the bar days, or something like that, what I do not at the moment anyway

11:50 PM

I've observed my stars
But I have to upload the observations now
I have to check them
Wanna see my light curves

This will need at least an hour
Would have an hour for writing then
Perhaps even somewhat more
But this was a long day

So, no writing this time after midnight
Tomorrow no continuation of the stories
The variable stars have priority
They cannot wait, they do not wait with their change of brightness

But I've still time to get famous

No

No upload today
Nothing written last night
Observed my stars
Had a busy day today

Started with harvesting the last Zwetschggen
King prawns with chanterelles and green beans for lunch
We have fantastic weather in Germany at the moment
The beer garden is filled with guests

Will write something after midnight for tomorrow's upload
It all develops still excellent
It's the third week
Feels as I would be there much longer

As said, nothing for today
But the stars are crucial to me
It was nice to observe them
I've still this tiredness, but I've the feeling that I can deal with it better and better

Not

Not absolutely satisfied
With the night
But it functions
Have to use it better

The two long shifts
Then the next two days off
Then the fourth week
Then first month will be done

Some strange emotions
Should this continue till the end of the year
We will see
I'm very satisfied with my last decisions so far

This Night's Writing

Well, satisfied?
In a way yes
But I've to find my rhythm once for all next week
Make still some mistakes

Maybe the next Peter / Linda story will be somewhat longer
Maybe I can write a short and crisp story?
I will think about it on Monday
Enough for this night

3:35 AM

Forgotten!

I've forgotten to make a new picture for the webpage!

Was a good day
Some writing
Cooking lunch, shopping, some relaxing

Had been a hard weekend
The beer garden crowded
Eight hundred meals on Sunday
Worked from noon till 10 PM

But I was able to handle it
Recovered good today
I think that I should go to the bar tomorrow
I will have a jazz club evening on Thursday

The next days the weather forecast looks good
But the weather will change again on Friday
So, the next days the beer garden should be crowded
But then it will rain again

We deliver food if it rains
Therefore, still something to do
But no eight hundred meals of course
Let's see

The change from summer to winter begins now
The beer garden transforms into a restaurant
Will be interesting, but challenging
Have never done such a thing before

Since three weeks I work there
It feels like three months
I look forward to winter
But I will have a lot of work the next weeks

Bar would be a good choice tomorrow

Back To Normal?

Slept for three hours in the afternoon
Then a shower
I felt better after it interestingly
A good sign?

For such a long time
When feeling tired
And laid down
I felt exhausted after it

It's a very good sign that the rest was not counterproductive this time
It's not like I was used to Laying down an hour or so and a hot shower after it
And I felt fit again

But all the developments are pointing in one direction at the moment
Positive
Three or four weeks and I will know more
It will become an interesting time

I think that I should be in the bar later

Sitting In The Bar

Sad, the Old Fashioned is closed
Sit next door, "Der Ludwig"
The same owners
It seems as that the Old Fashioned takes a vacation.....?

Will have a look at it when home again
Therefore, no "sophisticated" cocktails today
A classic, Negroni
Also not bad

Did some preparations for the next workdays while sitting here
I will make the orders for the kitchen from now on It's nice to sit here again - okay, next door
Look forward to Thursday, jazz club day

Will write something after midnight
The last days had been good
All develops still superb
Thought to have an Overproof Old Fashion and a Mexican Teatime (mescal).....

P.S.: Well, the Old Fashioned opens only from Thursday till Saturday at the moment. I do not know why. I think I should have a cocktail after the jazz on Thursday and ask. If this should be for longer, than I have to ask myself, what to do with the Tuesday evenings? Maybe a day for Italian ice cream and Italian coffee?

Ascending

Finished the nightly writing
Was a good day
Still not exactly like I wish
But near

Now I can find sleep for some hours
I've the feeling that this could become a good week
And that the next week will become even better
Ordered several books from Stanislaw Lem an hour ago

Some of them I've already read
But many years ago
I've the feeling that I should read them again and more
Orbiting Solaris, sometimes I could come to believe that I would do so

Thursday

Jazz later
No writing for today's upload
Will write something after midnight
For tomorrows upload

Four important weeks begin now
At my workplace
Will work some extra time
Next weeks six days for instance

It all points out towards the winter season
It will start at October the thirteenth
Four weeks
But today jazz

Gypsy

"Gypsy Jazz" - well, normally I stick to the slow rhythms
But it had been a fantastic concert
Of course, Django Reinhardt
But also Michael Jackson and Edvard Grieg

Thought: Would your life end after this music, it would be okay
Would I end my life after this music, it would be okay
It Don't Mean A Thing (If It Ain't Got That Swing)
Was one of the pieces with singing

Next week a concert with a quintet, swing music - Linda Kyei Swing Combo
So, maybe I should wait till next week?
In any case, was nice to spend the evening at the "Altes Theater", Jazz Club Cave 61
Thanks, Gismo Graf Quartett

Done

Today's nightly writing is done
Not perfect
But like it
Still undecided if the story should be somewhat longer

Look still forward to winter

Thoughtful

I'm thoughtful today
Not all perfect at the moment
Maybe I'm too.....
Have no idea

Let's see what tomorrow and the next week will yield
Waiting for the winter season
I'm somewhat irritated at the moment
Time will tell us more

Sunday 11:08 PM

Had two conversations today
Feel better again
Time will tell
Three busy weeks awaiting me

The Story

I've decided that the story will be short
Two more short chapters
That will be all for this time
No plans what could follow

Tomorrow morning I have to work
Will have some time to write later
Again somewhat tired at the moment
But I would still say, it had been excellent to start with changes

Workday

Had a workday today
Even some overtime, longer as planned
Have finished the next Peter / Linda story
I've the feeling that they could develop interestingly

But I would have to develop the town
The setting
But it could become interesting
But now a travel to planet Dune

Not the planet Dune
My planet Dune
I wrote once a story about a planet orbiting a blue hypergiant
Covered by one large ocean, metallic water

My planet Dune is in some ways identical with the planet Dune
But with a radical difference
Of course no giant sandworms, no Fremen
Nothing

Dune

Have a slight idea
About the end
Like my writing at the moment
Had I the time to concentrate on writing

It's time to be sixty-five

Swing

Jazz club
Swing
Linda Kyei Swing Combo
Was simply a fantastic concert!

Bar afterwards
Two fantastic cocktails
Live can be such wonderful
No upload, it's jazz club Thursday

Why so much have to suffer

Too Much

Too much alcohol
Jazz club and bar afterwards is too much
But the bar is closed on Tuesdays at the moment
Well,.....

The next three weeks no jazz club
Will work too long on the next Thursdays
Maybe a cocktail after work?
And then we can see

Will continue with "Dune"
I will have two days off next Monday and Tuesday
But now a long and hardworking "weekend"
Still look forward to winter season - three weeks left

Like It

I like my writing in a way at the moment
But
After a hard workday
Knowing that I have the next workday tomorrow

Okay
Yves, the tattooist
The first tattoo, the first conversation
I work for six years as a tattooist now, but this means that I'm still an apprentice

I write for six years now
Still an apprentice
Working as cook means to learn your whole life
At least it should

Enough for today
Would like to write more
Would like to have more time to edit my writing
But some sleep wouldn't be bad also

Will I ever sit at the ocean, as an old man, writing.....?

No

No upload today
Needed a day off the night
For the next parts I need some time and quietness
Monday and Tuesday I will have at least the time

I Can Get Some

I can get some satisfaction
My writing
Sad, not to have more time
A few years

Had a busy day
Laundry, shopping, other matters
Would like having more time for writing
Tomorrow I will have more time

Tomorrow I plan to finish "Dune"
We will elect a new chancellor on Sunday
Not one of the candidates, even not from the Green Party, is able to Develop visions, to inspire the people

Willy Brandt
Okay, was nine years old at the end of his chancellorship
But he inspired, he wrote history, changed how other nations see Germany
Well, as a young person I would near desperation

And if Laschet becomes chancellor?
Then I would get desperate once for all
Fridays for Future
Maybe there would be a future anyway?

Still

Still satisfied with my writing

No Jazz

No jazz club today
But no writing anyway
Need some time
To relax

Later
At night
Some writing
I will do

Some headache
Two hard workdays
Whatever
Sunday we will elect a new chancellor

I'm tired
A new Peter / Linda story?
Writing while listening to music
I longer not did

Coward

I'm a fucking coward
I should quit my job
Should try to earn money with writing
At least till the money is gone

Downright ridiculous?
Well, I've an excuse
My mother, and especially my father
And only nine years or even less

But I'm unsatisfied
I could do much better
Being consistent
Till the end of the year I should have an answer

I feel change
Since a certain time now
This has to lead to something
I've the feeling to burst

At the beginning of my writing
I wrote
That I've wasted my life
And that's simply true

But since some years
At least I try
To do something valuable
Something creative

But it's like
It's not enough
It's like an addiction
Like an obsession

I want more
I need more
I have to have more
I would do everything.....

Would be a moment to get drunk
But I have to stay sober
I need a plan
I have to leave hold of

Maybe all my Peter have to die
All of them
My brain, a lot of confusion
But that's good so

Let's try to find some sleep
Dreams could be the answer
Dreamland is a fascinating land
A land full of inspiration

A New Part?

Maybe a new part
Maybe a new place to find an own style
As a first idea, till the end of the year
"Being Bukowski" would be the first idea for a title

No Upload

No upload today
Saturday
Have observed my variable stars last night
The first time since a longer time

No writing therefore
The moon interfered
But nevertheless
Was nice to do

Was a hard workday today
Will begin working two hours earlier tomorrow
At least ten hours
And I have to vote before I go to work

Therefore, I've decided to go to bed early
Have some headache
Therefore, no writing this night also Thus, no upload also on Sunday

Monday and Tuesday no working
At least I think so
Should have time to continue with both stories
And what about "Being Bukowski"?

I've an idea
But I should take some time
Maybe starting during next week
We will see

Stressful

A stressful week
Behind me
Six workdays
Troubles

The next stressful week will start now
More troubles?
Okay, this week and then a new dynamic will begin
We will see

Will try to write something
But have to relax
Have to try it
Cooking, shopping, laundry is done

The election?
Everything is good so far
What an embarrassment is the behavior of the CDU -
Olaf Scholz will be our next chancellor!

Tuesday

My day off
Have worked several hours
This week
Then a new situation

I'm somewhat tired
But it's because of the hard work
Otherwise, I do not feel that bad
But I have to manage this week

Next week also a lot of work
But with more support then
And then the winter season will begin
Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday

The Crisis

A crisis, a fundamental crisis, a crisis that would have the power to change the global history fundamentally. The impact of a massive meteorite, the eruption of a super volcano, the humankind would have not many possibilities - climate change?

What would be acceptable means of pressure, to prevent at least the most severe consequences of climate change, if the humans will not be consistent enough, to implement sufficient means on their own?

Would one expect that Armin Laschet would be the one who would be capable to face the challenge of the century? I'm not sure about Olaf Scholz, but Armin Laschet?

The climate crisis has to be the measure for everything now because a drastic climate change would destroy everything, why it's so difficult that this becomes the maxim for at least the next decade?

I sit on the mountain top, looking at the world. Theoretically, I will live long enough to see, how devastating it will become. Paris is nearly dead, maybe dead, questioning the human intelligence. I sit on the mountain top - this story should have a happy ending? What a nonsense!

Bukowski

How, really, how much, ironically inflated, or autobiographic? For what a readership - Bukowski was happy to read in front of German students?

He was a man of fifty-six with some not so nice "habits", or better, I'm a man of fifty-six with some not so nice "habits" - what sounded less corrupt, what gave the author the better opportunity to reveal more of his own?

Writing "American Psycho" when dreaming about to rape a woman? He lived in a big city in America - not true, but the rest? "Un chien andalou" - searching for reality in surreality, a documentary style - I sit at my desk, writing "I sit at my desk", looking at the screen, having headache?

The ticking of the clock on the wall, the missing of a tender touch, no other voice to hear, but in the end, he was a happy person - sorry, in the end I was / I'm a happy person.

"My Diary" - definitively a source for truth because self-appraisal is a human virtue.

I'm tired, my head aches, maybe I should try to sleep till upload, enough for today, maybe some writing after midnight? Hey Bukowski, don't try!

Wednesday

No upload today
Pondered on Bukowski after midnight
Was tired, headache
The next long day today

Tomorrow I will start early
Definitively no jazz club
A cocktail maybe -
I don't think so

Tomorrow I want to write something
"Being Bukowski" will come
And will change the structure of the other parts
No definite decisions so far

"Living In Historic Times", no longer a story with a private detective?
But with a couple, living together?
The Peter / Linda stories, the stories then with two private detectives
Should write more short stories like "Dune"

"Being Bukowski"
I have to ponder on a problem
A new movie in Germany about immigrants
As always, a comedy, why not a serious movie

Because nobody would watch it
To show the harsh reality
Why Bukowski used so much irony
Why "American Psycho" gets more and more absurd

Because then it's not totally definite, that all this killing had been real?
Torturing women to death
All maybe not real
How weak!

I have to ponder
Need some more days
Working is hard at the moment
Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday

Shall I

Shall I
Use my YouTube channel
For documentary works
Would make sense - or

I've the feeling to be on a good way
Would be good to know that my circumstances of life
Would be stable for the next years
Not totally sure about it at the moment

I have to ponder more
Still a lot of work next week
But it will be easier next week
Friday, Saturday, Sunday

No Bad

No bad day today
Worked a lot
It should become more easy from next week on Tired, headache

I've made a lot the last two or three weeks in the end
Plan to have three days off in a row
As soon as possible
To sleep one, to spend one in Stuttgart, one in Würzburg

Well, Saturday and Sunday are left

A Long Day

A long day, but a good day
I will write something after midnight
The next six-day week next week
Well, Sunday remains for this week

Damn Tired

My day off, Monday
The next workday tomorrow
The next week with six long workdays
But it should change from Wednesday on

And from next week on everything should be in fact easier
But I feel exhausted today
Cooking, laundry, shopping
Have slept for some hours

But I have to sleep more
Have to go to bed early
Maybe some writing
Tuesday, Wednesday.....and so on, and so on.....

Tuesday

Good day
Worked several hours
Done a lot
Nice day off

It should become easier from tomorrow on Nevertheless, I will work overtime again
But maybe then
And next week

I'm still tired
But look ahead
Will I write something?
We will see

Wednesday

As hoped, it starts to relax somewhat
The next days I have to consolidate this development
The next week I would have two days off - Monday and Tuesday
And two days with late beginning - Friday and Saturday

Well, I would have longer days on Wednesday and Thursday
The first days with a new menu
I have to be in the kitchen the whole day then
But that should be no problem

The last two or three weeks had been very exhausting
But it seems as my efforts would pay
But I need some days of recovery now
Longer writing should be no problem anymore from next week on

And the next days?
Not so much for upload today
Will write something after midnight
Will upload something on Thursday

The next days I have to see
What will be possible, what not
But I'm optimistic
For not only one reason

A Good Day

A good day today
Look forward to next week
It became clear
Have observed my variable stars

But now clouds appeared
And the rest of the stars - eight - are very near to the zenith
I cannot observe them with my Dobson telescope then Maybe I have luck and the sky becomes clear later again

11:18 PM
Not sure whether I will write something after midnight
Maybe tomorrow no upload
I have to sleep
It does me good

Friday

Good
Begin to recover
Two more days
Some headache

It became clear again
Started again to observe my variable stars
Had no power for writing anymore
But the observing was very nice

Forty-eight stars
Not often I observe that much
But no upload today
No writing after midnight

I will have more time for writing from next week on again
I will write something after midnight
For tomorrows upload
Let's see.....

Stressy

A stressy day
Tomorrow, the last day of summer
Wednesday, the winter season begins
Keen

My car did not start
Had to walk home
Have to walk tomorrow either
Hope that it's nothing severe

The last day of summer - no more sunny summer days

The End Of Summer

Today was the last day of summer
From Wednesday on it will be winter
A new duty roster
Should have more time then

Well, the first week not
Have to be in the kitchen during the service times all the time
But nevertheless
Monday and Tuesday are days off

Friday and Saturday late beginning
Only at the evenings we will cook
Wednesday, Thursday, and Sunday will be (very) long days this week
And we have one person in sick leave

I would say that it can become very interesting, next week.....

Truck Stop

Sitting truck stop
Café au lait of course
Later a Caesars Salad - of course
Tomorrow maybe Heilbronn

It will rain tomorrow
It's cloudy and cold today
But it's good to sit here
The first time since a longer time

Somewhat tired
Headache
But the strain of the last weeks is gone away
Wednesday a new phase, at the workplace, will begin

Will I write something today?
Not sure
Something in any case
But I need the day to come down

Everything in the green zone at the moment
Apart from some question marks
But hey, the ocean waits
When I close my eyes, then it seems as I would smell the salty air

Being Bukowski

I've more or less an idea how the writing / story should "look"
But I'm not sure how to begin
Several ideas
I've to decide

The plot
As always
It will develop, howsoever it will develop
But I should be sure about the starting point

It rains
It's cold
I feel better
Try to sleep as much as possible

Twelve

Twelve hours at the workplace today
Tomorrow it will be only ten hours
It's time to get back to the former rhythm
Tomorrow will be Thursday

Therefore, today a normal upload
But tomorrow only a smaller one
From Friday on larger uploads again
The former rhythm

I'm tired
Like my writing at the moment
It will become interesting over the next days and weeks
Have to find some sleep at night

Let's do it!

Ten

Only ten hours today
More relaxed
Not so tired
Will write something after midnight

The next two days short workdays
We will see
Question marks
But I've a good feeling what the development of my writing concerns

Let us doing it

0:47 PM

Have still written nothing
It became a clear night after some clouds
But I've decided not to observe
Pondered about the new workplace

The question marks
But I feel the need to write something
But I'm absent-minded
Thought to continue with "Living In Historic Times" and "Tomorrow's History - Today's Deeds"

But that would be too much now
I think that "Tomorrow's History - Today's Deeds" is more difficult to write
I will continue therefore only with "Living In Historic Times"
That should be manageable

No Bad

No bad day today
But I'm tired
Limb pain
Headache

Had lunch with my father
While looking at horses
A short day today
But feel exhausted

Will write something later
But now I have to shower first
Long and hot
A short workday again tomorrow

No Bad

No bad day again
Tired
But no headache
Will end the weekly-market-chapters later

We will start with the regular work schedule next week, most probably Would give me much more time
Time to write
And to do other things

But in any case
This week is much better
Then the previous three weeks before
Time, to find my rhythm again

Change

Change
I've to change a fucking lot
And I've to sleep
I've to sleep a fucking lot

My New Rhythm

My new rhythm is
To have no rhythm any longer
I will observe my variable stars when it's clear
I will go to the jazz club as often as possible

I will go to the bar if I like it
Well, at the moment they open only from Thursday till Saturday
I will write when I have time, lust, inspiration.....
For five minutes or many hours

I've the feeling that this has to be the consequence
From the developments during the last two years
I lust to be in L.A. again
Last night I dreamt about it for hours, finding no sleep

But first Matoshinhos again
Two concert tickets on my desk, for next year
More have to follow
But the most important is to find more sleep, time to dream

Longer

Have slept longer
Have done some research
Have written something
No perfect day, but not bad

Tomorrow I will visit my mother
Together with my sister
First time since a longer time
Let's see

I'm still tired
Have to sleep a lot this week
I plan to spend the evening at the jazz club on Thursday
I could be on a good way

The Night Falls In

The night falls in Home again
Tired
Headache

Thoughts bother my mind
Not sure what to do
Some writing maybe
The next workweek begins tomorrow

Hope that I can realize the planned working hours
Would give me some possibilities
Being Bukowski
While drinking oolong tea from Nepal, Jun Chiyabari

Good

Good writing after midnight
At least I feel that way
Had fun doing it
The workday today also not bad

Tomorrow, Thursday, jazz club day
Therefore
No (long) upload
Will write something after the jazz club for the Friday upload

Back Home Again

Back home again
Friday, 0:39 AM
No upload on Thursday
Will write nothing now

A fantastic concert at the jazz club
Gee Hey Lee, Joel Locher, Mareike Wienen
Three fantastic cocktails later
Two from the menu, one made specially

I feel excellent

I've the feeling that I should go to bed now
So many impressions during the last few hours
Should have some dreams
How will I feel in the morning?

Should have some time to write something before I have to go to work
Not much time but some
If I feel not tired and search for sleep
We will see

I feel excellent at the moment

No Upload

No upload today
Decided to have some additional sleep before working
And also now, I will not write something after midnight
I will go to bed early

It does me good
I need some sleep
I need some dreams
Feel much better this week than the last

I think that I will have found the new rhythm next week
Then it will be enough time for new writing
Maybe I will write something before going to work tomorrow
But most probably I will use the time to sleep and dream

There will be years, to write more
At least I hope so
Who's concerned about two days or so
Not I at least

Happy dreaming during a long night, Peter!

Time-Out

I take a time-out
Much better today again
11:57 AM
But nevertheless

Did some shopping
Cooked for me and my father
We ate early today
Would have still three hours till I have to leave the house

Could write something
Have a lot of text in my mind
Regarding "Being Bukowski"
Want to continue "Living In Historic Times"

A next "Linda and Peter" story
Or something different
Some new poetry, while listening to music
"History Will Be Written"?

Did it not for a longer time now
As well as observing my stars
No good weather conditions in Germany at the moment
But all has time till next week

Maybe I will write something after midnight
I think no chances to observe my variable stars this night
But maybe some more sleep
And some more dreams

Irony

It got clear
A clear night sky
But the moon interferes
And not many stars can be seen

I will go to bed after upload
Let's see
Maybe another chance during the next days
Have not observed them for two weeks now

No writing
No writing after midnight
Tomorrow a long workday
I'm curious about Monday and Tuesday

I think I should read till upload
A lot happens at the US at the moment
No mercy with guys like Bannon
I hope that we will see the first charges very soon

Not

Monday, not slept the whole day long
Cooked, shopping, laundry
Did other things
I even wrote something

Much better than a week ago!

No

No good writing today
Will stop for now
Will write something after midnight
For tomorrow's upload

Difficult

A difficult workday today
But maybe there will be a solution
Tomorrow is Thursday
Therefore

No writing after midnight
No (long) upload tomorrow
But jazz club and maybe also bar
And writing after midnight

Let's see what the rest of the week will yield.

Question Mark

One question mark developed into a problem
At my workplace
Jazz club and bar at one day is no good
Would be nice to have a bar day on Tuesday again

I feel disappointed and disorientated
My mind is blocked
No meaningful setting for writing
Sometimes

It would be nice sometimes
Would the world around not exist
Like a writer in a nowhere land
On an empty beach

Also I would lie
Would I try to hide
That I can't deal with it
No time for writing

No Clue

Everything seems to be strange sometimes
It seems as everything laughs at you
I will write something after midnight
Have only no idea at the moment what

Again and again, I fall to pieces.....only not because of love

Being Bukowski

I've the feeling that this could become my first major writing
All this ups and downs at the workplace at the moment
They kill me
Writing gives my life a meaning

I would like to create something....."special"
Something beautiful
Something shocking
Something that would move other people

A stamp from Finland on my desk
Was on a letter I got
A swan, but not like a swan looks like in reality
But I'm fascinated by this swan

Two black swans on my back
This patterns on this swan remind me to the costume a ballerina wears, dancing "The Firebird"
Gold foil
Especially the shape of the wings is not very realistic, not to mention the golden patterns

But the swan is so fascinating
I would like to write something like this swan
But
We will see

End Of Daylight Saving Time

The daylight saving time ends this night
Therefore, the upload one hour "earlier" from tomorrow on GMT+1h
One hour more time this night

The Cult

Decided to start a new story
"The Cult"
"Tomorrow's History - Today's Deeds"
Maybe it will become a somewhat longer story

The Cult

Have started with "The Cult"
I've decided to write a first chapter
Then I will continue with Linda and Peter
Or something else

I've not decided, if I will continue with "The Cult" later
To write additional chapters
We will see
At least I've my writing

No Good

No good day today
No good day for writing
I have to solve my problem
Let's see what the elections will yield

No Good II

Crisis?
But hey, tell me, when's the day I'll die?
Virginia?
Shall I tell you the date?

I'm angry
But not depressed or so
But this all disturbs my writing
I'm pissed off

A job
Nine till five, Monday till Friday
Maybe this should be my aim
With an acceptable income

Crisis? What Crisis?
Maybe some Supertramp?
Crime of the Century
Let's have a look at the USA

Listened

Listened
Chet Baker and Van Morrison
I have to become an artist, at least I have to try Otherwise I would die

Well

I'll decide soon, whether a new job would be better
But this will be no problem
No jazz club and bar today
I need the time for other matters

Thursday
No real upload today
More tomorrow
Time is always on my side

Even if my time runs out, unstoppably

Insubordination

"You had your orders, your orders had been to protect our borders, we have to protect our nation! It's not on you to decide what's wrong or not, we have capable politicians for that, and we, the justice, accompany them on their way. Are strangers, who come to destroy our culture, and the modest prosperity we were able to protect, more important than your folks, "defendant"?"

"I could not shoot at them because....."

".....you could not shoot at them! With our blood and sweat.....we have managed it to adapt ourselves to the new living conditions! What had been your ideas, to talk with them? To be nice to us? This vermin tries to destroy our nation. Vermin has to be erased. And yet, they can live their lives, we only want to live our lives. We even help them, but they have to stay at their homes, like we do."

"They cannot live longer we're they had lived, since....."

".....I have not allowed you to talk! It's unbelievable, you've spit on your nation, you stained our flag, you're not respecting this court, me! But this fits only too good, people like you, who not love their people, people who - I get sick of people like you! It's only a manifestation of our state of law that we did not simply put you up against the wall! But even one bullet would be a waste, scum like you should be simply beaten to death! Maybe we can let a few of your friends come in, to do the job? - I like to amuse my courtroom. To be in the same room with such a traitor is sad enough."

"Sad is, that we have lost all our humanity....."

".....take this swine out of my courtroom! Humanity! This filthy traitor talks about humanity! As if we don't have to struggle with that changing world! But we stay strong, we work hard, we don't demand that others should feed us, we're creative and - no gratefulness, this people cannot value what all we have done, so that they can still have such a good life. We have to fight every day with the changing world, it's not easy, but we stay strong. But we have to be careful, the worst enemy are not those who try to overrun us, the worst enemy is among us. But we will hunt them and annihilate them. I have not to announce a verdict, these elements have to get wiped out, the racial corpus has to protect itself from illnesses. The execution shall be public, the trial is ended - I'm hungry. Yes, it will be the best not to lose your sense of humor, because of such ugly incidences. It's lunchtime."

I had Karl Roland Freisler in mind while writing, but fearn that I was too tame.

Shit Happens!

Have written a longer part last night
But then it happened
I lost the text
And could not restore it

It's a long time ago that this happened for the last time
Could restore one third of the text later
But no time to write the text anew
So, no long upload today

A meeting at the workplace on Tuesday
An important meeting
Then I will know more
Tomorrow I have to write a lot

Not

I found so far not that much time for writing
8:56 PM
But at least the lost part I should write anew
Tomorrow the meeting

10:52 PM

Ready with the first writing
Clear night
But misty
No good conditions

I think that I will not write more today
Maybe tomorrow more
Maybe more clearness after the meeting
I rearrange parts of my collections

Three Hours

Over three hours of meeting today
I've a lot to ponder about
The next "phase" will begin on Saturday
If it will be a clear night, and no mist, then I will start early with observing my stars

This would mean, no upload today
But most probably writing after midnight
At the moment I've to ponder about some matters
Still some years I have, till I will be sixty-five and famous

7:46 PM

Have started to observe my variable stars
But now clouds stopped the observation
Maybe later the clouds will disappear again
But now I'll upload my observations that I've made so far

Time for writing
Yeah,.....
We will see
Rearrangement of my collections?

A Good Idea

I think that I've a good idea in mind
Regarding the end of the first chapter of "The Cult"
At least an end,shioned heilbronn that would make it very interesting to continue the story
Is this the beginning of the development, that will constitute me, during the next years,
As an author?

I would have still somewhat over eight years time

Thursday Night

Jazz club
Concert
Has been a killer
"Meyer's Nachtcafe"

Headache
Back pain
No cocktails
Next one and a half weeks will become crucial

I should go to bed
Should dream
Maybe some writing before working
I see a timeline

The rest of this year
Hope that the work stabilizes
That I can close this topic
That this could be the job for the next years, maybe even till retirement

The rest of this year
Writing
Preparing for next year
Pondering about writing and becoming famous

I've the feeling that open mic makes no sense
Furthermore, writing to American bookshops or newspapers
Maybe even to travel to the United States
All too old-fashioned

My forum is the Internet
I have to become famous using the Internet
I have to use those possibilities that the Internet provides
This has to be my prime focus in 2022

At the beginning of 2022 a travel to Portugal again
At the End of 2022 maybe a travel to England again
February 2023 I have to be in Los Angeles again
Have to sit at Santa Monica beach to see the drowning sun, Gus's Drive-In

But now I have to rest
The United States are killing me as well
Like the discussion about the unvaccinated in Germany
Only in a different way as the concert

In Baden-Württemberg, my home state (seven day incidence, yesterday)
Vaccinated: Incidence 36.2
Unvaccinated: Incidence 892.5
This is simply disgusting

I have to try to find some relieve in Dreamland

*When she goes to Dreamland
Nothing bad can happen
Cause she won't be seen there*

Cause there's no one there (Émilie Simon, Dreamland)

No Upload

No upload today
Had to concentrate on today's workday
Not bad
But let's see what tomorrow will yield

I will write something after midnight
And then it will be Monday and Tuesday
Next week will become important
Numerous stupid developments at the moment

Garbage

Disaster

Sunday has been a disaster
I need the day today
To give my mind time to order some matters
Maybe I will write later something, but most probably not

I will know more at the end of the week
Maybe Wednesday will be enough
It has no meaning to hesitate
Clearness has to come

A few years left
Germany fails totally
We screw it up totally
The fourth wave

Portugal has made it much better
Maybe I should search for a job in Portugal
But I speak no Portuguese
And it was meant for retirement

The USA
They have their problems
Problems, even more severe than ours
And the world - no, the human beings as such have a problem, beyond everything

No

No writing
Have to have more time
Will go to bed soon
Last night it has been after 6 AM

Will write something tomorrow

"The Cult"

Finished today
Maybe a first chapter
I've headache
Tomorrow a fucking workday?

I've the feeling that I should go to bed
No writing after midnight
I would like
I try to find some relaxation

The Deep Dark Quietness

"It simply does not function."

"What do you mean?"

"The human living together, it simply does not function. Well, you can say, you've heard about, that some marriages lasted livelong, but compared to all those which failed?"

"You've relationship problems?"

"No. First off, therefor I would need a relationship. But that's not my point. Seeing the world, the world as such, could one come to the conclusion that it functions, that humans can live together?"

"But humans are, without any doubt, social beings."

"Yeah, if interested in drinking or fucking, maybe watching football. Seriously, yes, it had been better, for a long time, to search for shelter in a human community. But even that not really functioned. But especially today, in nations where you have at least a certain security even as an individual, the humans show what's their basic interest, being narcissistic. The own advantage is the guideline, what would not a problem as such. But it's the ruthlessness in which they act. A human life does not count, and not only when waging war because of fucking reasons. Who is interested in all those destroyed lives, in Afghanistan for instance. Or at the Polish border, or in the United States, where your skin color decides on your "value"? In Germany? A minority terrorizes the rest of the nation because they refuse to get vaccinated, many of them, especially in the south, because of esoteric nonsense or the Steiner cult.

No, I've the feeling that human beings are in their innermost incapable to live together with other humans, at least not without difficulties, quarrels, conflicts. And even that would be not the problem, if human being were not the worst possible mediators. They screw everything up regularly, they are incapable to see the complete picture, to get a feeling of time, a responsibility for others. The United States of America are in any case the allegory for all that, a kind of role model. If something can get wrong, look at the United States of America, you will find a "nice" illustration there. Not, that other nations would be better, but the United States of America know it, always the greatest, the biggest, the most extreme.

A human being needs another human beings only therefor, that they can ensure him how fantastic he is. If a human being not needed another human beings for fucking, to reproduce itself, it would be the best then, when every human would live for its own. Maybe it would be the best, would we all live in small groups, like the Amish, a group with similar interests and convictions. But, like the Amish, the problems would start again with the next generation - no cars, but maybe smartphones? The human beings are incapable to live together responsibly."

"I've the feeling that you're too emotional at the moment, that you argue not very rational."

"No, I'm much too tame, I should have the courage to say it loud and clear. But I'm old and so often tired, have headache and feel empty, worn out, the body decays, the mind disappointed and disenchanted. Too often the question of why not now, for a last time, watching the sun drowning in the ocean's waves. To follow her thereafter, into the deep dark quietness."

Friday

Today is my mother's birthday
"Celebrated" it at the retirement home
Only three could be there, cause of corona
My father, sister and I

We decay at the end of our lives
Waiting that long?
Some old memories still there, all new immediately dead and forgotten
Waiting that long?

What sense makes it all
Listened to OHAD TALMOR's NEWSREEL yesterday
Fantastic musicians in front of an overseeable audience
Why should I become famous, if them not?

Why we try so much
Not being simply happy
Enjoying this life
Why're we so stupid beings?

A Bright Sunny Day

A bright sunny day
Today
The Last days
Have been gray

The work?
My mood?
Soon it will be dark
I will observe my stars tonight

At least if fog will make it not impossible
The moon will disturb later
But I like the quietness and coldness of the night
Okay, I start to freeze after two or three hours, especially if it's wet

But it's nice to come in later
To take a hot shower
Maybe a hot tea
Let's see if it will be a clear night

America
Is there a god that punishes you
I've the feeling that everything becomes more extreme every day
But in my youth

Cold War, Cuba crisis, problems no one talked about, women and worker rights.....
No, nothing was better in "the old days"
And yet, in the USA, in the 40s, 50s, or 60s for instance
As a white man

In Georgia, for instance
Seeing all this dirty "niggers"
Or in California
With all the other white surfer boys and their white girls at the beach - German "guest-workers"

I don't know
Is the only possible conclusion
That humans are all insane monsters
At least stupid dumbasses

And yet, I would like to know
The world in a hundred years
Not to think about a thousand years
One at least I know

The night sky will be Almost nearly
The same
Maybe one of my SRC / LC stars has undergone a supernova outburst?

And in Germany, we screw it up totally It's so ridiculous
Do you remember the time
As you wrote about it

The death rates in the USA compared with Germany
And today
Welcome to fantastic Germany
Everything seems so devastating sometimes

Three Hours

Have observed my variable stars
Needed nearly exactly three hours
Was very nice
But I need better shoes for the winter

The moon disturbed at the end
But some very interesting observations
Now I have to upload them
I will write something for tomorrow after midnight

No Large Upload

Thursday
No jazz club
No bar
No long upload

Used the time
To sleep
To dream
To ponder

I've begun to eat better again
Feel not that bad
Will write something for tomorrow's upload Uncertainties

Fucking Holidays

I'm sick of
All this fucking discussions
We wait again
As last year

Christmas fairs crowded with people
Happy Germany
And at Christmas and New Year
We will celebrate the next lockdown

It's so fucking depressing
This faint-hearted politicians
Dare nothing
It could cost you the reelection

There had been a time
Germany was proud of
To treat COVID patients from other countries
Now we have to fly out our COVID patients to other countries

Oh, Angela
I never voted for you
But it's known
That you argued in favor of a new lockdown already weeks ago

And yet
The most fucking party
After the right-wingers from the AfD
Are still the idiots from the FDP

This will become "interesting" weeks
And I greed for, that this year will come to an end
Never I hated a December more than this year
Never I lusted for a January more than this year

Happy holidays!

Tomorrow

Tomorrow I will ask for a counseling at the employment agency
I have to stop working as a cook
But I have also an apprenticeship as retail dealer
I think that a job in an office would be good

I have to go to the doctor
No later than next week
I cannot overcome this tiredness
I sleep long and have good nutrition again

I've nearly all the time headache
Also today, Monday, a day off
I have to use the rest of the year
To start with some definite changes

I feel better, but no good

First Decision

Have sent my first application today
One company, two office jobs
Had a phone call with the agency for labor today
Got some tips for the search for jobs

Now I have the text for a new motivational letter
Have a plan for searching for a new job
I can finish the next applications tomorrow
I have to do this step

Writing
Yeah, let's see
I have to find a stable basis for the next years
This has to have top priority

Empty

Worked on applications
I feel empty
I've no clue at the moment
It rains outside, would be a good day to die

No
It's not meant in that way
But I doubt on everything
Nothing makes sense today

I've tears in my eyes

Appointment

Have made an appointment in a restaurant
The only job offer in the business that interests me
Now I've started activities for an office job, as retailer, as cook
I feel somewhat better

It got late
10 PM now
Maybe a short writing
But first of all I've to eat something now

Time moves only one way, Joanna

Tomorrow

Tomorrow
Working long
No jazz club
No bar

Maybe time for writing
No colors anymore
The winter blues
No motivation

Rock Bottom Candy

I feel like doped
Today
No jazz, no cocktails
New restrictions

I feel better
Somewhat confused
Giddy
An inch over ground

I've the feeling
Whatever the future will offer
It will be okay
I've nothing to lose

Something will happen
I await 2022
It will become an interesting year
Let us pass the time, let us pass December

*

Second day
Of the last month
A month I hate
I never yearned for the new year more than this year

And yet
Feel like I would be an American
After visiting the doctor
Would have been in a pharmacy with a "nice" prescription

And yet
Only tea, fruits and salad
And some cheese
Well, had an apple turnover

*

There was a young boy, his hero was - of course - Adolf Hitler. He liked the HJ, what they did there, and of course, in the last days of the war, he was proud to get the opportunity to fight for the Deutsche Vaterland. But then something strange happened, Germany lost the war finally, Adolf Hitler dead, and the American soldiers said ugly things. They had alleged proof, pictures allegedly made in concentration camps, they showed piles of dead bodies, Jews, the Germans, so they said, would have murdered them, hundreds, hundreds of thousands, even millions. He could not believe that, his parents should be murderers, Adolf Hitler a monster? Should all he had believed in being only a lie, or was this all a lie now? Whom should he trust, only because they had won the war? Was it true that American soldiers raped German women and girls, killed unarmed soldiers, even civilians? He looked at the stars, the stars would not lie, at the HJ they had observed them.

*

A very long day, tomorrow
I have to begin very early
Earlier than normal
Will work till the end

Three hours time during the afternoon
But I doubt that I will write something
Most probably no (large) upload tomorrow
And today?

Today is a strange day
A day between euphoria and being heavy-hearted
And yet, I like it in a way
Fear the future

*

I had this feeling once before
That things are changing
Very fast
But that I cannot control it

Not knowing whereto it leads
The fear of being someone very different at the end
Hoping that things would change
Innocence lost, Mrs. Grant

And yet, how much your music has changed
And yet, like it still all
Blue Banisters
My favorite color is, like the color on my skin, still dark black

No Upload

No upload today
Has been a long day
Tired
But in a different way

Have the feeling
Maybe
That I could Get over this always present tiredness

No upload today
But will write something after midnight
For tomorrow's upload
New restrictions from tomorrow on

Even vaccinated people need a test now, to eat in a restaurant
We have talked about short-time work today
Whatever
Hope that fucking December will be soon over

All in all
I feel better
Now
Even inspired in a way

Have eaten a bit
A large yogurt
Brambleberry
Like the word more than "blackberry"

Later some fruit
Mango and honeydew melon
Also a nice word
Okay, had also a slice of "Fleischkäse"

But ate nearly nothing the whole day
Would like it, to be in Portugal now
Would like it, to be in Los Angeles
But hey, one day I will be there again!

No Upload

Okay
No upload
Decided yesterday
Spontaneously

That I should go to bed early
No writing
Better dreaming
Was a good decision

At the moment
I've the feeling
Every day
Better and better

But today
In any case
Some writing after midnight
In any case

Tomorrow
Sunday
Then three days off
Monday I have to write a lot

I'm fired up for writing
A thousand pages every day
On Tuesday, working at a possible new workplace
We will see

I'm exhausted
And Doped
At the same time

And hey
Without any pills
Very un-American
But I'm German anyway

Have eaten something
Salad and cheese
Yogurt
Some tea

Fuck
I will see the setting sun one day again
While sitting at Santa Monica Beach
I will!

Decisions

I've to make fucking decisions
I will be at a new possible workplace tomorrow
I will quit my current job the day after tomorrow
Whatever tomorrow will yield

The possible new workplace has company holidays
The first three weeks of January
I will have a lot of time for writing in January therefore Whatever tomorrow will yield

Step for step
I have to become more self-confident
I'm old now
What should I still have, that I could lose?

Drove to the restaurant
Now I have to have a focus on the menu
Writing
We will see

Tomorrow?
Not sure when I will be back.....
The day after tomorrow?
In any case!

Look forward, sucker!
You wanna be an artist?
Urge yourself!
Forget your comfort zone!

But now I have to prepare for tomorrow

Back

I'm back at home
Nothing mandatory
Maybe
I'm fucking tired

I've decided that I will visit the doctor tomorrow first
The rest we will see
Was nice in a way
The fucking pandemic

No one knows what will be tomorrow
Or the day after tomorrow etyNot to mention next week
Most of us expect a new lockdown

No good time for restaurants
No good health condition for cooking
Tomorrow will be the next day
Let's see what this day will yield

Some writing today
I think so
But first
The end of the German hubris

Fell Asleep

Lay down and fell asleep
I'm more tired now than before
It's fucking
Let's see what the consultation at the doctor tomorrow will yield

I see different possibilities
For the coming developments
Have the feeling that my life will change severely
Very soon

Well
So long as I will be able to write
So long everything all would be good
Fears for the future?

Not in that way
Not knowing whereto this transition will unfold
Well
As long as I can write

Maybe I will laugh in a year
About my fears
About my anxiety
I've the feeling that it will be

I've to be concentrated now
Then it should be possible to have a good outcome
Due to the pandemic and the German inability to act foresighted during the last few months
It's a difficult situation in Germany at the moment anyway

No real writing today
Tomorrow
Let's see
I'm nervous

The Current State

Back from the doctor
Two new appointments for closer examination
Of course no diagnosis so far
Have been at my workplace

Talked about the situation
Will work less the next weeks
No dismissal
All is in motion now

A possible new job
The old job still
Ideas about an office job
My permanent tiredness, the constant headache, gets examined

So, I'm tired
Have headache
Will lie down now for some time
Then I plan to write something

I'm satisfied so far
Everything is in motion now
I hope that December and January will yield some results
Most important for me would be the question about my illness

Six O'Clock

Have slept
But of course
Rather more tired now
Then before

The next days
I need
To
Sort the developing aspects out

Will try to write something now
A short night
Have to begin early tomorrow
But will have a short workday

No jazz club tomorrow
Started early with the winter break
No bar tomorrow
Is closed again due to the pandemic

Well, should also find time to write something on Thursday

The First Day

Stood up early
Have written something
I need some rest now
Plan to write later something for tomorrow

As I stood up
At the workplace
I had the feeling
That this would be the first day of transformation

Well
Still most important would be
To know
Why I'm always that tired, having headache

I will work five days next week
But the rest of the year
The following two weeks
Less

Will give me time to write
To see what's with the other job
To ponder about an office job
But I should get first of all clarity about my health status

Important weeks ahead

Being Lucky

He sat at home and asked oneself: Have you to be happy now, or would it be acceptable to be unhappy?

He had no clue, for instance, where he would work next month, or the month after, or if he will have work after all. He had health problems, as another example, but lived in a country with a good health care system, with a good social safety net. People in many nations would be happy to have any job possibility at all, to have at least some kind of social security net. So, why he was unhappy, that was what he asked oneself.

He had had an effortless life so far, one could say that he had screwed it up, had not only one time the opportunity to start a career, but all the time he caused a breach. As an apology, maybe more as an excuse, he could have talk about his insecurity, but maybe he was only a coward all his life.

He looked at a black and white photo in a book as a child, a bulldozer pushed a pile of emaciated dead bodies into a mass grave. American soldiers in a concentration camp who tried to prevent plagues, who found no better way to "handle" all the dead bodies they had found in those camps. The people in his nation had murdered them.

He had the feeling that his body would decay, with every day more, and yet, a mind like a child. He would love to run through a flower field, innocent like a child, would love to laugh and shout. He felt the gravity more and more, with every day, soon he had the feeling, the gravity would nail him down to the ground. So, why he was unhappy, that was what he asked oneself.

He feared to lie down, the very moment, when conscious disappeared, no longer in control. And yet, a wonderful world could wait, he enjoyed being there. But the way thereto was to die, his biggest fright was to die while sleeping, simply fading away, not waking up again. So, why he was unhappy, that was what he asked oneself.

All the time this burdensome tiredness, always headache, but maybe he had simply too many images in head, too many bad memories, too much information. Could not forget the hammer, would like to be at the small river again, seeing the setting sun while sitting in the sand, hearing the tender waves.

And now the time had got late in fact, soon he would lie down, awaiting the daily dying, hoping that dreamland, wonderful dreamland, not the endless blackness, would await him. He switched off the light.

So, why he was so unhappy? He had no longer to ask now, why he was so unhappy.

Hurricane

Have written about, why I'm unhappy
Well, on those days?
Still not assessable how many died
But it seems as it could be many

In Germany, it has rain
So many died
And I sit at my desk, tired and having headache
But still alive

In moments like these
I ask myself
Why not
'Cause I'm a coward

But shall I say it
I've the feeling that this could change
With every day more
Give me only a little bit more time

How long? - One asks.
Not definitively sure.
This month? - In any case.
Maybe even also the next.

But it will come to an end
I have to be consistent
Hey, hey, hey, the change is near
On a good day I can see the change from here

*Hey, hey, hey, the end is near
On a good day you can see the end from here (Joanna Newsom; On a Good Day)*

This Week

This week
The week before Christmas
I have to come through this week
A long week

Today is Monday
I've a day off
After a relatively good first half
I feel totally tired now

Laundry, shopping, cooking.....
It functioned so far
But now, 7:14 PM
I feel extremely tired

This will become a hard week
Several parallel storylines at the moment
The history of my life
Let's see what the denouement of this story will be

*

Have eaten something sweet
Chocolate
And from the bakery
And I'm very tired now, exhausted

Does this indicate diabetes?
Well, on Thursday the first examination
Diabetes, if, should be easy to diagnose
Whatever, it would be good to know

*

Do not think that I will write something today
8:20 PM
Have eaten something
Salad, cheese
Let's see how I will feel later

Next Day Of The Week

Problems in the afternoon again
6:38 PM
But not so severe as yesterday
Tomorrow I will work

A long day tomorrow
On Thursday
In the morning
At the doctor

Then working
10 AM
Will become a hard week
But the rest of the year should be manageable

I will simply wait this week
I will become active again from next week on Regarding my future
Then I also know if new measurements have been implemented

Next week also the next visit at the doctor, Tuesday
Further examinations
Maybe the first results
Would be good

Today some writing?
I think so
Should come to an end with the Peter / Linda story
The next part of "The Cult" waits

Thursday

At the doctor in the morning
Worked
Now at home
Ate something sweet

Again I've problems
Blood sampling in the morning
Would it be diabetes
It should be no problem to find out

Tomorrow I will be at the doctor again
I have to have some days sick leave
Have arranged all at the workplace
Will be back before Christmas

The last days had been difficult
Have severe problems now to concentrate
But cooking is also a mental thing
Plan to be next Thursday in the kitchen again

Diabetes
Well, would be type 2 diabetes
But even if type 1
This is Germany

We have no crazy drug prices
A good health care system
And a diet would be maybe enough
Have to lose weight anyway

But now I feel exhausted
Dizzy
Have problems to concentrate
Have problems to hit the right keys

Seems as that I would have some time to write something over the next days
To work on my future
I've decided therefore
To write nothing today

The next days I should write the next part of "The Cult"
Linda / Peter maybe
"Being Bukowski"
The "English" part

I've the feeling that the next weeks will not be easy
But could lead to a new chapter
Setting the course
I feel tired, headache, but not weary, weary of life

Well, weary of humans.....

Hepatitis B

I hoped for a fast result
The morning I got a call from the public health department
They found hepatitis B viruses in my blood
Don't we have a problem with corona?

I was at the doctor as well
Sick leave till Wednesday
On Tuesday I will be at the doctor again
They will do further blood tests till then

Hepatitis B, not necessarily a problem
Many have the virus in their bodies without knowing it
But if the tiredness is connected with it
Then I should have it already in the blood for longer

But it's too early
Let's see what the results will be next Tuesday
The next days I will stay at home
Therefore, no problem at all

A fast first result Shall I be happy now
I have to deal with it
I will use the day to try to relax

I will try to start anew tomorrow
Writing today
Not sure
Not quite happy with this result

Uncertainty

9:19 PM
Was out for a walk
Have eaten some fruit
Feel exhausted and have severe headache

I've the feeling that a lot is good
My stomach
My digestion
Lose weight

But I've the feeling that something went entirely wrong at the moment
Hepatitis B?
Other blood values have been excellent
Absolutely no indication for diabetes

But such severe effects would be strange
Most people even do not become aware of an infection with hepatitis B
Dizzy
Have to wait till Tuesday

11:27 PM

Still December the seventeenth
The next three days will be essential
Saturday, Sunday, and Monday
Time to deliver

Yes, I'm tired
Yes, I've headache
Yes, my limbs hurt
Yes, my knee joints also

But this cannot be the reason
Not to get up tomorrow, bold
To write
To await the coming developments

Have given different developments a push
Let's see what they will yield
I'm prepared in any way
What bad should happen to me in nice Germany

Even if I will get fired
Even if I have a severe illness
I will find a new job
I will have excellent and affordable treatment

I will have the possibility to write in any case
That's what I'm dreaming about
So, what's your fucking problem?
Or is your style the "style" of the fucking white motherfuckers of the GOP like Jordan or Cruz?

If I can put this into practice
The next three days
(As far as the tiredness it allows)
Then I'm on the right track

The next three days have to be a benchmark for me.

Saturday, First Day, 1:02 PM

Stood up
Tired, slight headache
Cooked
Kidney of pork, fried potatoes, salad with cucumber, tomato, mushrooms

I normally like gibbs from cattle more, but the butcher had pork kidneys only
Read and article about quantum field theory
Try to stay somewhat active
Plan some writing

The window is open
The fresh air, oxygen, is good
Even if it's cold
Wear a woolen sweater

When I close my eyes
I feel the tiredness
I hope that next Tuesday will yield some results
That I can start with a useful treatment

Saturday, First Day, 4:13 PM

Watched "Endeavour"
Pilot
The English original
Have seen it in German translation on TV already

Ninety minutes
English TV series are very different from American TV series
The English language is very different from the American one
Could not write an English story

I will be out for a while now
Then some English spanking fun waits
The rest we will see
Somewhat tired, no headache

A salad later
A subtle feeling of anxiety
Unsettled
Take a deep breath, your future is not in severe danger

Saturday, First Day, 8:14 PM

Have written a longer part
Cordula's spanking
Long time ago, that I've written such a long part
Should be enough for today

I still have to proofread the text
But it becomes a productive day
Medium tired, some headache
Now I have to prepare and to eat my salad

Seems as this will become a good first day.

Saturday, First Day, 10:44 PM

"Endeavour"
S1 E1
The Brits make good crime series
Definitively better than the Yanks

Okay, the classic hardboiled
But this time is long ago
Much longer than Oxford in the 60s
The Americans have just not detected it

Satisfied
With the day
Time for my collections
Some CNN

Tomorrow more
Somewhat tired
Nearly no headache
Will try to have a long sleep

Time to dream my little dreams.

Sunday, Second Day, 0:37 PM

Have cooked
Soup from sweet chestnuts with prawns
I feel exhausted this morning
Have the impulse to lay down again

But I shouldn't do this Sleeping not helps
That's the problem
Maybe the next episode of English crime?

Whatever, what the doctor on Tuesday will say will be the important.

Sunday, Second Day, 3:38 PM

S1 E2
Have started to watch
But then I had the impulse to write
Tired, some headache

Have written the beginning of the new part of "The Cult"
Maybe this is ridiculous
But Franz Kafka came me to mind
And the Old State Gallery in Stuttgart

I have to proofread this part
But first I continue watching "Endeavour"
The nice English ladies
In the year of my birth

I feel better now, than in the morning.

Sunday, Second Day, 7:56 PM

Have decided that enough writing for today
Have made a mistake
The first episode is the pilot episode
Have continued watching and will continue watching

The rest of the day I will try to relax
Tomorrow the next day for writing
"Living In Historic Times"
Most probably

Waiting for Tuesday morning.

Sunday, Second Day, 11:24 PM

I think that this was a good day
A lot of endeavour
More tired now
More headache

There's something wrong
Never felt that way in my life
Hopeful, that Tuesday can bring up some light
Would be relieving

Not very interested in at the moment, what will be my workplace next year.

Monday, Third Day, 2:14 PM

Stood up late
No cooking
Asked my father to cook something for himself
Have eaten nothing so far

Did short shopping
Will eat a yogurt
Will write nothing today
I've the impulse to sleep for the rest of the day

Today is a day "in between"
I have to come through it
No endeavour today
Have to see what the doctor will tell me tomorrow

Tomorrow will be the fourth day.

Tuesday, Fourth Day, 1:10 PM

Was at the doctor
No infection – most probably
The information from the public health department was wrong
They did not find the virus in my blood, only antibodies

Maybe an infection long ago
Further examination is on its way
All other blood values are good
If not excellent

No diabetes
No problems with cholesterol
No problems with the liver
No problems with the thyroid

Back to the beginning
Sleep apnea is the most probable cause now
But difficult to diagnose
No good Tuesday so far

Have cooked
Spaghetti with mushrooms in cream, salad
A pudding
Have eaten yogurt and an orange

Will lay down for a while now
I want to see something
Later I will write something
From Thursday on I will work again

Let's see what the rest of the year will yield.

Tuesday, Fourth Day, 8:33 PM

Have written a longer part again
Have some ideas how the writing could develop
But because all happens spontaneously in the end
Who knows

Tired, but not so much
Headache, but very little
Standing up tomorrow will be interesting
Tomorrow will be interesting

Have begun to change a few things
Will do this also at work
Will it change something
No idea

Have to proofread the writing
But first a new episode of "Endeavour"
Nothing interesting on TV
Maybe later a talk show in German TV

I'm satisfied with the day on the whole.

Wednesday, Fifth Day, 1:03 PM

Try different things
No late eating
Only sleeping at night
Not too long, others

It seems as it would make it somewhat better
Will be interesting to see what will happen when working again
Tomorrow I will start early
Let's see

Will have a relaxed day today
At least I will try
Will write something later
There's something wrong

We will see.

Wednesday, Fifth Day, 11:23 PM

Has been a very long day
But I think an important one
Not only in one respect
Tomorrow I will start working again

The next two, three weeks will become very interesting
Feel motivated in a way
Somewhat tired, slight headache
Will upload somewhat earlier today

I'm curious about what tomorrow will yield.

Life Is Crazy

The next step
Have told them at my workplace that I will go
After the holidays
And after I came back home?

Made a mistake
No short workday today, Thursday
Worked from 10 AM till 9:30 PM
Therefore, no writing, no (long) upload

I will not work tomorrow
Will have some time to write
But have also to socialize
Well, it's Christmas!

I found a message on my answering machine
A restaurant where I had applied last time
Had a job interview, which I canceled
After I had decided for the place where I work now

He asked me to call him back
A job offer?
Would be a strange joke
Will call him tomorrow

I feel relatively good
No headache, somewhat tired
Curious about, how it will be tomorrow
After getting up

*

Whatever
The trick is to keep breathing never trust anyone
On my arm

sometimes you have to
On the other side
From my first writing trust no one

One day, I would love it to do trust someone
Totally Absolutely

It's such a freaky moment in my life
Up and down
The doctor left a notice on my answering machine as well
I should call him back because of my blood values

Two calls tomorrow morning:
Whom shall I call first?
Two nice conversations?
Or.....?

Life is a stupid game,
And I feel drunken -
Lust of Life?
I've absolutely no clue.

The first day,
I will sit at the beach in Portugal,
As a retired person,
When I start to write something,

I will start to cry.
Why I?
And if not?
It would be okay.

So many dreams become destroyed
So many dreams had never a chance to get realized
Why should my dreams come true
Any of them

And if had to choose
Childish game
I'm a drunken old man
What a perfect moment to die!

Ah, come on, be lenient with the old man.

Christmas, December the twenty-fourth, 11:35 AM

Had two phone calls
My father had been at my answering machine yesterday
At least the one from the restaurant was an old phone call
They have not phoned me yesterday

Life can be funny!
And the one from the doctor?
Was the second one -
It should be even older therefore.

But they have said they would call me
After getting the further results from the examination of my blood
It had made sense therefore
My answering machine unfortunately gives you no information when the call had been

Whatever,
I cannot get the doctor,
Answering machine..... -
Life can be so funny!

But I feel relaxed
The step has been done
I will call the possible new job after Christmas
Where I had the job interview recently

We talked two hours about cooking
Was not a job interview in that meaning
His sister, a sommelier (wine stewardess in the US), would have employed me immediately
He hesitated because of the corona situation

The first three weeks in January are company holidays
Not much doubt that
After the next political meeting on January the seventh
We will have again a lockdown in Germany

How long
That's to know would be interesting
So, I can understand his hesitation
But it's not that good for me

Well, the next phone call at the beginning of next week – life is a crazy creature

I See It Now

I've pondered for some time
Laid in bed
Lights out
To get some clarity

Two possible future ways
Regarding my remaining work life
First: The restaurant in Ilsfeld
I will try to clarify it next week

I will quit the job in any case after the holidays
This has no future
Second: A mercantile job in an office
It will be not that easy

At least to get a well-paid job
But I would not exclude
To begin at a temporary employment agency
One or two years, to get professional practice

That's it
Let's start next week to clarify the coming
Will it function
We will see

Everything develops
Maybe it would in fact the best to stop working as a cook
Well, minimum wage maybe
But maybe some extra money as cook would be still possible

I would lose in any case a lot of money every year
No question
Thousands of Euros every year
But maybe I would do my body a favor

Next week the next step
We will see what this phone call will yield
And then the next step
And then the next

Two long workdays are waiting.

No Upload Tomorrow

No upload tomorrow
Will not write something after midnight
The next long day tomorrow
I want to have time to dream

But next week
I will work only two days
Wednesday and Friday
A lot of time to write

And to work on my future
My work life
Not in a kitchen
Ilsfeld?

It feels strange
No longer cooking
But it seems to be consistent
Coward or bold person, what will I be?

Tomorrow, then we will see.

Christmas Is Over

At home again
Sunday, St. Stephen's Day, is over
A very short work week begins
Time to write a lot

Time to ponder a lot
Time to have some important phone calls
Oh, and yes,
The old year ends

The new year begins
Was never a special time for me
Time is a continuum
Years, months, weeks, days, hours, minutes, seconds

Human constructs
To be not misunderstood
The universe develops
In one direction

But the intervals
They are human constructs
A life begins, a life ends
In a continuous flow

I've the feeling that this becomes an interesting week.

Monday, 2:41 PM

Stood up
Not so bad
Cooked, laundry, shopping
Somewhat tired, some headache

A phone call in the morning
Doctor
About-face
I've definitively hepatitis B

I have to visit a specialist
I have three letters of referral now
For three entirely different doctors
Well, the problem.....

Turn of the year
To get a doctor's appointment now is difficult
I have to see what will be possible
I have to ponder today

Tomorrow I will continue
Today a quiet day
Some writing is planned
Let's see

I do not feel that bad in the end today.

Monday, 5:37 PM

Have selected three job offers, to have phone calls tomorrow
Three jobs with no cooking
But will also call the restaurant in Ilsfeld tomorrow
Maybe I can get an appointment at the gastroenterologist?

The rest of today?
After 6 PM my tea dealer will call me
Ms. Cristache
She had once a tea shop in Heilbronn

Then she went back to her hometown
Raitingen
But I buy still my tea at her shop
Well, she has to send the tea.....

Will write something later
Still strange days
But I start to enjoy it more and more in a way
Feel more and more alive again

Let's see, but first a conversation about tea.

Tuesday, 3:14 PM

It's difficult to reach someone between Christmas and New Year
But had a nice phone conversation just now
Well, we have to see what it will yield
But it seems to support my opinion, that it will be possible for me to find a job outside the kitchen

Of course, less money
But maybe an opportunity to organize the rest of my work life
I called because of a distinct job
But we agreed on, at the end, that it would be the best to send a general job application

They need good workers for different parts of the company
We should see what could be the interesting for me
As said, this has not to mean that I will find a job there
But it's a good sign

The restaurant in Ilsfeld?
Cooking?
I think that I have to be consistent
Goodbye cooking, hello whatever.....

Will become an interesting time.

Tuesday, 7:58 PM

My first job application for a job outside the kitchen is out
The one company with which I had a phone conversation earlier
Let's see what will happen
But the person responsible for applications is in holidays until tenth next year

Another company I could not reach
Most probably also in Holidays until tenth
As many companies
And doctors

The path seems to be trod
Only, it's not clear where the path will lead to
But will this be important
There will be an aim

Let's see whether I will write something today.

Tuesday, 9:55 PM

No writing today
No real upload
Most probably also not tomorrow
I've done the first step

It's hard to say goodbye
I liked cooking
Regardless all the disadvantages
But you have to end sometimes something

Okay, so far, only a first step
But it's also because many companies are closed now
Often from Christmas until after Epiphany
Means this year until January the tenth

But I feel good
I will find a new job
Something new will begin
Looking forward to January

But the rest of the day I will do something different.

It's done – Wednesday, 10:03 PM

Had a conversation at my workplace
I will get my dismissal on Friday
December the thirty-first
New Year's Eve

New Year's Eve will be my last workday there
Therewith my last workday in a kitchen
My last workday as cook
What a nice date

A new year begins
A new episode in the story of my life
I will start a series of writing
"Stories Out From The Kitchen"

Of course, all will be totally autobiographic
Apart from, that some will not believe me
But I will be on a new road then
It will be interesting whereto this new road will lead

But today is the twenty-ninth
Tomorrow I will have time to write
It's an interesting feeling
Now, as it has happened

I feel relieved, totally relieved, even if I have absolutely no idea whereto this all will lead.

Thursday, 2:24 PM

Have been on the road
Literally
Drove around for some time
Had a walk

Tomorrow, the last day in a kitchen
Tomorrow will be a very long day
I am uncertain if I will be at home for an upload at midnight
Maybe a later upload

I feel reassured
At least I assume it
I'm curious about January
What could I lose?

Well, today and tomorrow
And on Saturday morning, I will stand up
January the first, New Year's Day
How will I feel?

To be honest
I'm not sure
But all alternatives seem to be meaningless
Come on, Peter, be a bit more bold

I smile and feel, this will become a good decision, I can only win - you wanna be an artist, or what?

Friday, 11:47 AM

Have eaten something
Soon I will go to work
It will become a very long day
With a lot of work

But it will be the last one
And that's good so
A new year will begin soon
Honey, you can't make any mistakes

Let's get it on, darling!

Friday, 11:21 PM

Back home
After the last day in kitchen
Working as a cook
Do I feel sad?

Why?
Well, most probably I will lose a good deal of money
But what about livability?
One cannot buy health with money

I'm curious about tomorrow
The first day of the new year, of the new stage of life
How will I feel?
Let's wait and see

In any case
This is the end of "History Will Be Written 2021"
Tomorrow "History Will Be Written 2022" begins
And me?

Me, I start to love more and more. Should I become, as an old man, at least somewhat bold?
